

Local News and Personal Items

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal items. The editor must be sure that the material is of interest to the community. Don't hesitate to send material. The editor will be glad to accept it. If you have not received the paper for a week, please write to the editor. The paper is published every week. The price is 10 cents a copy. The subscription price is $1.00 a year. The paper is published by the Observer Publishing Co., Ltd., 100 King Street East, Toronto, Canada.

Matthew Bohan of Bath was in town on Monday evening.

J. A. Gilliland of Woodstock is assisting in the C. P. R. office.

G. Murray McLeod went to Grand Falls on a business trip on Monday.

R. W. Maxwell, director of Woodstock Vocational school, was in town yesterday.

Mr. Cambridge of St. John is a host of his daughter, Mrs. William McPherson.

Dean Hammond came down from Van Buren on Friday and spent a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. Frank Boyer returns this week to her home in Chauvin, Alberta, after a visit at her old home at Bristol.

The family of S. S. Miller returned last week from a pleasant sojourn at their cottage at The Lodge, St. Stephen.

Raymond Plummer of the Bank of Montreal, St. John is spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anna Plummer.

The two telephone companies are engaged in replacing the poles along Main street which have hitherto been encroaching on the highway.

Miss Queenie Britton is spending her vacation at home. She is now employed on the teaching staff of the Modern Business College, St. John.

It is reported that in the shower of Tuesday afternoon lightning killed a herd of six cows which were standing together under a tree in St. Kent.

Woodstock Fair next week will attract people from all over western New Brunswick and Aroostook. It gives promise of being the biggest and best yet.

The Observer needs every dollar due on subscription, and needs it NOW. Every subscriber who responds promptly will prove himself a true friend.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Holmes of Mainstream, their daughter, Helen, was united in marriage to Russell V. Olson on Sept. 1 by Rev. E. H. Gibson.

The dates for both Woodstock and St. Stephen fairs are Sept. 15 to 18. The C. P. R. will sell tickets at reduced fare to both. The going fare is Sept. 15, 16, 17, and 18, and the return limit Sept. 19.

A. Barter has moved his family to Fredericton where he is employed at the Estey & Curtis branch in that city. The family will be much missed from the town where they have been worthy residents for a number of years.

A crew of workmen are engaged in placing a concrete wall under the N. B. Telephone building. When this work is completed the street committee will fill in the space between the building and the present margin of the road.

Labor Day dawned beautiful and fair and afforded an ideal time for motoring or any occasion that a day of lovely weather could be utilised for. The stores in most parts of the country were closed and there were ball games at Hartland and Perth.

Yesterday a quiet wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Ida Smith, Hartland, when her daughter, Viola, became the wife of Isaac Sherwood of Mainstream, on Sept. 7. Rev. Earl H. Gibson was the officiating clergyman.

Last week Mrs. D. T. Day and Willey Day of Bath motored to Bangor where Mrs. Day visited her sisters. Returning they were accompanied by a sister, Mrs. Henry Foster, and her husband, who will visit at Bath, Hartland and Woodstock for a fortnight.

Miss Beta Murdoch was home from St. John for the holiday.

Clarence Manuel of Knowlesville visited Hartland on Saturday.

Aubrey Rideout left on Monday on a business trip to North Sydney.

Mr. and Mrs. Harleigh Clark and O. I. Clark were up from Millville for the week-end.

G. Frank Seeley of Aroostook Jet was in charge at the Hartland Red Ball Garage this week.

Miss Luella Pearson returned to Perth on Monday evening after a vacation spent with friends here.

Mrs. W. P. Thornton and Mrs. L. A. Ward were among the number to visit the St. John exhibition this week.

The tennis club held a very delightful tea at the court grounds Friday evening, between 30 and 40 being present.

Rev. W. P. Haigh is moving from the Keith & Plummer building to the Allen Barter house on Hillcrest avenue.

Mrs. James Hastings of Hampstead wishes to thank her friends in Cloverdale for their kindness and sympathy in her recent bereavement.

