

Press. OLD JOURNAL, AT $1 PER YEAR, MOST POPULAR PAPER PUBLISHED IN CANADA. L OIL CHROMOS, 12 X 16, EACH SUBSCRIBER. Stamp for our Catalogue.

CO., Publishers, MONTREAL, QUE. to March will receive papers from January 411-5

I WANT FRUITS, OR SELL FRUITS, STOCK.

1000 PEOPLE FOR 50c. Wanted, or To Rent; Seed Grain, Clover or for Sale, are inserted in THE WEEKLY MAIL, 25 cents for each additional word. All other ads double this price.

TOBACCO. For the last TWENTY-ONE years this TRADE MARK has been known throughout Canada as the safest guide to RELIABLE TOBACCO.

IDOL SMOKING TOBACCO. The IDOL brand of Bright Tobacco yields a rich, fragrant smoke, that will be highly appreciated by veteran smokers, surpassing that of any other Tobacco to be had in Canada.

THE IDOL brand of Bright Tobacco yields a rich, fragrant smoke, that will be highly appreciated by veteran smokers, surpassing that of any other Tobacco to be had in Canada.

W. C. McDONALD, Manufacturer, MONTREAL.

EUROPE AND THE HOLY LAND. Taylor's Third Edition Excursion, 1889. All Travel and Hotel Excursions. More furnished for the money than in any Excursion ever offered. Special advantages of an experienced tour operator secured for sight-seeing excursions in Europe, the Holy Land, and the East. Interest in the Old World. CONTACT Street, Montreal. Single Prospectus sent free.

NOTICE. Address of the applicant will be made at the next session of the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada for an Act to amend the Act passed in the 46th year of Her Majesty's reign, entitled "An Act respecting the Beaver and Toronto Mutual Fire Insurance Company," being Chapter 11 of the Statutes of the Dominion of Canada.

JOHNSTON'S FLUID BREW. The great strength and most perfect food for invalids and the young.

THE WEEKLY MAIL. Published every Thursday morning in time for the English mail, second edition on Friday, and dispatched by the Dominion of Canada.

Advertisements of Farms for Sale, inserted in this paper, 25 words for 50c; each additional word, 10c. Parties replying to advertisements will please to state their names in the first line.

Advertisements of Farms for Sale, inserted in this paper, 25 words for 50c; each additional word, 10c. Parties replying to advertisements will please to state their names in the first line.

VOL VIII NO. 412. TORONTO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1886. PRICE THREE CENTS.

Farms for Sale. Improved Farms for Sale. Several Good Farms for Sale.

FOR SALE - CHEAP - 237. A fine, clean, well-kept, excellent land, good soil, good buildings, orchard, suitable for two farms, or one large farm, near Toronto.

FARM FOR SALE IN THE Township of Etobicoke, twelve miles from Toronto, one and a quarter miles north of the Toronto and Yorkville Road, 120 acres, with 50 acres of Lake Shore, 11 miles east of Oakville, 8 acres of Lake Ontario, with excellent view.

FARM FOR SALE - THE north-east half of lot 15 on the concession of West Guelph, with about 200 acres, improved, well-fenced, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARM FOR SALE - WEST 1/2 of lot 10, 15th con., Guelph, Ont., 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

$1,600 WILL BUY 89 acres of land, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARM TO RENT IN THE Township of Adolphus, about 70 acres cleared, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

VALUABLE FARM ON the north shore of Lake Simcoe, being 2 1/2 miles from the town of Simcoe, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARM - FIRST CLASS - NEAR Wallingford, 8 miles from Lake Erie, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARM FOR SALE - A FULL description of over 200 improved farms, also a list of over 1000 unimproved farms, with a full description of each, and a list of the names of the owners, near Toronto.

FARM FOR SALE - IN TOWNSHIP of Huron, 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FIRST CLASS FARM FOR SALE - 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARM FOR SALE BY AUCTION - 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARM FOR SALE - HE EAST 1/2 of lot 15, 15th con., Guelph, Ont., 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARM FOR SALE OR RENT - 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARM FOR SALE - 200 ACRES - 100 acres, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

A GOOD INVESTMENT IN British Columbia. To be sold on easy terms, a fine farm, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

Wanted to Rent a Farm. 100 to 200 acres, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

Farms Wanted. Advertisements of Farms Wanted, inserted in this paper, 25 words for 50c; each additional word, 10c. Parties replying to advertisements will please to state their names in the first line.

IMPROVED FARMS WANTED. To purchase improved farms, with a good house, barn, and other buildings, suitable for a large farm, or two smaller farms, near Toronto.

