Ottawa, March 11.—According to figures by Police Chief Ross, there were 296 fewer arrests for drunkenness during the twelve months immediately preceding prohibition. From September 16, 1915, to September 16, 1916, there were 991 inebriates arrested in Ottawa. The twelve months after prohibition was introduced, viz, September 16, 1916, to September 16, 1917, the number of arrests for this offense dropped to 695.

CALLO CREATER AND POWER AN

Speaking in 1893, he said:

I look forward to the day when the federal idea may be applied to England, Scotland and Wales as well as Ireland. Then the character of the so-called Imperial Parliament would be changed. It would be then truly an Imperial Parliament, and all the kingdoms having their own national parliaments might be represented in it. But if Ireland alone has a parliament of her own, you must not allow Irishmen, who have sole control of Irish affairs, to interfere in and probably decide English and Scotlish affairs—an obvious injustice."

Precisely the same federal note—unity in freedom—was sounded by Mr. Redmond later in his American tour. As leader of the Nationalist party, which though reunited was baunted by the old schismatic spirit.

PARIS PRESBYTERY.

The regular meeting of the Paris Presbytery was held in Woodstock yesterday. The report on Sunday school work showed 3,809 pupils in attendance in the different schools of the presbytery, 500 teachers and officers and 691 enrolled on the cradle roll. The Sunday schools had contributed for the budget during the year $1,564. At the evening session Dr. Gandier, of Knox College, gave an address. He made a strong appeal for students for the Presbyterian ministry. Rev. Dr. A. S. Grant was the unanimous choice of the presbytery as the next moderator of the general assembly. The following commissioners were appointed to the general assembly, which meets in London next June. Rev. Donald McLeod, Ingersolt: Rev. W. P. Lane, Embro; Rev. W. W. Carpenter, Delhi, and Rev., J. C. Nicholson, Brantford.
