

A Quaint, Old Fashioned Holiday Country.

FULL OF HISTORIC INTEREST AND SCENIC CHARM.

WITHIN A NIGHT'S JOURNEY OF BOSTON

Immortalized by Longfellow as the home of Evangeline, blessed with a delightful summer climate, and with numberless rivers and streams that teem with the gamest of fighting fish, Nova Scotia stands by itself as the vacation country par excellence.

It is wonderfully picturesque. Old world customs and speech, coupled with modern transportation facilities and up-to-date hotel accommodation, will make your summer vacation an ever remembered pleasure.

The ox, shod like the horse, still draws the humble farmers' produce to market as he did 150 years ago, while the quaintly-garbed inhabitants adhere to the mannerisms and speech of their forefathers.

This ideal vacation country is admirably served by

The Halifax & Southwestern Ry.

"THE ROAD BY THE SEA"

Yarmouth to Halifax and Port Wade to Halifax

Excellent appointed trains make connection with Boston steamers at Yarmouth and stop at all well known fishing grounds, beaches, resorts, etc., en route to Halifax, passing through a verdant country that yields new scenic surprises at every mile.

For further particulars see any agent, or

P. MOONEY,

General Freight and Passenger Agent,

123 Hollis Street, HALIFAX, N. S.

VIEWS OF

Camp Mooswa

A SUMMER CAMP FOR BOYS.

For rates and booklet write
Director Camp Mooswa,
4 Gaden Street,
Belmont, Mass.