Miss Eva DeGrasse has returned to Boston after having spent two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abner DeGrasse at Waterville.

Miss Grace Manuel of Knowlesville is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Herbert Smalley, Hartland, having spent Sunday with her friend Miss Ella Robinson of Windsor.

Alphons Gray has bought Henry Rideout's house at Somerville and will take possession of it as soon as Mr. Rideout gets ready for occupancy. A new house he is building on the lot adjoining.

A copy of the Durant (Okla.) Democrat is received and in it is recorded the marriage of Miss Mae Seeley, daughter of Prof. G. W. Seeley, an old Waterville boy. The groom is O. M. Norton of Checotah, Okla.

Rev. N. Franchette of Edmundston will conduct services at Bangor on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the Holy Trinity church, Hartland, on Sunday evening at 7.30. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

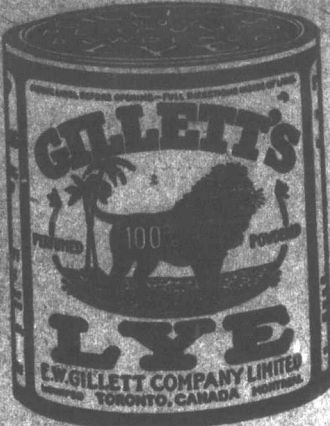

A C. P. R. telegraph operator at McAdam, charged with being under the influence of liquor while on duty, pleaded guilty, and was given option of a $100 fine or six months in jail, and the offence also cost him his position with the C. P. R.

Fishery Guardians Russell Boyer and Wm. Gae at Bangor, on the night of Aug. 27, seized six nets, the great catch made this season. They left Beechwood at 2.10 a.m. and proceeded to Woodstock reaching there at 3 o'clock where the catch was landed over to Inspector W. L. Macneil.

Talk about the good folks of Aroostook and New Brunswick being hard up when they go into their joints and die up over a thousand dollars for a ball game. However, it must be admitted that such stunts frequently indulged in would put the average community on the road to being strangled.

Freddie late Star-Herald.

Rev. J. B. Daggett of Maryville occupied the pulpit of the United Baptist church on Sunday evening and spoke to a very large congregation on the subject of the impending referendum on the importation of liquor. The temperance enthusiasts are getting down to work in this matter and there is no doubt, but that the sentiment of the province at large is overwhelmingly in favor of shutting out liquor importation. The chief thing is not to forget to go to vote on the appointed day—Oct. 10.

John Smith, aged 82, died at Cloverdale on Saturday.

Clarence Manuel of Knowlesville was in Hartland on Saturday.

Straw Wanted—A few carloads for immediate shipment. C. M. Rideout, Hartland, N. B.

Plummet Wanted—To play at the Star Theatre one night a week. Apply to H. P. Burpee.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyd were in Hartland by auto on Labor Day.

New brooms at Carr's at Eaton's prices. Not an old broom in the store except the one we are using.

Ernest Laskey of Moncton arrived on Friday to visit his twin brother, E. W. Laskey, who has been so long ill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Amies of Lakeville were on Saturday guests of their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Y. Dickson.

Ired A. Nevers of Welland, Ont., is a guest of his brothers, A. A. and G. C. Nevers. Mr. Nevers was born and grew to manhood here, but has been in Ontario for years.

Both Mrs. Fred Seeley of Somerville, and Mrs. George Wallace, of Cloverdale, operated on at Fisher Memorial Hospital by Dr. Belyea, last week, are making splendid recovery.

A small book entitled "Garments of Power" was left on the editor's table by some recent caller who has evidently forgotten it. The owner may secure it by calling or notifying the office.

W. L. Orchard of Knoxford was in town on Saturday. He drove over 20 miles solely for the purpose of purchasing goods advertised in The Observer by Frank Plummer. Verily, it pays to advertise.

A number of lady friends of Mrs. Allan Barter met at her home before her departure for Fredericton and, expressing their regrets at the family's leaving and best wishes for the future, they presented her with a silver case.

