

It is enough that through thy grace,
I saw naught common on Thy earth."

Rudyard Kipling looks still through a fore-vista of years. In his poetry as in his prose, his gospel is the great gospel of work; of a new Heaven and a new Earth, where,—

"Each in his separate star Shall draw the Thing as he sees It for the God of Things as They Are!"