

filled by the God of hope with all joy and peace in believing, that she might abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.—(Acts. ii. 38 ; Rom. xv. 13). Shortly after this she departed to be with Christ, which is far better.—(Phil. i. 23).

There was the new birth and life through faith in the person of Christ ; repentance and faith in a risen and glorified Christ for pardon, and she received the “promise of the Father,” the “gift of the Holy Ghost.”—(Acts i. 4 ; ii. 33).

If you come to God as a sinner, owning and confessing your guilt, and that you are lost and ruined, and plead only the name of Jesus, and accept Jesus Christ, the Son of God, as your only and all sufficient Saviour, that very moment God will blot out all your sins for His Son's sake. He will wash your soul of every stain, however black, and make it whiter than snow ; He will give you eternal life which you can never lose ; He will give you an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for all who put their trust in Christ. Is it not inexpressibly glorious to have such a Saviour and such a salvation.

Oh ! come, unsaved one, come TO-DAY,
Christ is the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Trust not your heart, trust not your mind,
In Him eternal life you'll find.
