

HASZARD'S GAZETTE

FARMERS' JOURNAL, AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

Established 1823.

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Wednesday, July 13, 1853.

New Series, No. 50.

Haszard's Gazette.
GEORGE T. HASZARD, Proprietor and Publisher,
Office, South side Queen Street, F. E. Island.
Third Annual Subscription, £10. Discount for cash in advance.

Advertisements.
For the first insertion, occupying the space of 4 lines, including head, £1.00. For the second, £0.75. For the third, £0.50. For the fourth, £0.25. For each additional line, one fourth of the above for each continuation.
Advertisements not without limitation, will be continued until called for.

To the Electors of the Second District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Prince County.

GENTLEMEN,
I am honored, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable influential Electors of the County, to offer myself as a Candidate for your District at the approaching Election.

JAMES CAMPBELL.
St. John's, May 25, 1853.

To the Free and Independent Electors of Charlottetown and St. John's.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,
I have the honor to be informed to come forward to defend the honor of representing you in the House of Assembly. I am in favor of the present arrangement, and I would further to do so, but the present arrangement which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the County, prompts me to obey the call of duty. I come before you to defend my own individual interests, and to defend the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the views of the Government, as at present in force in this County, will be supported by you, and that you will be prepared to accept of the public at large, the principles established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Revenue are established from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am in favor of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded that no measure so well calculated to benefit our Province and open up the resources of the country. I have no objection to the present arrangement, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County, and I will support the Government, as at present in force in this County.

JOHN LONGWORTH.
Charlottetown, June 26, 1853.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.
CHAPTER XXXI.

The Martyr—Renewal of the Hunt—Emmeline comforts Cassy—Tom dragged before Legree—Tom's Appeal—The Martyr—Renewal.

"Don't let the poor fellow suffer!"
"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

The hunt was long, and unsuccess-ful; and, with grave, frantic exultation, Cassy looked down on Legree as, weary and dispirited, he slumped from his horse.

"No, Cassy! He will be good to us. Let us help him," said Emmeline. "I always have had hope."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"O Em!" said Cassy, "I've hungered for my children, and thirsted for them, and my eyes fall with longing for them. Have I been?" she said, striking her breast, "it's all dead, all empty! If God would give me back my children, then I could support them with my own hands, and I could save my prayer and my trust."

"You must trust Him, Cassy," said Emmeline. "His wrath is upon us," said Cassy; "He has turned away in anger."

"No, Cassy! He will be good to us. Let us help him," said Emmeline. "I always have had hope."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

to show that agony by the betrayal of the innocent. But the brave, true heart was firm on the eternal Rock. Like his Master, he knew that, if he saved others, himself he could not save;—nor could anyone extricate him from his grasp, save of prayer and holy trust.

"He's most gone, ma!" said Sambo, touched in spite of himself, by the patience of his victim. "Pay away till he gives up! Give it to him! Give it to him!" shouted Legree. "I'll take every drop of blood he has, unless he confesses."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."

"I'll be bound to do it," said Legree, "if he is a Christian, and if he is a Christian, he will be bound to do it."