International Bible Lesson for To-Morrow.

Jesus Wins His First Disciples— John 1, 35-51.

Golden Text-"Thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel."

Our lesson describes how our Lord attracted and selected His first disciples. The first to change masters w.re John and Andrew, his brother, who were greeted with the question, light with the seek ye? Evidently they sought Him, and, to know Him more intimately, spent the rest of that day in His company. They found what they sought to their entire satisfaction, and so will all who seek Him while He may be found, who call on Him while He is near. Simon is next brought by his brother Andrew, and the Master gave him the new, emblematic name of Peter—rock or stone. Then, as they journey to Galilee next day Jesus calls Philip to follow Him. He does so, but brings with him Nathaniel, who questions if anything good ever came from Our lesson describes how our Lord if anything good ever came from Nazareth, where Jesus was brought up. Phillip's answer is, "Come and see," and he comes to one he did not know, but who knew him and the se brets of his honest heart, and He de-olares him guileless. So Nathaniel accepts Him as the Son of God, and the King of Israel, Jesus, gives then the promise of seeing His kingdom

See how God honors this individual. Straight, personal dealing with friends and relatives, and their con-tact with Jesus rivets them to Him. This is the simplest and most natur al and effectual way to win souls and and effectual way to win souls, and unlearned and ignorant men and women, can now be used of God, as they were used in this lesson.

Friend, what art thou doing, in this primitive way, in bringing precious souls to the Lord Jesus Christ?

"More love to Thee, O, Christ!"

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, out simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.
Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.
Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the

HOW SLEEP CAPTURES US.

The coming of natural slumber is by stages. The general repose would seem to be made up of many little sleeps, which are premonitions of Nature's approaching control of the body. These little sleeps take each sense separately and obscure it. They take the physical organs one by one, and shroud them slowly till all are quiescent.

Of the five guardian senses that protect us from danger while awake, the eyes are the most important.

But normal sleep comes with darkness: sight is uscless in the dark; therefore, in sleeping, the eyes close first of all.

Such, in brief, are the opening remarks of the case of Mr. Weaver, of Galt, whose portrait appears above.

Mr. Weaver is to-day a splendid specimen of manhood and the picture of robust health. His lungs give him no more trouble. He is strong and healthy, cats and sleeps well, and feels better than he has for ten years.

MR. L. WEAVER, GALT.
Who desires to publicly confirm the history of his remarkable recovery, as published quite recently by the daily press of Canada. Mr. Weaver was as bad a case of Consumption as might well be imagined. He was employed for five years in the grinding room of James Warnock & Co's, better known as "The Axe Factory," in Gait, Hern he contracted consumption from the steel laden dust. He persisted with local physicians treatment for over a year, also consulted a number of lung apecialists. They all did their utmost to care, but declared Mr. Weaver's an incurable case of grinder's consumption giving, him but three months to live. Mr. Weaver himself, despaired of a permanent cure, as two of his brothers before him had already died of consumption.

Mr. Weaver's second statement after the above was published.

Dr T. A. Slocum:—The publication of the history of my case in Toronto and Galt papers has caused quite a sensation in this town. There have been scores of people ask me if such were really the case. I have also received by mail numbers of like enquiries. Some people hardly think it possible that I was so near death's door. But I can say for certain that Psychine saved my life and I bless the day I saw Psychine advertised and became couvinced of its merits enough to try it. I have spread the good news in three counties, and shall ever continue to praise Psychine. Kerry word as published January 30th, is true to the facts of the case.
