

WEDDINGS OF AUTUMN DAY.

Marriage of Two of Hamilton's Most Popular Singers.

Hamilton-McCoy Nuptials In MacNab St. Church.

Scully-Ballard Wedding and Reception Yesterday.

MacNab Street Presbyterian Church was the scene at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon of one of the most interesting social events of the season, the marriage of Miss Margaret Bruce McCoy, second daughter of Mr. John McCoy, and conductor of MacNab Street Church choir, to Mr. Harold Vivian Hamilton, the popular bass soloist of Central Church. The color scheme of the church decoration was carried out in white, the aisle being arched in smilax, while the choir loft was beautifully decorated with palms, smilax and white chrysanthemums. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Beverley Ketchen, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Samuel Lyle, moderator of the General Assembly, in the presence of about two hundred guests. The bride wore a white duchess satin, trimmed with two panels of net, hand embroidered with satin cord and pearls. The gown was the gift of her aunt, Mrs. (Dr.) McCoy, St. Catharines. The bride wore the customary veil and wreath of orange blossoms and a beautiful necklace of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor was Mrs. William Ostler, the bride's sister, who was gowned in pale blue satin, trimmed with Brussels lace, and pale blue picture hat with ostrich plumes and meline ties. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were Miss Ida Hamilton, sister of the groom, and Miss May Ashplant, of London. Miss Hamilton was gowned in lavender satin with a white silk net overdress and white picture hat, with white ostrich plumes and ties. Miss Ashplant wore a mauve satin dress with pearl trimmings, and mauve velvet hat with mauve meline ties. Jas. Hamilton, brother of the groom, was groomsmen, and the ushers were George Drew, Samuel Gibson, John Connon and J. H. McCoy.

BUFFALOS STAMPEDE

Belvidere, Kan., Nov. 4.—Made ferocious at being dipped in a lime and sulphur bath to kill the ticks on them, a herd of 36 buffalo stampeded on Frank Rockefeller's ranch near here yesterday, and are now scattered over Kiowa county. When, in accordance with orders of the government inspectors, the herd was driven into the dipping vault it went wild and broke through three barbed wire fences as if they had been made of twine. Five horses were used in pursuing one bull, whose value is $1,500, but he is still at large.

IMPROVING THE SERVICE.

Street Railway Traction Department Busy at It.

Complaint About Speed of Cars on Main Street.

Building Inspector Anderson Inspecting In Annex.

A prominent official of the Street Railway Company announced this morning that the men in charge of the traction department are busily engaged working out plans for improving the service on the routes where traffic is heaviest. The company is putting extra cars on the Barton and King street routes every Saturday now, and they are as badly crowded at certain hours as when fewer cars were running. The new cars have not been ordered yet, nor has the policy as to whether all double truck cars will be used been settled. The company is experiencing trouble in getting enough men to work on the new car shops being erected in the east end.

Yesterday afternoon an aldermanic deputation waited on the Dominion Power and Transmission Company officials in reference to the complaint that the H. G. & B. cars travel at excessive speed on Main street, raising dust and creating a nuisance. The company promised to make the schedule between the Terminal station and Wentworth street for passenger cars ten minutes while the speed of freight cars will be reduced to six miles.

Building Inspector Anderson paid his first visit to the new annex district today to go over the ground and inspect any buildings there that may be in an unsafe condition. This district of course will be governed by all city by-laws now and permits for all buildings will have to be secured at the building inspector's office.

City Solicitor Waddell and Secretary Brennan are in Toronto to-day appearing before the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board in connection with the old account for asphalt repair work, two feet outside the rails, which the Street Railway Company disputes.

A building permit was issued to-day to E. B. Patterson, for a frame house on Bay street, between Ferris and Simons. (Continued on Page 12.)

AGAINST WIFE

Warrant Issued for the Arrest of Mrs. Taglerino To-day.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mrs. Taglerino, 396 Sherman avenue north.

She is accused of threatening Mr. J. Leslie, bailiff, and County Constable Pickard.

Leslie went to Taglerino's house on Tuesday, in company with Pickard, to seize the goods and chattels in the house, on a warrant sworn out by R. S. Martin, for non-payment of $125 due on a chattel mortgage.

On their arrival the fun started, according to the story told by Leslie and Pickard, for they alleged that Mrs. Taglerino took up a hammer and threatened to do all kinds of things to them, and they further alleged she exclaimed, "If you don't clear out you will get the same medicine as the other fellows got!"

Mrs. Taglerino is the wife of John Taglerino, now in custody awaiting trial, accused of being implicated in the Black Hand outrage on Salvatore Sanzone.

NEW CLUB.

