members of the Altar Guild in memory of Miss Caroline Stoughton, one of the oldest members of the church and a life-long worker in the parish. Two solid brass altar lights were also given at the same time.

A movement has already been started in Manchester to commemorate the work of the late Dean Maclure in that city. A meeting was hel on a recent Monday in the Chapter House of the Cathedral and a committee was appointed to consider a scheme. It was decided that the memorial should take the form of a full-length figure to be placed in the cathedral. Mr. Basil Champneys was asked to prepare a design.

Yorks, from 1867 to 1888. He was Rural Dean of Dewsbury from 1871 to 1889, Hon. Canon of Ripon from 1884 to 1889, and Hon. Canon of Wakefield from 1888. From 18 7, tt 1904 he was vicar of Halifax.

St. Mary Redcliffe, Bristol, got the name of "The Bishops' Nursery" late-"No other church in England could say, as could be said at Redcliffe, that it had provided five living, acting Bi hops-Vicars all trained i that one church and parish." This was stated by Dr. Browne at an "At Home" given in honour of two of these ex-Vicars—the Bishops of Brechin and Grahamstown; and the speaker amusingly accused both his South African and his Scottish brother of filching clergy from him. Cornish swooped upon his good men and carried them off, and then came there and boasted that in his cathedral he had almost a Bristol congre-

The Diocese of Nebraska has met with a great loss in thet death of the Hon. James Woolworth, LL.D., who died recently at his home in Omaha, aged 77 years. He was the Chancel-lor of the diocese, and he with the late Bishop Clarkson, was instrumental in shaping the cathedral, drafting the Canons of the diocese, and was foremost in all of the Church legislation of the diocese for the past to years. He was one of the lay delegates to the General Convention of 1868, being the first time that Nebraska came in as a diocese, and has served in that capacity in every convention up to and including 1904. He was a leading Churchman and was held in the highest respect by is fellow-Churchmen.

church and in the Mission church of Cur Saviour of tablets, commemorating the gifts of stones to these churches from the parish church of Milton Abbey, Dorset, Eng. The tablet in the parish church was unveiled during the morning service by the senior warden, Mr. Benjamin F. Ha ding. It was placed, covered with the British flag at the entrance of the church in the wall of the arch whose key stone is a Norman frag-ment of Milton Abbey. The rector, standing under the arch read the Milton Abbey Bidding Prayer, which for many generations has been read, previous to the delivery of the sermon, in Milton Abbey. The rector then preached the sermon in which he set forth our national Anglo-Saxon Christian inheritance, symbolized by the Abbey Church, and he dwelt especially on the many historical associations of the town in Massachusetts with Milton in the mother land. In the evening at the Mission church, after Evensong, the rector and the lay-reader-in-charge, Mr. R. Johnston went from the choir to the west end of the church, where stands the font, whose top is formed by four stones from Milton Abbey. The tablet had been erected in the wall behind the font and it was also covered with the British Flag. During the offertory the choir sang as an anthem the Milton Abbey hymn of St. Sampson, which for centuries past has been sung in the ancient Abbey on historic and festive occasions. The whole day was a most interesting one in the parish.

GIRLS SHOULD KNOW.

That the home kitchen, with mother for a teacher, and a loving, willing daughter for pupil, is the best cooking school on earth.

That "the most excellent thing in woman"-a low voice-can be acquired only by home practice.

That true beauty of face is possible cas on was the unveiling in the parish only where there is beauty of soul manifested in a beautiful character.

> That the girl everybody likes is not affected, and never whines; but is just her sincere, earnest, helpful self.

And, finally, that one of the most beautiful things on earth is a pure, modest, true young girl-one who is her father's pride, her mother's comfort, her brother's inspiration and her sister's ideal-which all should try to

The Fatality of Indigestion.

From insurance records it has been found hat about thirty-five per cent. of the leaths of policyholders was attributed diseases of the digestive system.

To persons who have been accustomed think lightly of indigestion, biliousness nd liver derangements this statement will e rather startling, but it cannot be refuted. To a large extent the liver controls the igestive system by supplying the bile to usure prompt passage of the food along the ntestines, where the difficult part of diestion takes place.

Because of their immediate and direct influence on the liver, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills insure a good flow of bile, and by so doing positively overcome constipation and intestinal indigestion.

Wind on the stomach, rising of sour taste in the mouth, smothering sensation in the chest, pains about the heart, headaches and dizziness, drowsiness and discomfort after meals and sluggish action of the liver kidneys and bowels are the symptoms of this serious and dangerous form of indiges-

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will promptly overcome these symptoms. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Tor. nto.
