FOR THE COUNTRY AGAINST THE DEAL

Hon. Mr. Blair Wants Nothing From Party or G.T.P. People.

and and Prevent, If the People Will, the Consummation of the Railway "Bargain" Which Is Monacing the True Interests of the Dominion.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 21.—Mr. Blair and the renewing of his strong protest against the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme are as much as ever the absorbing topics in local political circles. Politicians agree that the former minister's course is bound to have a great effect on the polling on Nov. 3. Nothing new locally came to light yesterday, but The Telegraph will print in the morning a special from Montreal, stating that Mr. Blair wants nothing from the party or the corporation, but has resigned solely to stand between the country and the Grand Trunk Pacific deal.

Montreal, Que., 21.-The Star says

Developments about a recent big railway deal and purchase are looked for. They will prove more than interesting to persons in high places in and out of Canada. Will Decline to Stump.

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—(Globe Special.)
—"Of course, you know that I am neither denying nor affirming anything," said Mr. Blair yesterday morning, when asked what he had to say in regard to the report that he and his son would join the C.P.R. "Conservative journals credit you with the intention of re-entering poli-

"I think I have made it sufficiently clear that I am not."

"You have no statement to make as to your intentions?'

"No. I do not see what the public have to do with my private business, or why they should expect a statement in regard to my personal affairs."

Mr. Blair yesterday received a telegram from R. L. Richardson, inviting him to speak in opposition to Mr. Sifton at Brandon, but will decline. Mr. Blair has received several invitations to address political meetings. To each one he has replied that he has no intention of re-entering politics. ing politics.

Will Take the Stump.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 21.—(News Special.)—'Is it correct that Mr. Blair will speak n the present campaign?'' Hon. Robert Rogers was "Yes, of course," replied Mr.

Rogers.
What of that despatch in The Free Press, denying that he will do

"Oh, that stuff in The Free Press is all rot;" Mr. Rogers replied. "'I'do not make statements without knowing what I am talking about."

Then, Mr. Blair will take the stump against the Grand Trunk Pacific agreement?"
"Yes. What else could he do, knowing as he does what the agreement means for the country?"

"MY FRIEND STRATTON."

Peterboro, Oct. 21.-An immense crowd thronged the rink last night when Sir Wilfrid Laurier spoke to the electors of West Peterboro. The colored streets were ablaze with lights, and banners and flags flutter-tered from the telegraph poles along the principal streets. Three bands escorted Sir Wilfrid through admir-escorted Sir Wilfrid through admiring crowds to the place of meeting.

It was expected by some that Hon,
J. R. Stratton would take the opportunity of announcing his retirement from public life. His valedictory address, it was said, had been written, but for some reason the program was not carried out, and Mr. Stratton spoke on Dominion ises and the expansion of the town's industries.

Among his friends here, that is the 'Stratton Conservatives." men who vote Liberal in Provincial politics and Conservative in Dominion poli-tics, the story last night is that Mr. Stratton has promised to deliver West Peterboro to the Government. This done, he will quit the Legislature, and an appointment to the Senate is to be the reward of his effort on behalf of R. R. Hall, the opponent of James Kendry. "My Friend Stratton."

Sir Wilfrid spoke of "My friend Stratton" in a manner to leave no doubt that the Provincial Secretary is a force in the politics of this rid-ing. And the meeting gave the Ontario minister a most cordial recep tion. The Premier's speech occupied three-quarters of an hour, and he made the preference and the con-template changes in the tariff the main issue brook on Oct. 26, and at Blackstock on Oct. 28, for Col. Ward. Mr. Aylesworth refuses to meet anyone on the platform. Ald. Vallieres, chairman of the Montreal finance committee, was no-minated by the Conservatives Thurs-day night to oppose Hon. Mr. Pre-fontaine in Maissoneuve.

The proclamations for the West Algoma elections have been posted, and they call for the voting on Nov. 3, the date of the general elections. However, there are very few people in the district who believe that they will be pulled off on that date. The list for the unorganized districts are said to be unready.

