Proceedings of Municipal Council next week.
To night in the Give Service Girls' entertainment. Don't miss it.

Mrs. George W. Churchill left last week, to spend the winter in Columbus, Mass.
A whole evening's amusement for 25 cents. And something more important still, a patriotic object.

Mrs. Conroy, of Halifax, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Forbes, Beaver avenue.

Don't forget to be on hand at 8:30 to-night, you won't want to miss any of this really splendid entertainment.

Wanted.—A girl for general house work. Apply to Mrs. John A. Ingers-ham, corner Prospect and Highland Avenue. References required.

All the stores will close every evening at 6 o'clock except Saturday evening during the winter months, beginning Monday, January 17th, 1918.

WANTED.—Women to make a pec-cial effort to sew for the Red Cross Friday afternoon, Jan. 11th, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. I. W.
Sleep, Summer street.

Beginning next Sunday, Jan. 13th, the services at St. John's church will be at 11 and 3:30 o'clock. The seven o'clock evening service will be discontinued until after Easter.

Corpl. Reginald Black, who has been at his home here on leave for some months past, left to return to his duties in England or France on Tuesday. His many friends wish him the best of luck.

Miss Harriet Whidden, of New Glasgow has been spending the holidays in Wolfville at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Graham Whidden. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Vivian Fisher, of Truro.

The Kings County Poultry Show which is to be held in Wolfville on January 16th, 17th and 18th, promises to be a very interesting and successful exhibition of poultry and will be well worth seeing. Everybody should plan to see it.

The fifty-fourth annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association is to be held at Wolfville next week on the 15th, 16th and 17th.
Read the program in another column.
The meeting promises to be a very interesting one.

Conductor A. Herbin, who was badly injured at South Ocho, when the tool was blown from a box car during the terrible gale of August 10, last, resumed his duties as conductor on the Yarmouth-Middletown freight on New Year's day. He made his first run to Yarmouth the day following and was given a hearty welcome all along the line.

In order to conserve the diminishing supply of coal in Wolfville the congregations of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches have decided to unite their services during the winter months. The services will be held in the latter church, beginning next Sunday. The Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock and the preaching services will be at 11 and 7.

The Ontario Woman's Christian Temperance Union has decided to raise twenty-five thousand dollars for the Y. M. C. A. to supply the Canadian soldiers in the front line trenches with coffee, cocoa, etc., and to cover that it is their earnest wish the local Union will hold a poultry sale and auction on Saturday, Jan. 12th, in McKeen's Block, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Come early and get your choice of the good things. Remember the boys in the trenches and give us some help.

The Rev. Robert Borden Chapter, I. O. O. F., have, at the request of the Wolfville Red Cross Society, taken over the Field Comforts work. In a brief word of explanation, the Red Cross supplies care to the wounded soldiers in hospitals, and the Field Comforts to the boys on active service in the field.

The Daughters of the Empire will occupy an upstairs room in the Delany block next to T. G. Mitchell's Musical store, on Main street, and will dispense food to any person willing to manufacture same into Field Comforts, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons, from three to five o'clock.

To Our Customers:

We desire to thank all our friends and customers for their generous patronage during the past year and wish them all a Happy and Prosperous 1918.

Death's Harvest.
While spending a few weeks with friends at Hoyal, Alta. Mead, beloved wife of Wesley H. Bishop, was stricken down with a very severe shock of paralysis and passed away on Dec. 14th, aged forty-five years, eight months. The funeral was from her home in Wolfville, Dec. 18 at 10 o'clock. She was the youngest daughter of the late Newton Caldwell, of Newtonville, this country, and was married Feb. 26th, 1890, to Wesley H. Bishop, of Bishopville. About ten years ago they moved west and have since then made Calgary their home.

Besides her husband she leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, one son Robert, clerk in one of the banks of Calgary, and one daughter Lulu of 'A' class in one of the leading Academies of that city, and a great number of real lives and friends living in this country and in the United States.

To-night at 8:30 come to the Opera House and help yourself by helping along the Give Service Girls' Patriotic concert.

'LIVE WIVES' GREATEST SENSATION
IN NEW YORK
Universal Sociological Study a Drama of Poignant Appeal
'Live Wives' the Universal production based on the dangers of indolence in society, which comes to the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday, January 14 and 15, is unique in that it shows a picture within a picture.

There is a quadruple parallel in the picture which brings its lesson home to convincing style.
The opening reveals a man and wife estranged, a young girl who has gone out with her 'questionable' beau against the wishes of her mother, and a working man's family which is on the verge of disruption because of the limitations to the happiness of its members which poverty entails.

All three sets of characters drift into the cinema theatre of a small town.
The picture which is screened for their entertainment not only conveys a moral to each one of the three sets of characters, but in addition gets home to the audience which have packed the Maxine Elliott Theatre in New York four times daily for the last month.

Phillips Smalley, Lois Webber, Ben Wilson, Maud George, Mary MacLarson and Neva Gerber play the principal roles in the film which is a magnificent stages and well-acted piece of work.
'Live Wives' is based on a novel by James Oppenheim, who shows the descent which causes misadventures and leads to the divorce bill in some cases and the downfall of young girls in other instances. The picture is a powerful sermon to headstrong girls who are dissatisfied with their lives at home and a warning to young men whose methods of living are a menace to society.

'The Wife' is a vivid play of New York Social life based on the theme that the home is the greatest institution of the people, and that anything which threatens the sanctity, peace and unity of that home is the devil's bribe. It was produced by Lois Webber and Phillips Smalley to bring that lesson home to every husband and wife, to every young girl and young man who sees it—and it does.
