OBITUARY

VERA F. DAVIDSON

The death of Vera F. Davidson, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Davidson occurred last Thursday at her home, aged 4 years, pneumonia being the cause of death. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, interment being made at the cemetery.

JOHN WINDSOR

Nigadoo, N. B. March 3.—Friends of the former days and older residents, by whom he is well remembered will learn with sincere regret of the death of Mr. John Windsor which occurred at his home in Nigadoo of heart failure. Though in failing health for the past few months, his death occurred very suddenly.

Mrs. Windsor was born in Bathurst N. B. in 1848 and carried on for many years a large canning business in Gloucester County and a general store in Petit Rocher. He was widely known throughout the province.

Besides his wife he is survived by five daughters, Mrs. C. W. Falconer, of Newcastle, N. B. Marion, of the J. H. Dunn Hospital, Bathurst, N. B. Grace, Graduate nurse of Moncton, N. B. Ruth, of Cambridge Hospital, Cambridge, Mass., and Roberta at home. One son Howard in the West. He was a man of sterling character and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Interment was made at the Methodist cemetery, East Bathurst. Rev. G. A. Ross assisted by Rev. Mr. Archibald conducted the funeral services at the church and at the grave. (Ontario and Western papers please copy.)

JEREMIAH BLACKMORE

The death of Jeremiah Blackmore took place at his residence in Cassilis on Feb. 28th. The late Mr. Blackmore was born on the Little South-West in 1851. At the age of 25 years he married Mary Ann Hubbard of Cassilis where he has been a successful farmer and prominent citizen. The late Mr. Blackmore will be much missed not only by his family, but by many life long friends, and in his passing away the Presbyterian Church loses a devout adherent and liberal supporter. He enjoyed a full measure of health until about six days ago, when he contracted a cold which developed into pneumonia, and in spite of all that medical aid could do he passed away on Monday night.

Deceased leaves his widow and the following children to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father—Mrs. Gregory Dunnett and George of Whitbyville; Mrs. George E. Sutherland, Cassilis; Mrs. Walter Johnston and David of Nelson; and Hiram at home; also the following sisters and brothers Mrs. Annie Humble, Mrs. Phoebe Bunker, Edward and Everett, Wash; Hiram and Silas, Minn.; and fifteen grand-children.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Girdwood and Rev. Mr. MacLean of Newcastle. The funeral which was one of the largest ever seen in Cassilis was under the direction of Mr. Chas. Gough. Interment in St. Stephen's cemetery. The pallbearers were his three sons and three sons-in-law.

The funeral of the late Jeremiah Blackmore, of Cassilis, was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Girdwood and interment was at Redbank.

CATARH cannot be cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Hall's Catarrh Medicine was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years. It is composed of some of the best drugs known, combined with some of the best blood purifiers. The perfect combination of the ingredients in Hall's Catarrh Medicine is what produces such wonderful results in catarrhal conditions. Send for testimonials, free.

EDITORS MAIL

Newcastle, N. B.

March 4th, 1921

Editor of Union Advocate, Town.

Dear Sir:—

I noticed in your last week's issue a report of the meeting of the North West Lumber Co., and that the lumbermen present at that meeting considered that the prospects for the lumber business the coming year were none too bright. I noticed that Mr. Snowball stated that he could not run his mill until he got some orders for stock on hand as he is so badly piled up, he would have no room to pile his new cut. Frasers Mill is reported not to start sawing until July, and I presume all the mills on the river are facing a similar situation; large stocks of lumber on hand, and no prospects of selling. I think that the situation in regard to the lumber business throughout the country is far more serious than any of the lumbermen have so far admitted, with regard to both lumber and pulp. The British Government hold large stocks of lumber in this province and elsewhere, which I understand were bought during 1917, 1918, 1919 at prices prevailing at that time, and are now offering these stocks at prices far below the present cost of manufacture; and until all their stocks are disposed of which amounts to a very considerable quantity, the lumbermen will be unable to sell a stick of lumber. Because it is quite evident that they cannot compete with the Government at prices they are selling for today. So far as the lumbermen are concerned it is a question of waiting until the Government stocks are cleaned up, and the prices then will be governed, I have no doubt by the law of supply and demand. Some people claim that the American market will absorb surplus stocks of lumber from this province, but I understand that at the present time this market is very dull with very poor prospects for any improvement for sometime to come. In fact there is a grave possibility of the American Government putting a duty on Canadian lumber, entering U. S.

So much for the lumber business. Now for a brief reference to the pulp business, which during the past year has developed into a large enterprise with Rossing mills scattered all over the country. I understand that just lately the price of pulp has taken quite a slump, and whereas a cord of dressed wood was worth anywhere from $20 to $25 several months ago, it is almost impossible to sell for $15 per cord at present. This is due to a large extent to over-production, and most of the large Paper-mills have enough raw material on hand for a year's supply.

While I do not wish to be pessimistic I think in view of the fact that the above conditions exist in respect to the lumber industry, (which is the backbone of the country), that it is well to caution the people of this town and surrounding country to keep well within their means and try to do without unnecessary luxuries they have been accustomed to during the past years. It is a well-known fact that everybody has been living right up to, and even beyond their income during the extravagant period we have been passing through, but now it is time to call a halt and get back to a sensible basis of living once more. In this connection I might say that I think our Town Government should retrench in every possible way, and cut down expenses in every department rather than calling

OLIVEINE EMULSION

Back to the Old Price $1 a bottle.

Just recently, prices have dropped on the very finest Cod Liver Oil and the very purest Dross used in preparing "OLIVEINE EMULSION". These lower prices make it possible to put "OLIVEINE EMULSION" back to the old price of $1 a bottle.

Doctors everywhere have been notified that $1 a bottle is now the price of this favorite tonic, blood purifier and health restorer. The quality is the same—you get the same big bottle—and you pay the old price $1. Be sure to get "OLIVEINE EMULSION".

Mother

"California Syrup of Figs" is Child's Best Laxative

Beware! Say "California" as you may not get the genuine "California Syrup of Figs" which doctors recommend for babies and children of all ages. Nothing else cleans the little bowels and regulates the child's stomach and liver so gently, so thoroughly. Directions on each bottle. But you must say "California." Don't be talked into an imitation fig syrup which hasn't the delicious, fruity taste or the perfect "laxative physic" action.
