The Managers would again express their grateful acknowledgments to C. S. Gzowski, Esq., for his generous donation of $100, to provide fuel for the "Home"; to Professor Wilson, for a most interesting lecture delivered in December, 1867, in aid of the funds of this Institution, and by which was realized the handsome sum of $180 80; also to Benjamin Lyman, Esq., of Montreal, who, though living at a distance, takes a warm interest in the well doing of the "Home," and has again sent the most welcome contribution of $100; to C. J. Bridges, Esq., for a grant of twelve cords of firewood; and to those ladies and gentlemen who so kindly assisted at a Concert last Spring, the proceeds of which, amounting to $347 55, proved a most timely addition to the funds of the Institution, which at that season of the year were in a very exhausted state.

The Treasurer's annual statement of accounts will be found, as usual, annexed; and in thanking the public for their continued subscriptions and hearty co-operation, the Managers would particularly draw attention to the contribution of $90, the proceeds of a ball, most generously sent them by the cabmen of this City, and for which they would take this opportunity to offer them publicly their warmest thanks. Their best acknowledgements were also due to Governor Allan and the Matron of the Jail, fer kindly allowing a quantity of clothing to be made up in that Institution, by the inmates; also to Mr. Robert George, for his unwearying care and watchfulness over the boys during the absence of the Matron, Mrs. Munro, for the space of four months in the summer, thereby preventing the loss of her motherly kindness and attention being felt as much as it otherwise would have been; and in this connectien the Committee have much pleasure in expressing their satisfaction with her superintendance and good management of the Establishment. To Mr. Hamilton, also, the Managers would express their hearty thanks, fur his never-ceasing labours in behalf of the "Home." To his exertions they are indebt-