Mount Hamilton Young Men Organize a Literary Society.

On Tuesday evening a meeting of young men was held at the Smith household, Mount Hamilton, for the purpose of organizing a literary and debating society for the men of the neighborhood. The meeting was unanimously in favor of the scheme, and the society was organized and a set of officers elected. They are: Mr. Peter Smith, President; Rev. F. W. K. Harris, B. A., Vice-President; Mr. George Head, Secretary-Treasurer; Executive Committee—M. Lockey, Oliver Bland, K. K. Hunt and Geo. McVittie. A meeting will be held next Wednesday evening to arrange about securing a meeting place to fix upon a name for the club, and to prepare a programme. The club will be open to all mountain men. It is not connected with any church or denomination. But it is expected to fill a much felt want.

INSTRUCTED TO ISSUE WRITS AGAINST TIMES.

Four Members of Board of Education Take Hamilton Brick Company's Manager's Remarks as Personal.

The Times Looks Upon All Five as Above Suspicion and Thinks They Took the Matter Up Wrong.

As a result of the open charge of graft made yesterday by Manager Thompson, of the Hamilton Brick Company, in connection with the letting of a $20,000 contract for the masonry work of the new addition to the Victoria avenue school, Chairman Allen, of the Building Committee, and Trustees Ward, Carr and Linger instructed their solicitor, S. D. Biggar, this morning to issue writs for libel against Mr. Thompson and the Times Printing Company. They are the members of the committee which awarded the contract. The trouble arises out of the committee's action in refusing to accept the tender of the Orpen Company, of Toronto, which was $227 lower than the next lowest tender, that of W. H. Yates, junior, of this city. The committee received the permission of the board to accept the lowest tender in each case, except for the masonry work. Mr. Orpen, who formerly owned the Hamilton Brick Company, undertook to engage Hamilton labor and buy as much of the material as possible here. His solicitor wrote to the trustees about it after the matter was before the board. The trustees say that the only point discussed was whether the contract should be let to an outside firm. They agreed that it should not. The Orpen Company's tender was $19,948. Mr. Yates, after receiving the contract at his own figure, voluntarily reduced it to $20,027. Chairman Ward of the Board of Education, this morning declared that he did not even know Mr. Yates and the only motive that influenced him in Mr. Yates' favor was to see a Hamilton firm get the work. The trustees agreed that they could not permit such a serious charge to be made without receiving prompt action and they waited on their solicitor bright and early this morning. Manager Thompson, of the Hamilton Brick Company, is out of the city to-day, and therefore could not be seen in regard to the above matter. From what Mr. Thompson said yesterday, however, the Times draws the conclusion that he does not for one moment infer that any of the gentlemen of the Building Committee of the Board of Education was a party to any course of action by which any one of them received, or is to receive, one cent of money, or in any way, directly or indirectly benefit by the letting of the contract to a tenderer whose figures were not the lowest. What the Times would judge from what Mr. Thompson said is that he considers the difference between the lowest tender and the accepted tender to be money improperly spent, and that he considers "graft," without insinuating any dishonesty or wishing to cast any reflection upon the gentlemen who have taken his remarks as referring to them personally. Speaking for the Times, we have only to say that we have the fullest confidence in every member of the committee. We do not believe there is one of the five who would stoop to anything dishonest, or to anything in the form of "graft," if by that is meant any course of action by which he would be personally benefited wrongfully, or by which any public money would be spent dishonestly, or by which any friend or associate would be benefited improperly. Of the five men named Mr. Allan, Chairman of the committee, is a Spectator foreman, a man of long standing on the Board of Education, who has given the city able service and whose intentions are above suspicion. Mr. Ward is a man above reproach. A citizen honored in public and private life, who has the confidence of every citizen—and of the Times. Mr. Carr is an old friend of the Times in many a good natured political battle, but his course on the Board of Education has been at all times honorable and aggressive, and to accuse him of any impropriety is the last thing the Times would do. Mr. Linger is a young man, a newcomer on the Board, but a successful and enterprising citizen, and certainly not one who would countenance any wrongdoing. Such a thing as accusing any one of these gentlemen with "graft" never for a moment entered the Times' mind. Mr. Thompson had not received writs or notices before going away this morning, and the Times has received nothing official up to press time.

SHE GOES TO TRIAL

London, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Chapin, the militant suffragette, who made an attack upon a polling place during the Bermondsey by-election last Thursday, was committed for trial by the magistrate at the Old Bailey to-day on the double charge of having unlawfully meddled with the ballot-box and caused grievous harm to the presiding officer. Mrs. Chapin broke a bottle containing corrosive acid upon a ballot-box, with the apparent intention of destroying the ballots which the box contained. Some of the acid, which did not find its way into the box, splattered upon election officials, one of whom was severely burned.

