Evidencing the flourishing condition of its work, a year-book has been issued by the Chapel of the Advent, Baltimore, of which the Rev. Christopher Sparling, formerly of the Niagara diocese, Canada, is vicar. The Chapel of the Advent is part of the cure of the rector of Grace church, the Rev. A. C. Powell, D. D. The book, which was published by the Men's Guild of the chapel, presents very encouraging statistics and reports from the various organizations.

The Church is making rapid progress in San Francisco. The new parish church of St. John the Evangelist, will probably be ready for occupation the early part of next year. It is expected the corner-stone of St. Surrogate by the Chancellor of the Luke's will be laid on St. Luke's Day.

The Rev. William Wakeford, Vicar of Henfield, has been appointed a Surrogate by the Chancellor of the Diocese. On completion of ten years' work as Vicar recently, he was the recipient of a present of a handsome set of stoles, subscribed for by 150 communicants of the parish.
