FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

PORT WILLIAMS.

Mrs. Jessie Sweet of Newport is spending some weeks with her cousin Mr. N. H. Newcombe. Mrs. Jas. Maitland of Grand Pre, visited her aunt, Mrs. S. L. Gates last week.

Mrs. Harry Rand of Canning visited Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rand last week.

During the past month four aged residents have been removed by death from this community Mrs. Olivia Cogswell (86 years.) Mrs. Anne Rowe, (90 years.) Mr. Howard West (77 years.) Miss Lucy Borden (89 years.) One could scarce find four persons so advanced in years who retained in such a marked degree their faculties and were so entertaining in conversation. They will all be missed in the homes where they were so tenderly cared for.

Miss Florence Brown who has been very ill for several weeks is now improving.

Mrs. Cyrus Ellis is confined to the house with a badly sprained ankle.

This village still shows its loyalty in furnishing recruits for the Empire, Everett Frazer, Gerald Mills, Nathan Ellis and Justin Gates have recently volunteered, on account of health, only the first two men were accepted.

The patriotic concert given last week by "Ye Bigge Choir" who so successfully gave the "Olde Tyme" music last winter was a great success. The music consisting of solos, quartettes and choruses was well selected and splendidly rendered. The flag drill given by twelve young ladies dressed in red, white and blue and carrying the flags of the Allied and neutral nations was one of the best things ever given here. The whole entertainment has been highly complimented and they have been asked to repeat it again in Citizens Hall on Thursday evening next, (23rd), they will give it in Hall at Lower Canard, dividing proceeds with the local Red Cross there.

GRAND PRE.

Mrs. Alfred Perry held a Red Cross supper on Thursday evening, March 9th, Supper was served from six to eight and after that there was some entertainment. In spite of the inclement weather, there was a good attendance and the sum of ten dollars was realized.

Miss Catherine and Master Harold Smith left on Saturday morning for Boston where they will join their mother who went about a fortnight ago.

Miss Evelyn Reid accompanied by her sister, Miss Helen, is spending a few days in Halifax. Miss Laura Thenholm is substituting in the Primary during Miss Reid's absence.

There has been a series of Lenten services in the church at Horton for the past ten days. Rev. Mr. Hockin has been assisted by Mr. Armitage and Mr. England.

Mrs. Howard Fuller who has been ill at the home of her father in Avonport has recovered and returned to her own home. The Port Williams Dramatic Society presented their play—"The Turn of the Tide" in Evangeline Hall on Tuesday evening last. It was reported a success.

Miss Katherine Dawson spent the week-end in Wolfville, guest of Mrs. C. W. Roscoe.

The Red Cross Society met at the home of Mrs. L. P. Dennison on Friday afternoon, there being a large attendance.

Among the recent recruits from Grand Pre are Messrs. Harold and Arthur Woodman, Keith Patterson and Alfred Perry.

CANARD

During the winter months death has exacted a heavy toll from the aged inhabitants of this street. Mr. William Belcher passed away in October. Mrs. Edwin Newcombe in January, Captain Hallburton in January and now today it is with profoundest regret that we add to the list the name of Mrs. Mary McNab Sheffield. She was born at Dartmouth in 1837, and would have reached her 79th birthday had she lived until July. Fifty-five years ago. She was married to Mr. De Lance Sheffield who brought her to this High Farm now occupied by their son, Mr. Frank. Five children were born to them, Frank, Ellison, the deceased wife of Mr. Alfred Newcombe and Belle, the wife of Dr. Stanton Rockwell. The other two children died young, until three weeks ago Mrs. Sheffield was in her normal state of health but then she contracted a cold which developed into pneumonia from which she never rallied. Mrs. Sheffield was a Presbyterian all her life, on coming to Canard she joined the Church under the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Hogg.

She was a beautiful personality and always a lady, no one could come into her presence without being struck with the unobtrusiveness of her manners and the intelligence of her character strong pure, good— it beamed out of her sweet face.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and the very high esteem in which she was held was evinced by the large concourse of people who gathered to pay their last respects to her memory. The Hillaton quartette had charge of the singing. The Rev. A. J. Prosser read the lesson and offered the first prayer. The Rev. John Hull who had delayed the hour of his Canning service to be present offered the closing prayer, and pronounced the benediction. The Rev. John U. Bell gave the address assuring us all of the adamant foundation on which the Christian builds has hope of a resurrection to life and immortality. Long and keenly we shall miss her kindly presence. Beloved of the Lord the Lord hath given his beloved sleep.

HANTSPORT

Mrs. Reginald McLatchey has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaw at Avonport.

Miss Ghlee Woodworth returned to Kentville recently.

Mrs. George Kewley and children spent two days at Kentville with her.

Private George Newcombe who has been ill with measles at Halifax returned to his home here for a time to regain his strength.

The remains of Mrs. Lillie Porter who died in Boston, March 13th, aged 40 years arrived here on Wednesday for burial.

Mrs. M. Davison was called home from Boston a week ago on account of the illness of her daughter Nita with measles.

Dr. Shankel is holding a "first aid" class and his remarks are listened to with much profit.

Rev. Benjamin Hills has been spending some time at Port of Spain and parts of Trinidad. He is now in the sunny clime of Bermuda expecting to return home in the spring.

Strawberry Plants For Sale

Senator Dunlop (perfect.) This berry has been very highly recommended since its introduction in 1900. In all localities where it has been planted there is satisfaction in this variety. The plant is healthy and an enormous bearer. It commences to ripen soon after the earliest and continues until the close of the season, booking orders now. Prices on application.

The marriage took place on Wednesday afternoon, March 22nd, at the Baptist Parsonage, Rev. J. D. Spidell officiating, Mr. Stanley Clinton Hancock, White Rock and Miss Gertrude Millett of Wolfville.

Miss Mildred Daniels who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. Spidell left for Winnipeg today where she will be united in marriage to Mr. Robert Morley of the Winnipeg Electric Light Company.

Mr. P. F. Lawson is delivering an excellent lecture illustrated by stereoscopic views of various parts of the Province. He gathered the material for his lecture and views during his recent trip to Great Britain and it has been listened to with deep interest at Kentville and many other parts of the valley. Mr. Lawson is doing his share to help along the Red Cross and Patriotic Fund work.