PASSED THE $10,000 MARK

Y. W. C. A. Building Fund is Still $4,600 Short.

Campaign Will Close at 10 O'Clock This Evening.

Committee Asks for Small Sums Equal to Football Gate.

The total of subscriptions for the Y. W. C. A. building fund reported up till 12.30 to-day was $10,394. This leaves $4,600 to be raised this afternoon and evening in order to complete the $15,000 needed. The campaign will close at 10 o'clock to-night. Till then subscriptions will be received at headquarters, telephone 15,000. The Y. W. C. A. boys' building subscriptions amount to $1,546.

The following list shows total subscriptions so far by the various committees:

Table with 2 columns: Committee Name and Amount. Includes Special committee ($2,085), F. R. Smith ($2,115), R. T. Kelly ($1,408), W. H. Wardrop ($1,146), J. H. Horning ($1,002), George H. Lees ($78), D. M. Barton ($65), W. F. Brennan ($53), N. E. Adams ($45), Frank McIlroy ($23), R. O. Hooper ($14).

This morning one of the workers in this campaign called attention to the fact that if a sum could be secured equal to the estimated proceeds of Saturday's football game, the Y. W. C. A. fund would be complete. In other words, if everyone who is going to attend the game, paying 50 cents or 75 cents according to whether he is lucky enough to have a reserved seat or not, would set aside a similar sum for the Y. W. C. A., the fund would be complete. No one would miss so trifling an amount; some thousands of people would enjoy the privilege of helping in this most worthy work, who otherwise might not; and Hamilton would be assured of a Young Women's Christian Association building free from debt and adequately equipped to carry on its great work for the young women. The success of the present effort now calls for a multitude of small subscriptions. The effect upon the subscribers will not be as exciting as football, but the lasting sense of satisfaction will probably be ample compensation.

THE HYDRO IS MEETING

Is Dealing With Hamilton's Case at Toronto To-day.

(Special Wire to the Times.) Toronto, Nov. 4.—The whole question of Hamilton's relations with the Hydro-Electric Power Commission and the course of action which the Hydro Commission will take in view of city's latest move is being thoroughly threshed out at a meeting in the Hydro offices this morning. Every detail is being considered. All the commissioners except Hon. Col. Hendrie are present and the Hydro's last answer will be made to-day, the Times correspondent was told by Hon. Adam Beck. The meeting was, of course, behind closed doors. The chairman did not care to foreshadow what the Commission would do, contenting himself with saying that an announcement would be made after the meeting which will probably continue well into the afternoon.

THROUGH BIG PLATE GLASS.

Stoney Creek Man Slept In the Debris of It

And Had to Pay $50 or Go to Jail For Term.

Struggle on Roof of Building Leads to Court Case.

William Norton, from the historical burg of Stoney Creek, got drunk last night and fell through a big plate glass window in G. W. Robinson's store. He must pay for the damage he did, which amounts to $50, or go to jail for twenty-one days. Magistrate Jelfs handed down that decision in police court this morning.

As P. C. James Clark was walking his beat on James street this morning at 1.55 there lay in the doorway a man apparently dead in the middle of a great pile of broken glass. Examination of the man proved he was merely under the influence of soporific decoctions. Repeated taps on William's ribs failed to awaken him, so he was taken down to the stretcher on King William street in the dark colored vehicle. But during the ride down he woke and tried to plant a few kicks in the officer's belt line. When P. C. Clark swore to the foregoing the man from the famous battlefield district affirmed it was all Greek to him. He remembered imbibing copiously when night was on the wane.

One of G. W. Robinson's clerks then took the stand. "How far is the broken window from the sidewalk?" "Six feet."

"If you get drunk you must expect to pay for it," said his worship to the defendant. On the lapel of his coat Horton wore a tiny circular frame a picture of a baby. He looked first at it, then at the magistrate, then at his shame. He was led away over the bridge, his nice blue suit bearing evidence of his cold, hard bed on the sidewalk last night.

A struggle on the roof of a new addition to the MacPherson factory, 40 feet from the ground, took place yesterday, and Joseph Craven, it is stated, had grave apprehensions of being hurled to an instantaneous death, by Henry Blankstein, 346 Hunter street east. Craven said he was on the roof in question yesterday, when Blankstein, who, he said, was drunk, ordered him to go to the shop, and then took him by the throat and tried to make him alight on his mother earth with a rude jolt. The attempt to aid his downward transit was done to the accompaniment of ungalant language. Then Blankstein chinned in to say he was boss on the job and had a right to order complainant off the job.

