To the Lungs.
Do you go to Chicago to reach Quebec? No. There's a better and more direct way. Then why try to reach your lungs by way of your stomach? Better go straight to the lungs at once. Just light the vaporizer and breathe in the healing, soothing vapors of Cresoline. The medicine goes exactly to the right place. Your lungs quickly heal and your cough disappears. For whooping cough it's simply perfect.

WORLD OF SPORT

BOWLING

The final game in the singles of the local lawn bowling tournament was played yesterday afternoon between Edwin Bell and A. E. Jewett, who were guests in the city Thursday.

Great interest has been manifested in the tournament and each match from the first round to the final game.

Besides a prize, which has not been picked, Mr. Jewett will have the custody of the T. A. Smith Trophy, which was some years ago liberally donated by the ex-mayor. In 1899 and 1900 the trophy was won by Wilson Taylor, but in 1901, it was won by Mr. Gray, who has since left the city. Mr. Jewett the other day defeated Wilson Taylor by three shots, probably the second strongest man in the game, and also defeated D. A. Hutchinson 28 to 12. Yesterday's game at the first, looked as if Mr. Bell was going to win, as he had a handicap of five points. Mr. Jewett, however, soon overcame the lead, and won out easily by a score of 38 to 12.

In the doubles the semi-finals have been played with the result that Wilson Taylor and Harry Collins defeated A. E. Jewett and G. K. Atkinson, by a score of 18 to 14.

This leaves the final game to be played between Dr. J. L. Gray and John McCarg, and W. Taylor and Harry Collins. This has given promise to be a close and well contested game.

WHEN YOU TRAVEL.
Whether it be East, West, North or South, you will reach your destination quickly and comfortably if you take the Grand Trunk. Fast time and "up-to-date" equipment has been the motto of this company for some time past, and the "Magnificent electric lighted dining cars, luxurious cafe parlors, and the modern vestibule coaches now being operated on their trans-continental trip to Toronto, North Bay, Montreal, Buffalo, New York, Detroit or Chicago, one of enjoyment and pleasure.

The dining and cafe car service has been endorsed as second to none in America. Night trains also carry Pullman sleeping cars between all above points. FLAG LANGUAGE.

The black flag is a sign of piracy. To "strike the flag" is to lower the colors in submission.

Dipping the flag is lowering it slightly and hoisting it again to salute a vessel or fort.

The yellow flag shows a vessel to be in quarantine or is a sign of a contagious disease.

A "flag of truce" is a white flag displayed to an enemy to indicate a desire for parley or consultation.

The red flag in our service is a mark of danger and shows a vessel to be receiving or discharging her powder.

A flag at half mast means mourning. Fishing and other vessels return with the flag at half mast to announce the loss or death of some of their crew.

Flags are used as the symbol of rank and command, the officers using them being called "flag officers." Such flags are square to distinguish them from other banners.

The white flag is a sign of peace. After a battle parties from both sides often go out to the field to rescue the wounded or bury the dead under the protection of the white flag.

If the president of the United States goes aboard the American flag is carried in the bow of his barge or hoisted at the mast of the vessel on board of which he is.

THE BEST DAY OF ALL.

Two Reasons Why Sunday Always Appeals to the Children.

On weekday mornings father had gone to work when you came down stairs, but on Sunday mornings when you awoke a trifle earlier, if anything—

"Father!"

"Father!" a little louder.

Then a clear "Yes!"

"We want to get up."

"It isn't time yet. You children go to sleep."

You waited. Then—

"Father, is it time yet?"

"No. You children lie still."

So you and Lizbeth, wide awake, whispered together, and then, to while away the time while father slept, you played Indian, which required two little yells from you to begin with (when the Indian you arrived in your war-paint) and two big yells from Lizbeth to end with (when the Paleface she was being scalped).

Then father said it was "no use," and mother took a hand. You were quiet for that, but it was yawning lying there with the sun so high. You listened. Not a sound came from father and mother's room. You rose cautiously, you and Lizbeth, in your little bare feet. You stole softly across the floor. The door was a crack open, so you peeped in, your face even with the knob and Lizbeth's just below. And then at one and the same instant you both said "Boo!" and grinned, and the harder you grinned the harder father tried not to laugh, which was a sign that you could scramble into bed with him, you on one side and Lizbeth on the other, cuddling down close while mother went to see about breakfast.

It was very strange, but while it had been so hard to drowse in your own bed the moment you were in father's you did not want to get up at all. Indeed, it was father who wanted to get up first, and it was you who cried that it was not time.

Weekdays were always best for most things, but for two reasons Sunday was the best day of all. One reason was Sunday dinner. The other was father.
