OUR WAY

When a man takes out his pocket-book and pays us $7.50, $9.00, $10 or $15 for his Fall and Winter Suit, we don't consider the transaction closed by any means.

The Salesman probably told him good points about the particular suit he bought, and we consider it our duty to see them carried out to the letter.

For this reason we want your co-operation and we want you to insist that your suit fulfills our representation of it, or bring it back and get your money.

Remember our way of doing business and we ask that you please remember, that you take no chances, whatever, with cheapness when you buy our clothes here.

LITERARY

The November number of the Wm. Foreman's Home Companion is to hand, bigger and better than ever. This magazine has made most remarkable strides towards the top of Magazine-dom, and judging by the forecast for 1907, it will continue its steady growth. The current number contains the first instalment of a new serial entitled "Jerry Junior." A New England Thanksgiving story, by the popular authoress, Mary E. Wilkins Freeman, also deserves special mention.

"Schools that Are, and Schools that Should Be," by an ex-teacher, which appears in the October number of Everyday Housekeeping, might be read with advantage by Canadian parents, although it refers to the schools in the United States. "Home Improvement," in the same number, treats of not only our homes but our streets, parks, business places, etc., which men, women and children can combine to improve. The Domestic Science Department contains many valuable recipes.

The Canadian Pictorial, the first number of which has just been issued by The Pictorial Publishing Co. Montreal, is a 24-page illustrated magazine. It is printed on calendar paper, which shows the pictures to good advantage. The illustrations are chiefly Canadian and embrace scenes from all parts of our magnificent Dominion. The Canadian Pictorial should have a good field, as it is the only magazine of this class in Canada, and The Planet joins in wishing the publishers success in their enterprise. The price is 10c. a number or $1.00 per annum.

In the November number of Keith's Magazine on Home Building, the decoration of ceilings is dealt with in a manner that will be a help to everyone who has tried to solve the knotty question "What can I do with this ceiling?" The designs for the home builder are, if anything, more costly and pretty than ever. The Decoration and Furnishing Department takes up the one room problem, which confronts so many residents of the large cities. Keith's Magazine, at $1.50 per annum, is one that no artistic householder should be without.

In the November number of Success, in "The Mind of the Child," by Patterson Du Bois, (who is considered one of the greatest authorities on the moral training of children), all parents and teachers will find much food for thought. "The Human Machine," by Dr. Woods Hutchinson, is a second article of a series on human and common sense diet, that is a combination of humor and good sense. It is illustrated by Clara V. Dwiggins.

These are only two of the many interesting papers with which the seventy-three pages of the magazine are filled. The price is only 10c.

"Livest" of all the November magazines is the Review of Reviews, with every one of its special features and all its departments edited in the light of the news. Copper, the great industrial fact of the month—see the market quotations—see the topic selected for most extended treatment. The British House of Lords, a venerable institution that is facing a crisis in its history as Parliament reassembles, is the subject of a trenchant political essay from the pen of W. L. Stead. There are other contrived articles, amongst which we might mention Dr. Schumacher, the brilliant young economist who is lecturing this fall at Columbia University on the Kaiser Wilhelm foundation; and the forthcoming visit of British teachers to the United States.

"BARKING BACK"

Most of us have moments when we should like to "bark back" when our early memories rise up in appalling images clothed in the freshness of childhood; and we should be glad to forsake the dusty road of middle age and travel backward if we could reclaim them. Charles Embree's story in the November McClure's Back "When Jonathan Hatch Harks Back" is a tender chord in every one of us. Beneath its rollicking humor there is a strain of homesly sentiment which refreshes and charms the weary victim of the "strenuous life."

UP-TO-DATE HOUSE PLANS.

We have just received from the publishers, J. S. Ogilvie Company, New York, a book entitled "Fifty Up-to-Date House Plans," which contains over 150 new, practical, up-to-date, 1906 plans of houses, costing from $500 to $15,000, and to all who are now thinking of building or ever expect to build a house, we can heartily recommend this book as giving information, hints and helps as to how to build a good house at a low price. One interesting and practical feature of the book is a list of working plans and specifications from which any one can get an estimate. The price of these working plans is about one-fourth of the price usually charged for this work. The price of this practical book, containing 160 pages, bound in paper cover, is only $1.00, for which amount it will be sent to any one by mail, postpaid. J. S. Ogilvie Publishing Company, 57 Rose Street, New York, are the publishers.

RHEUMATISM ALMOST KILLED HER.

For years Mrs. S. Stahlschmidt, of Hamberstone, Ont., was a martyr to rheumatism. "I was so stiff and lame I could scarcely walk," she writes. "An attack striking my limbs made walking impossible. Friends and doctors gave prescriptions but I only got relief from Ferragone. I took twelve boxes and gained from the first. To-day I am well, feel stronger, weigh heavier and look the picture of health. Whether muscular or inflammatory, chronic or otherwise, Ferragone does cure rheumatism and sciatica, 50c. per box at all dealers.

Offerings

October as usual has brought forth a variety of cloak and suit styles—different of course from those shown earlier of these later productions. We received several shipments this week, these shipments embrace an assortment which is broad, which reaches a big total in many instances. However, there is but a single garment of a kind. Our cloak and suit department, you know aims for style exclusiveness, this exclusiveness is quite noticeable in almost every garment we show. We're proud of the style, character which compels visitors to say—"Well in The New York Cloak Store things are different." A coats a coat and a suit a suit of course, but our offerings bear the hall mark of the aristocracy of fashion, the price is not a bit higher than quality and style. Call for smart new coats $6.50 to $25.00 Smart new suits $8.50 to $35.00.