"He's no more boss than I am, your worship," said Craven. "Who gets the orders?" queried defendant.

"You don't get any extra for it," retorted Craven.

A youth corroborated complainant's story, and inaudibly whispered the inferior language to the court.

Blankstein affirmed the trouble was the outcome of persistent teasing, and when he did the complainant would say "That's a Dutch way of doing it."

"The whole shooting match is spitting me," said defendant.

"I did not," said the bench.

"But you did," said a friend said to me, "for — sake hit him, but I didn't."

"If you get in a dispute or altercation go to headquarters and don't take the law into your own hands," said his worship.

"Have you any witnesses?" "Yes; the whole of Riddell's gang."

"Where are they?" "I didn't bring them. I thought my own word of truth was sufficient witness for me."

He was found guilty of assault and fined three dollars.

All through the building rang the cry of "Tim Sullivan, Tim Sullivan," and just before the echoes had died away, Tim showed up.

He was wanted to explain why he did not send his boy to school. He was warned that if his boy plays hooky again he will lose him.

HE DENIES IT.

Gebhardt, Alias Mueller, Says He Was Not Barton Murderer.

Fred Gebhardt, alias Otto Mueller, the alleged "Bluebeard" under arrest in New York, and who, it was thought, might be the Barton murderer, Ontario's Criminal Investigation Department attaching enough importance to the theory to begin an official investigation, according to a despatch from New York, gives a most emphatic denial to the story. He insists that he knows nothing about the crime in the hickory grove on the Marshall property over the mountain four years ago. The despatch adds that he was served a long term in Sing Sing for fraud and perjury, as the New York authorities assert, he was released from prison on August 11th, 1905.

Notwithstanding Gebhardt's denial and the fact that his description does not tally as closely as was first supposed with the Barton murderer, Provincial Inspector Greer, is in correspondence with New York and is still impressed with the idea that there is a possibility that Mueller is the man he has so long sought.

JIMMY BAUM HEARD FROM

Gives New Interest to the Kinrade Murder Case.

Following so closely on the sensation created by the confession in London, England, of John Bedford, who announced that he was the slayer of Ethel Kinrade, but who is believed by the police to be insane, the despatch from Norfolk, Virginia, announcing that the Pinkerton detectives are in possession of the name of the man who sent the mysterious bouquet to Florence Kinrade at the Portsmouth theatre, the incident so dramatically referred to by Jimmie Baum, the actor, in his evidence, interest in the celebrated murder mystery has been given a fresh impetus.

The detectives tried hard at the time to get the name on the card attached to the bouquet but failed. Baum could not remember it. According to the Norfolk despatch he has since recalled it. The man is said to be a government official in a Western Ontario town.

It is very doubtful, if, at this late date, the information can be of any value in solving the mystery, although the Attorney-General's Department in view of the amount of money it spent trying to bring Ethel Kinrade's slayer to justice, is understood to be still interested in the case and investigating the new clue. The man if located might possibly throw some light on the mysterious Marion Elliott.

The incident also recalls one of the features of the Baum, it was remembered, created a sensation in the dying hours of the inquest when he secured permission to make a statement and started the crowded court room with this remark:

"If they get the party who chased this girl from Portsmouth, they will get the fellow who killed her sister."

BUSY MONTH.

John Berlinghoff Paying Particular Attention to Horses.

Inspector John Berlinghoff, for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, had a very busy month of it in October. He has dealt with 30 cases of cruelty to animals in various forms; has ordered off many horses from work, and has given warnings and received promises of better care. He has seen that teams drawing from deep excavations are assisted, and in a great many ways had the owners of horses to understand that they must be properly cared for, and that no animal will be allowed to work that is in any way unfit. He is adopting the plan of warnings now, which, if not heeded, will be followed by summonses. Three cases which were brought before the Magistrate had fines imposed.

ABSOLUTELY FAIR.

With only 1,800 seats to reserve and 5,000 people clamoring for them the Tiger Football management is having a hard time of it. The officers have conducted the sale in an absolutely impartial way. Talk about reserving large blocks for Toronto and Montreal while Hamilton people are refused is nonsense. No seats have been reserved for outsiders except the ordinary courtesy of 100 seats for the opposing team. The management will do its very best to accommodate all it can.

Genuine Calabash Pipes.

South African Calabash pipes are light in weight, smoke cool and color well. Genuine Calabash pipes, in all grades, from one dollar up, are sold at peace's pipe store, 107 King street east.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

Mr. Bedford drops out of sight, Mr. Jimmie Baum trots into the limelight, thus furnishing a continuous diversion.

