KILLED BY A FALL.
Another Tragedy Near the Eau—Young Man Named Coleman the Victim.

Yesterday a terrible and fatal accident happened to a young man named Coleman, a brother of Henry Coleman, whose farm adjoins the marsh near the Eau. The unfortunate victim was working a hayrack in his brother's barn. He was up some height and missed his hold. He grasped a rope in his fall but this did not hold him and he came to the floor head first. To save himself as he landed the poor fellow put out his hands but the force of the fall was too great to be struck so easily. With terrible effect he struck the barn floor forehead first. His nose and face were smashed and death followed from fracture of the skull. The family have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

Was it Highhanded?

The Release of a Couple of Americans Jailed from Merlin Ordered by Government.

A very unusual incident in Canadian international affairs has just come to a head here. It appears that the authorities at the village of Merlin about a month ago arrested a man and his wife on a charge of vagrancy. They were convicted, and the man was sentenced to six months in jail, and his wife received a 90 days' sentence. Both claimed to be citizens of the United States. They were in possession of some money, and stated to the authorities that they were going to Detroit and had only stopped in Merlin on their way through. Their pleadings had no effect, and they were brought here and incarcerated in the county jail. The United States consul, Col. Chas. E. Montiech, learned of the affair upon making an investigation he found that the parties were, as they claimed, American citizens, and he corresponded with the Washington authorities. The result of the negotiations are that Sheriff Gemmill has been instructed by the governor-general of Canada upon the representations made by the United States authorities to at once release the prisoners, whose names are given as Mr. and Mrs. Robert Giger. The man and his wife are to be at once sent to Detroit. It is not known whether any further proceedings may arise from this international affair or not.

Five Arrests Made in Monza—Government Issues a Manifesto.

Rome, July 31.—The Tribuna says the assassination of King Humbert is believed to have been the result of a plot. A non-militant anarchist recently declared, so the Tribuna asserts, that a meeting had been held in Paris at which lots were drawn and several persons were selected to kill the King. The papers announce that King Victor Emmanuel III will reach Brindisi to-day and will go directly to Monza. Besides Bressi, five persons have been taken into custody at Monza.

In the absence of the new king the ministry has issued in his name a manifesto to the nation, as follows: King Victor Emmanuel III, in ascending the throne, has to perform the painful duty of announcing to the country the awful calamity which has violently cut short the valuable life of King Humbert.

The nation, wounded in its sincere affection for the august dead, and in a sincere feeling of devotion and adoration to the dynasty, while execrating the cruel crime, will be plunged into profound grief for the venerated memory of a good, brave and magnanimous king, the pride of his people, and the worthy perpetrator of the traditions of the house of Savoy, by rallying with unshaken loyalty around his august successor, Italians will prove by their deeds that their institutions do not die.

The king is expected to arrive at Reggio di Calabria to-morrow. He received the news of the death of his father by telegram.

THE TRANSFER SET ASIDE.

Over eighty years old and nearly totally blind, Mary Hicks lived a lonely life in Chatham, with no one to take care of her. A domestic named Mary Johnston took compassion on the old lady and went and lived with her, cooking the meals and doing the house-work. This kindness pleased Mary Johnston and she decided all her property in Chatham to her benefactress. Later, remorse set in and Mrs. Hicks brought an action to set aside the conveyance. At Toronto yesterday morning Chief Justice Falconbridge gave judgment, declaring the deed "void and of no effect on the ground of improvidence, want of independent and competent professional advice and absence of consideration." His Lordship also found that undue influence had been practiced.

The judgment which is by Justice Falconbridge declares the impeached conveyance void on the grounds of improvidence, want of independent and competent professional advice and absence of consideration, and directing its delivery up for cancellation. The maintenance already furnished to plaintiff and the taxes paid, and the improvement (the value of which is $52) made by defendant are to be set off against occupation of premises by defendant. Order for immediate possession of premises. Stay for one week to enable defendant to remove her things from the premises. Plaintiff did not ask for, and there is no order as to costs. C. J. O'Neill (Chatham) for plaintiff. M. Wilson, Q. C., for defendant.

ENTRIES POURING IN.

Although the lists were not sent out for the coming Caledonian Games until last Thursday, entries are pouring in so fast as to almost take Registrar Peter McKellar's breath away.

"We thought we had a fine entry list last year," said Mr. McKellar, "and so we had. But it was nothing to what we are going to have this time by the looks of things."

Up to yesterday, that is in less than four days after sending out the lists, 65 entries for the various contests have been received. These come mostly from Barrie, St. Marys, Woodstock, London, St. Thomas and other eastern points. Altogether the outlook is for the finest Caledonian Games ever seen in Canada.
