Canada's Great Exhibit At Panama Exposition

"Complete Eclipses Exhibits of Every One of Our Individual States" says New York Journal.

That Canada is a great country and a wonderful empire, and being truly recognized as such, will be seen by the following which appeared, editorially, in a recent issue of the New York Evening Journal, in speaking of the Canadian government's exhibit at the great Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

"A wonderful empire is Canada," says the World, "not a part of England, but a greater England." What true Canadian breast would not swell with pride, for a government who could, by its magnificent capabilities, win from our American brethren such words of praise and patriotism as is given vent to by the World. Read what it says:

"Citizens of the United States who go to the great Exposition at San Francisco will return with increased respect for Canada and the Canadian Government, thanks to the great building and the extraordinary fine exhibit that represent Canada's power."

There never was seen a more complete, inspiring exhibit of the wonders of a great country.

The Canadians have gone at the thing thoroughly, they have eclipsed completely the exhibits of every one of our individual States, and that is putting it very mildly.

Every Canadian certainly should visit the Panama-Pacific Exposition, if only to confirm the opinion he probably holds that Canada is a wonderful place and its Government a magnificent and capable Government.

In addition to Canadians, representatives of every State and every county in the United States should make it a point to spend a thoughtful day in the Canada Building.

They will learn there that it is possible for a people not afraid of "paternalism or Government influence" to do wonders for the building up of a country.

And they will see splendid work done by private corporations, railroads and others, under proper and efficient control by the people.

The Canada Building is a magnificent, dignified structure; its employees are intelligent, courteous, well-chosen men.

Marvellously ingenious and striking exhibits tell the story of the great nation that lies north of us. Canada is an empire of strength, beauty, prosperity and unlimited possibilities.

Intelligent citizens of this nation will rejoice in that Canadian exhibition, with its many proofs of Canadian intelligence, energy, good government and good citizenship.

Every citizen of the United States should be glad to know that we have as our brother on the north a people so powerful, a realm so vast and prosperous.

Forever there can be between the United States and Canada only friendly feeling and brotherly rivalry.

The Canadians, at great expense and with great intelligence, have sent to our Exposition a demonstration of their power and ability. Every American should make it a point to study it. And every one who knows the difficulty of developing and governing a new country will bow reverently to the power that Canada displays.

The exhibition made cannot properly be described. It is your duty TO SEE IT.

It shows the beginning of man's work in a wild country, the forests, the animals, the wilderness. And it shows man conquering the earth, making his home of the forest, his fertile fields of the rough plains, his servants of the waterfalls, and of all his happiness in independence and free government.

A wonderful empire is Canada, not a PART of England, but a greater England. The people of this country should be grateful for the exhibition that Canada has sent to us.

See the Canada Building if you can and all the other wonders of the Panama Exposition, and all the wonders of this great country that lie between.

If you want to know the meaning of the word Canada, our great northern brother, make it a point, on your visit to the Exposition, either going or coming, to make a journey through the Canadian Empire."

Red Cross Appeal To The Farmers

Our country, with its Allies, is waging a great war for justice, for the protection of small nations in the enjoyment of their rights, for continued and growing freedom, and for the maintenance of its pledged word of honour. Much destruction and desolation are being caused. Lives are being lost by the thousand; Canada's first contingent is now in the thick of it. Some will fall sick; many may be wounded; some will pay the last full measure of devotion to their country and its cause.

The Red Cross Society exists to succor the sick and wounded in war. It needs more money to provide more beds at hospitals in Great Britain and France; it needs more money to pay more Red Cross Nurses; it needs more money, and more things made by women to supply to Clearing Hospitals, Base Hospitals, and Recovering Hospitals.

I appeal to farmers to send me sums from $1 to $50, during the first week in May. Every $50 provides one additional hospital bed with the giver's name over it. By sending me about $10,000, you would serve your country well, bring credit to yourselves, and make all of us very proud of you. For the sake of the wounded boys, make the gift substantial. It will be an investment towards the recovery of some Canadian soldier who stood in our stead that our cause might be upheld.

Faithfully your friend,
JAS. W. ROBERTSON,
Chairman,
Red Cross Society at Ottawa.

Pains in the Side, Chest, or Back Aching Muscles Cured Quickly

Even Doctors Marvel at the Penetrating Power of Good Old "Nerviline"

Pains anywhere—in the chest, neck, side, back or muscles—they are always a discomfort.

If the inflammation is severe, the pain will be intense. If allowed to continue, complications will follow.