FARMS PURCHASED - PER 10000 having improved farms for sale throughout Ontario will find purchasers by sending particulars to H. H. HARRISON, 100 Queen Street, Toronto.

SUFFOCATED BY CHARCOAL GAS. One Man Found Dead and Another Lying Dying.

Quebec, Feb. 18. - A man was found dead in the street, and another lying dying, near the city hall, near Toronto.

On that issue, the Daily Telegraph says, in an editorial, that its correspondent is not a known name, but an experienced campaigner, and that its allegations must be proved, and that its assertions are not to be taken as a matter of course.

On that issue, the Daily Telegraph says, in an editorial, that its correspondent is not a known name, but an experienced campaigner, and that its allegations must be proved, and that its assertions are not to be taken as a matter of course.

On that issue, the Daily Telegraph says, in an editorial, that its correspondent is not a known name, but an experienced campaigner, and that its allegations must be proved, and that its assertions are not to be taken as a matter of course.

THE SENSATION OF THE HOUR. Dr. Hugh Russell and Sir Garnet Wolseley.

THE VETERAN CORRESPONDENT'S DEFENCE. The British Army Demoralized by Drink.

THE CANADA GAZETTE. His Excellency's Office Hours - Amended Table of Precedence.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14. - The Gazette today announces that His Excellency the Governor-General will be in his office, in the eastern departmental building, on Tuesdays and Fridays, from 10 o'clock to 12 o'clock, and on Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, from 10 o'clock to 12 o'clock, and on Saturdays, from 10 o'clock to 12 o'clock.

It is announced that by a despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies bearing date 2nd February, 1871, the following regulations have been made in the Table of Precedence, and the following is now the amended order of Precedence:

1. The Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.

2. The Senior officer commanding the Militia of the Province of Ontario.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.

4. The Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia.

5. The Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

6. The Archbishop and Bishops, according to seniority.

7. The Speaker of the Senate.

8. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada.

9. The Chief Justice of the Courts of Law and Equity, according to seniority.

10. The members of the Privy Council, and of the Cabinet.

11. The members of the Executive Council, and of the Cabinet.

12. The members of the House of Commons.

13. The members of the Executive Council, and of the Cabinet.

14. The members of the House of Commons.

15. The members of the Executive Council, and of the Cabinet.

16. The members of the House of Commons.

17. The members of the Executive Council, and of the Cabinet.

18. The members of the House of Commons.

19. The members of the Executive Council, and of the Cabinet.

20. The members of the House of Commons.

21. The members of the Executive Council, and of the Cabinet.

22. The members of the House of Commons.

23. The members of the Executive Council, and of the Cabinet.

24. The members of the House of Commons.

25. The members of the Executive Council, and of the Cabinet.

Under these circumstances, the defence of William Howard Russell, LL. D., has been published in the following form:

"I have been accused of having written a libellous article in the Standard, in which I have accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

"I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman. I have to state that I have never written such an article, and that I have never accused Sir Garnet Wolseley of having been drunk on the day of the battle of Omdurman.

LATEST CABLE NEWS. Explosion in the Winter Palace at St. Petersburg.

Forty soldiers killed and wounded. Opening of the Italian Parliament.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Important rise in wool. Detection of an American steamer by British authorities.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

Excitement at Kabul. Advance of Turan troops by Abdul Rahman.

MR. WEBSTER'S VISION. An Interview with the Reverend Gentleman.

A Mysterious Message. Quebec, Feb. 10. - The announcement by the Rev. R. W. B. Webster that he would preach last night upon the subject of "Visions," succeeded in filling the church with a large congregation, and, doubtless, produced a very much larger effect than usual. Be that as it may, the congregation appeared disappointed that the announcement made by the Rev. gentleman was not followed up by a sermon which was most pointedly alluded to the matter was as follows: "Most of the subject is very little. I tell you again to-night that I am not at present a seer, that I do not see things that have been seen by other living beings, and have not yet continued to live, and have heard of which few in this land have heard and have remained in the land, but which I saw was a spirit, or an angel, I cannot tell which." He mentioned during his discourse that people are always deceived by their dead friends. He only knew that the impression made upon him was lasting, and that if he was to tell to the congregation that he had seen a vision, he would be through them, such as they never experienced before.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.

Quebec, Feb. 17. - The excitement of the hour is still the Rev. Mr. Webster's vision, and a local paper this morning has the following report of an interview with the Rev. gentleman, which it might be supposed, is an Episcopalian. Mr. Webster received the reporter courteously, and by no means evaded the question as to whether he had seen a vision, or not. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one. He said that he had seen a vision, and that it was a very remarkable one.