Knotty point—Who held up Dictator Lobb at Burlington when on his way to Hamilton a week or two ago? The brigands have never been tracked.

The wonder is how we ever got along without the services of the Victorian Order of Nurses?

Now that Martin Malone has got after the Mayor the jig is up. He might as well throw up his hands. Nothing more need or can be said. (Tumultuous applause.)

I haven't met a fireman yet who is not in favor of the city getting all the advantages it can from the Hydro-Electric Commission.

Martin Malone and Wm. Bell seem to be annoyed at the Mayor, but that doesn't annoy him.

Of course, at the last moment the Herald may put in a plea of insanity. It is crazy enough to do it.

I have generally noticed that a doctor who becomes an alderman either hasn't much practice or he soon loses what he has.

After all, how small our quarrels are when compared with the venetians.

Good evening. How's your cold?

When the girls hear that Jack the Hutter is in town again there will be no keeping them in the house at nights.

Why doesn't the police prosecute the Hamilton Herald as a common scold?

VanAllen's ultimatum is: If you don't like the Beach, get off. That's the way the Ahkoond of Swat would talk.

So the temperance ladies wouldn't condemn "bridge." Still, I have heard of people being intoxicated with the game.

Christmas is coming. Make out your list.

Did it ever occur to you that they might be wrong and the other fellow right on the power question? None of us is infallible, and your noddle may not be in perfect working order.

Antiquarian—Will the Gore fence be placed in the Dundurn museum? Maybe aye and maybe no.

I should be inclined to let Mr. Flatt build that incline railway if he feels inclined.

If you have a sure cure for a cold, with a cough and a tickling in the throat, sent it in. I know of half a dozen people who can make use of it. Yes; they tried the doctor, at least some of them say they did.

Don't let this power question get the better of you. Look how it has soured the Herald. Hasn't a civil word for anybody. Can't even look pleasant. Groneching all the time.

I hear now that Barton township is to sue the city for non-support. What will that man Duff do next?

—Mr. A. P. Van Fleet, 135 Stinson street, left on Monday night for Vancouver, on a business trip, in the interest of the Canadian Writterpress Co.

MURRAY-TUCK ELOPEMENT.

Mrs. Murray Ready to Forgive and Take Husband Back.

Concerning the alleged elopement of Olive Tuck, of this city, a 17-year-old girl, with Charles Murray, a young married man, of Toronto, a despatch from that city says:

With his wife and family quarantined in an upstairs room in his home on the Vaughan road, near the corner of St. Clair avenue, on account of the two-year-old daughter having contracted scarlet fever, Charles Murray eloped with Olive Tuck, a 17-year-old Hamilton girl, who was boarding with them, and has not been heard of since. Murray is a member of the 48th Highlanders, and on several occasions Olive Tuck has accompanied him to the Armories to watch the soldiers drill.

On Friday night last they set out together, leaving word with Mrs. Murray to have a nice hot cup of tea ready for them when they came home. She did as she had promised, and waited all night for their return, in vain. They have not been seen since that time.

At the bank it was found that Murray had drawn out all the money that he had on deposit.

"I did not suspect that anything was wrong between my husband and Olive Tuck until two weeks ago," said Mrs. Murray. "I accused them both, but they both denied that anything was wrong, and I had to let it go at that, as I was quarantined upstairs, and they were downstairs. The girl's father knows about it, and he will have my husband arrested on a charge of abduction."

Mrs. Murray added that, although at present she is very angry about the affair, she did not doubt that, if her husband came back, she would forgive him, and allow things to go on as if nothing had happened.

YORK LOAN.

Owners of Many Cheques Cannot be Found by Postmen.

There are a great many letters in the postoffice containing York County loan cheques addressed to people with street addresses where they lived ten or fifteen years ago, and who cannot now be found by the letter carriers, not having left change of address. If parties who are expecting cheques and have not yet received them will call at the postoffice these letters will be delivered to them, if they can be properly identified.

VEALE GONE.

Alleged Forger Taken Away Early This Morning.

Frederick J. Veale, the much heard of alleged forger, has gone. He left on the C. P. R. 8.35 train this morning for Toronto to take the 9.40 for the west. Corporal Slater, of the N. W. M. P., was Veale's bodyguard. The prisoner was well shackled. During all that long journey the officer will, he says, sleep with one eye open. He expects to reach Regina next Saturday.

Nice and Sweet.

We are displaying in our east window a quantity of first prize comb and extracted honey. See it. None better ever offered. Special price by the dozen. We have the extract in sixty-pound cans; also in one, two and five-pound glass jars. Those Long Point ducks arrived yesterday and are selling fast; so are squabs.—Bain & Adams.