Physicians say one of the best remedies is "Nerviline"—it can't help curing, because it penetrates through the sore tissues, carrying healing properties that destroy every symptom of pain.

In case of colds, sore chest and pleurisy, there should be a good hand-rubbing with Nerviline, and, of course to prevent the trouble coming back, it's advisable to put on a Nerviline Porous Plaster, which, by absorption through the skin, draws out all congestion.

For general household use, for curing the ailments of the young and old, for destroying all pain, outward or inward, nothing can excel Nerviline; thousands testify to this effect.

For nearly forty years Nerviline has been a renowned and trusted remedy in thousands of homes where practically no medicine is needed. Nerviline is safe to use. For children's coughs, colds and sore throat nothing can be used with more certain results.

Get the large 50 cent family size bottle today. It is more economical than the 25 cent trial size, and is sure to keep down the doctor's bill and cure a host of minor ills that arise in every household.

All dealers sell Nerviline, or direct from the Catarrhzone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Growing North Shore Industry

Woodburn Farm Conservatory at Chatham, Credit to North Shore.

Through the enterprise of Mr. Geo. E. Fisher of Woodburn Farm, a first class Conservatory has been established on the North Shore and it is now possible for the residents of the Miramichi and the North Shore to obtain their wants in the way of cut flowers, wedding bouquets, funeral designs and potted plants right at their own doors, ensuring freshness and beauty not always possible under former conditions. For this reason Mr. Fisher's enterprise deserves the hearty support as he has established a new industry on the North Shore and is doing his part in keeping business even better than usual. In his foreman E. Perkins, Mr. Fisher has an English gardener of long experience whose good work has been unstintingly praised by those who have already given orders to the Woodburn Conservatories.

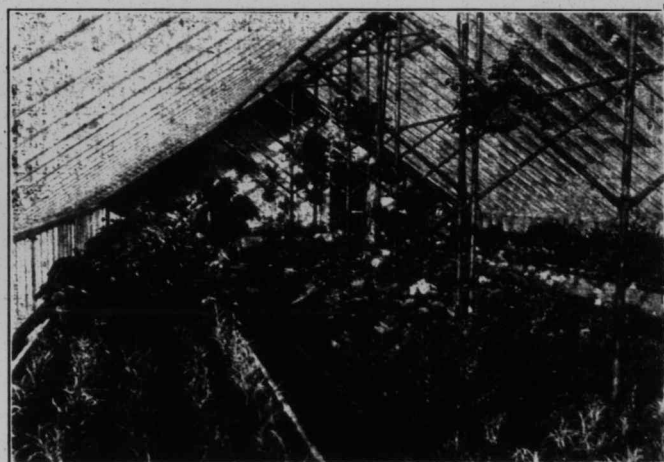

During the past fall Mr. Fisher has added over 4000 feet of glass to his conservatories and now has a splendidly equipped plant with which tending customers will have a splendid range to choose from next spring. Woodburn plants have always received a very fine name for hardihood and satisfaction and that reputation will be maintained.

Anyone wishing information regarding the growing of flowers will be heartily welcomed at Woodburn Conservatories where all possible information will be put at his disposal and he can see the plants growing under ideal conditions.

Woodburn Farm has many other attractions that are interesting, and a walk through the large market garden during the summer months is a delight to lovers of good vegetables. Thousands of cabbages and cauliflowers, celery and tomatoes are grown, and Mr. Fisher is making a feature of the Parcel Post Delivery in lettuce, radish, celery and plants and flowers. Before leaving the farm you want to take a run through the dairy barn and piggery. The herd of Ayrshires, headed by the noted bull Champion of Oranstown, whose grand dam had the highest milking record of any Ayrshire cow in Canada are a fine looking lot of cows and grand producers. Every thing about the stables are kept clean and tidy, cows are cleaned daily, and an air of freshness and brightness pervades the building.

The piggery contains some fine specimens of improved Yorkshire and the demand for young pigs this year has been greater than ever.

Not Much Interest Taken In Election

any more than another? Ald. McGrath said he would favor any question which would prove of interest to the community.

ALD. JAMES STABLES
Ald. Stables thanked the electors for their support and said he was the proudest man on the ticket. He said he was elected because the people want the Scott Act enforced. He was told he could not be elected if he came out as a Scott Act candidate, but his election showed that those who had told him that were mistaken. He said the sale of liquor could be stopped but only by the help of the people. If everybody would help we would have a good clean town we would not be ashamed of. He would do his best to enforce the Act.

ALD. D. P. DOYLE
Ald. Doyle said he felt proud to be again chosen to represent the people at the board. He had done his duty to the town and hoped his conduct the coming year would win for him another election.

