

Does Your Sunday School Librarian select Books for the Library which are National in their Character and Sentiment ?

Every Book Read by the Boys and Girls has an Influence on their Characters

HERE ARE SOME EXCELLENT BOOKS :

The Story of Isaac Brock

Hero, Defender and Saviour of Upper Canada, 1812

By WALTER R. NURSEY

Cloth beautifully illustrated, 85c.

The best life of Sir Isaac Brock. Written in an exceedingly interesting and virile style. Once taken up, the interest of the reader becomes so keen that it is impossible to lay it aside until finished.

Where the Buffalo Roamed

The Story of Western Canada Told for the Young

By E. L. MARSH

Containing 24 beautiful half-tone illustrations. Cloth, $1.25.

Every Canadian, young or old, who has not read carefully the history of Western Canada from the beginning, will find it interesting and valuable, for it gives such a picturesque and comprehensive picture of the great work of discovery and settlement in Western Canada.

Heroines of Canadian History

By W. S. HERRINGTON

Cloth, with Portraits of Heroines, 30c. net.

Every parent in Canada should purchase this book for the children. It should be on the shelves of every Sunday School and School Library in the country.

The People of the Plains

By AMELIA M. PAGET

Cloth, illustrated, $1.00.

A very interesting and instructive account of the Indians of the Western plains. Their manners, customs, rites and characteristics are fully described by the author from personal experience and observation. The best book on the Indians yet issued.

A Veteran of 1812

The Life of Colonel FitzGibbon

By MARY AGNES FITZGIBBON

Cloth, illustrated, $1.00.

Colonel FitzGibbon was one of our most famous Canadian heroes. General Brock had in him a most capable and valuable officer. The daring deeds and stirring episodes in which Colonel FitzGibbon figured in the War of 1812 were such as to make Canadians proud to remember his name with respect and gratitude.

The Old Loyalist

By A. R. DAVIS

Cloth, illustrated, $1.25.

"A most readable book, redolent of the soil, and elevated and patriotic in tone and purpose, a tribute to those foundation builders of Canada who formed the United Empire Loyalist migration of over a century ago."—Toronto Globe.