At the adjourned Conservative convention at Sault Ste. Marie on Thursday night to hear A. Miscampell's answer to the offer of the unanimous nomination for the Local unanimous nomination for the Local House. Mr. Miscampbell expressed the regret he felt that he could not ac-cept on account of being temporarily the Conservative organizer. It was decided to postpone the selection of a candidate till a future date.

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE. Herbert S. Clements, who was re-ceived with rousing cheers, spoke for an hour in earnest and forceful style. He instituted a comparison of the Canadian and American tariffs and dealt from a local farmer's standpoint with the corn, bean, wool, coal oil and binder twine questions

THE HOG CHOLERA SCANDAL. Mr. Clements' analysis of the bog cholera scandal touched a responsive chord and awakened much enthusiasm.

"This hog cholera scourge has been treated by the Government," he said, "in a most disgraceful manner as the farmers of Kent know. —Hear, hear! At first every farmer was honest enough to report his ailing swine to the inspectors. The Government had three or four officials looking after this work. They were supposed to be expert veterinary surgeons. I ask you farmers present—and I know some of you suffered shamefully—did they ever prescribe a remedy for your hogs other than the shot gun? No, No, and applause. Then you had to bury them in lime and go out of the hog business for a year and then you waited for six months before you got your mere allowance. Am I right?

A voice—You bet you are.

Mr. Clements, continuing — Next time, after that treatment, perhaps the farmers were not quite so ready to report. There was little for the inspectors to do. Did the Government sack these fat-salaried efficials? Or make them earn their pay? Or whenever you visit Chatham do you "This hog cholera scourge has been

Mr. Clements, continuing -No, I do Mr. Clements, continuing—No. I do not wnt you to misunderstand me. I don't deal in personalities, and I have nothing to say concerning the character of these men, but what I do say is that the Government pays them fat salaries out of your pockets for doing next to nothing. They are what I call hangers-on. — Renewed applause and cries of "You've hit it"

Then the Government established

it."

Then the Government establishes four shipping stations and appoints these officials as inspectors. Then the order is issued that you can't ship a hog unless it weighs 150 lbs. Now I say all this red tape could be done away with and compel the poik-packers to slaughter every hog they ship on the penalty of a fine of $1,000. Let me take an instance. I know Mr. Suitor, who I see in this audience, and I know he raises splendid stock. I'm a hog-buyer, for example. I go to Mr. Suitor and I see ten fine hogs we ghing 200 lbs. each I say to Mr. Suitor, "What do you want for your hogs?" He says, $5 if you take the lot." If I had only taken the 200 pounders he would have asked the $5.20 or $5.25 per cwt. Then Mr. Suitor takes them in, but the officials throw back the five and the Government say I do not have to pay him for them. Now I ask you, is that fair?—Loud applause.

A voice—Put the hog buyers in with the Government.—Applause.

Continuing Mr. Clements alluded to the weakness of the Government's tariff and closed with the earnest promise that if elected he would always fight for the interests of the Kent farmers.—Prolonged applause.

Dr. Musson closed with an eloquent appeal. "On November 3," he said, "if you mark your ballots for the Liberal candidate you vote to endorse and perpetuate the mixing of politics in our militia: if, on the other hand, you vote for the Conservative candidate, you vote to keep politics out of the militia and place the Canadian citizen soldiery in a position where it will be the pride of our country and the admiration of the great empire of which we form a part."—Loud applause.

CHAIRMAN'S TRIBUTE.

CHARMAN'S TRIBUTE.
Chairman Chinnick took occasion to beartily thank the speakers. He said the farmers of Kent were to be congratulated on having such a candidate as Mr. Clements. He was a little older than Mr. Clements and had known him as a practical farmer. He was delighted with his able speech.

A hearty vote of thanks having been passed to the chairman, the meeting broke up with enthusiastic cheers for the King, Borden and Clements.