ALD. D. S. CREAGHAN
Ald. Creaghan, the youngest man probably who has yet sat at the board, was given a good support by the electors, and coming forward he thanked them and said he felt very proud of his election. The town's best interests would be his, and he hoped his record would hold for him the confidence of the citizens of the town.

ALD. H. H. STUART
Ald. Elect H. H. Stuart thanked the electors for the confidence that, after the slight and temporary eclipse of last year's adverse vote, they had again placed in him with by far the largest vote and largest percentage of the total vote he had ever received. As the public had already known exactly where he stood and there had been no chance of anyone voting for him by mistake, and as the vote he had now received was 50 per cent greater than needed to barely elect him, he felt sure of the people's final endorsement. The result of the day he attributed largely to the influence of the Newcastle Town Improvement League and he urged every citizen to join that League, attend its meetings, and take part in its discussions. The League could be made a mighty factor in moulding public opinion. When anyone felt the Council needed advice or encouragement, let him make suggestions through the League, and they would be listened to. He felt proud of the associates elected with him and he saw no reason why the new Council should not get along harmoniously.

ALD. C. C. HAYWARD
Ald. Hayward, the fourth new candidate for honors, thanked the citizens for the vote given him. He reposed in him. He had no experience as an alderman, but he had learned what interests the town best. He felt that the 191 men who had voted for him wanted him and those were the men he wanted to serve. The united efforts of the citizens was wanted to make Newcastle a clean town—eight men could not do it alone. He was proud to be a member of the Improvement League, and if the League was given support, good to the town would be the result.

S. W. MILLER
S. W. Miller, who this year met defeat, was given a good reception, by the friends who had stayed by him. Mr. Miller thanked those who had supported him, and said that while he came before them a defeated candidate, his interests were still with the town, and he would visit the Council meetings, give advice to any and all who would consult him. He said to Mr. Miller's credit, he has probably held the confidence of the people for a longer period of time than any other citizen who has sat at the board. In years gone by he was one of the hardest men to defeat. He was never defeated, because he had the confidence of the people, and he knew how to hold it. Times seem to have changed, however, and like many another good man, he has fulfilled his sphere of usefulness, not, however, without still retaining a very high respect from even those who opposed him in Tuesday's election.

Letter From Father of Belgian Refugee Baby

The friends, who so generously contributed toward an Easter gift for the first Belgian Refugee baby, born in Canada, will be pleased to see the following letter of grateful acknowledgment from the father of the little one—Elliott Couturier Poupert.

Vancouver, B. C.
April 5, 1915.

Mrs. A. Swinerton,
Box 265, Newcastle, N. B.
We have been very affected by the receipt of the money order of $15 which you and your friends have had the kindness to send as an Easter gift to our dear little baby. This money will certainly be of great aid to us, as we are not exactly starving, but in an awkward position.

We shall try and explain to you in a few words how it is we are so far away from our country. As you know already, we had to leave Antwerp owing to the invasion of the Germans in our city. After a stay of about six weeks in England with Miss Ellice Grey of Oxshott, Surrey, who by the way has been very nice to us, we decided to go out to Canada with the idea of getting something to do, and on account of lots of nice promises and the condition of Canada being explained to us as being absolutely normal, we made up our mind and bought through tickets to Vancouver, B. C., with the aim of going in for poultry raising. Unfortunately, when we started making enquiries all over the place, we found that the situation out here was awfully bad, and we certainly could not risk at all to go on a farm with the little amount of money we still had in our possession. So we had to stop in town. I (J. Poupert) have been enquiring all over Vancouver for some work (I even had some letters of introduction given to me by Mr. Whitehead, our Consul, who is a very kind gentleman) and I must agree that there was no chance whatever to strike any job. You can imagine the situation alright when you notice there are thousands and thousands of people out of work, entirely broke, sleeping on the floor in some shacks, most of them nearly starving.

I succeeded in getting the assistance of the C. P. R. for a free transportation back to Quebec City, and with the financial help of Mr. Whitehead for buying some food on our way, we hope to be a little more lucky in the eastern part of Canada. This is surely a very hard thing to us to beg everywhere for assistance as we have never been used before to this, but once more we dare hope the best of it, as we have been told by the Emigration Commissioner that the emigration agent at Quebec will take care of us, and even try and get us something to do.

We again beg to reiterate our best thanks for your kind attention, and we shall only be too glad to let you have a photograph of our little Ellice within a very short time as a remembrance.

Yours faithfully,
J. POUPERT.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scour robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.