We have two gasoline presses now in operation: one at Hartland, one at Centreville. Capacity of each, 20 tons per day. Parties wanting to press please advise, Leander Kennedy, Centreville, or A. A. Rideout, Hartland, C. M. Rideout.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Campbell and Hardy Crain motored to Fredericton in Mr. Campbell's new Essex car. They left here at 8.30 a.m. and were home again by 3 p.m. The recorded distance between Hartland and Fredericton post office is 76 miles by either of the river roads.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Phillips and George March, of Bristol, are in Hartland this lovely morning. Mr. Phillips stopped at The Observer office to say that that bad mud-hole just above Stillkey, still exists in spite of the fact that one man could dig a drain in ten minutes that would remedy it and remove a reproach to that district. Mr. Phillips reports trade good at "The Every Day Bargain Store" and says his constant, everlasting advertising keeps down the accumulation of old stock, so that now he faces the falling markets with goods bought at today's prices.

The big game season opens one week from today.

Frank Day went to the St. John exhibition this morning.

Miss Helen Winter of McAdam was a recent guest of the Misses Raymond.

Mrs. Margaret McLaughlin and Lena Nixon spent the week-end with friends in Houlton.

Howard Adams went to St. John yesterday to attend a meeting of the N. B. Undertakers' Association.

Rev. W. P. Haigh and E. W. Laskey both continue to improve slowly and their friends are hoping to soon see them both out again.

The condition of Harvey Belyea, so seriously ill at his home, is today reported about the same as during the last few days, except that he grows weaker each day.

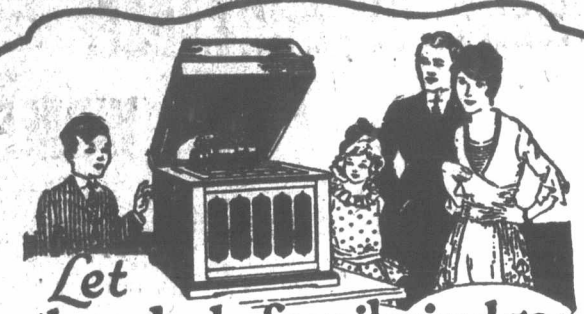

Harry Hagerman, who has been for six weeks ill of typhoid fever at his home at Centreville is today reported so greatly improved that his friends have good hope of his complete recovery. For a long time his case was very serious and his recovery was very doubtful. Mrs. Hagerman and their little child, who both have had the fever, are recovering and past the dangerous period.

Yesterday at four o'clock at the home of Norman Hanson, Durham Bridge, York county, there daughter Ellen became the bride of Irvine Boone of Ashland. The ceremony was performed on the lawn in the presence of a few immediate friends by Rev. E. J. Barras of Marysville.

The bride was dressed in navy blue tulle. After ceremony the young couple came to Ashland by auto.

PRODUCE PRICES

Today dealers are paying $2.00 for potatoes; $5 for hay; 60 cents for oats; 35 cents for eggs and 35 cents for butter.

Let the whole family judge—
THE AMBEROLA

Play it where they all can hear it—where they can judge it fairly—in your own home. Our Free Trial plan makes this possible at no expense to you.

Simply call at our store and select an Amberola and a dozen Amberol Records. We will deliver them to you at your home where you may enjoy

"Three Days of Good Music—FREE"

Every member of the family can judge it—everyone can compare its clear, beautiful music with any "talking machine" or "phonograph" they ever heard.

Call, write or phone and ask us about this great Trial Offer. And after the trial, if you decide to buy, you may name practically your own terms.

HENRY J. SEELEY - Hartland

LOOK AT THIS OFFER

1 Iron Bed with top Brass rail	$12.00
1 Spring, guaranteed not to sag	8.00
1 Felt Mattress	11.00
	31.00

ALL FOR $23.50 WHILE THEY LAST

F. F. PLUMER

Groceries

Dry Goods

Furniture

House and Lot

We have for sale a nice house with an acre lot, in Hartland town. Fine home for someone to own. A quick purchaser can secure a bargain. Jump at it!

G. MURRAY McLEOD

HARTLAND, N. B.