1077

Should contain 111 maps and although imperfect, is a volume of the greatest rarity, the map indicated above and the map of China, dated 1584, being alone worth the cost of the volume. The purchaser will observe in the letterpress of the last, TWO CHINESE WORDS, these being the FIRST CHINESE CHARACTERS USED IN EUROPE. The bibliographical connoisseur has hitherto regarded the work relating to China by Gonzalch de Mendoza printed at Rome in 1585, as the first time Chinese characters were used in Europe.
