

was considered if Mr Radell wished to raise his original price. However we were given no "second" chance as was Mr Radell. Our requests for contract to be presented to the Band, - and their request as well, was refused and evaded and finally the deal closed on an offer which still is not as good for the Indians as is our original offer.

The offers submitted are as follows.

Dec 18th Our original and accepted. Dec 16th 1950.
 *5.50 per 1000ft and all money received ^{over} ~~over~~ an basic average of *35.00 per 1000ft. in sale.
 (Vancouver market for land 2-?)

Mr Radell's Original offer. (Final Dec 26)

*4.00 per 1000ft and 50% of all money received over an average of 35.00 per 1000ft. This was turned down and Mr Radell changed the contract to read *4.00 plus *2.50 per 1000ft plus 50% of sales over *35.00. This offer was accepted at the same date.

Mr Radell's contract was signed ten
