Law Reports.

Some two or three weeks since the numerous law reports in most of the city papers, but were then in a manner discontinued, to the great disappointment of a number of subscribers, and the dissatisfaction of the Montreal Bar. In consequence of a remonstrance on the part of the latter, we have again commenced the publication of the Reports, and hope to continue them regularly hereafter.

Police Intelligence.

Yesterday morning, Mr. Recorder Mondelet delivered a lengthy and able charge to the Grand Jury, which was occupied principally in calling their attention to the state of the Police Establishment of the City, and the necessity of its reform. His Worship pointed out the many defects which have been observed in the system, and which have been productive of much evil to the community, and suggested the propriety of the Grand Jury recommending the appointment of a Committee of their body, to confer with the Police Committee of the City Council, and to report to the Grand Jury, in order that the latter might recommend to the Corporation the adoption of such measures as might be deemed necessary for the improvement of the Police. His Worship also pointed out the necessity of the Grand Jury recommending the establishment of a House of Correction, and the erection of a Lunatic Asylum, as well as the necessity of the Corporation providing for the better lighting of the City, and the improvement of the Fire Department. His Worship's charge occupied upwards of two hours in the delivery, and was listened to throughout with the greatest attention.

The Grand Jury then retired to their room, and returned into Court with the following presentments:

We, the Grand Jury, have carefully examined the Police Establishment of this City, and have come to the conclusion that it is inefficient, and requires a thorough reform. We have also examined the Police Committee of the City Council, and find that they have not the power to remove any of the Police Officers, except upon the recommendation of the Chief Constable, and that the Chief Constable has not the power to suspend any of the Police Officers, except upon the recommendation of the Police Committee. We therefore recommend that the Police Committee be empowered to suspend any of the Police Officers, subject to the confirmation of the Corporation at their next meeting.

We have also examined the Police Committee
