At Manchester on the other day Rev. George C. Griffith, Protestant clergyman, was tried for the wilful murder of his mother as Kilgys, Osnaby Kerry, and sentenced to be hanged on the 9th inst. From all Quarters.

At Manchester on the other day Rev. George C. Griffith, Protestant clergyman, was tried for the wilful murder of his mother as Kilgys, Osnaby Kerry, and sentenced to be hanged on the 9th inst. The prisoner was in considerable financial difficulties. His mother was found dead in the drawing room with a bullet wound through her head. Income has come to be so much used in English churches that the servers and acolytes and other assistants, whose province it is to light and swing thurifers, have seriously proposed to form themselves into a society entitled the "Thurifers' Guild." This has forced the high members of the Church to consider the matter very seriously.

Count Hoesbroeck, of Germany, who left the Jesuits some months ago and has since published several so-called "exposures" of the society, is now in Rome making his peace with the Church. He will submit to penance qualifying him to return to the society.

Municipal politics must pay in New York. Richard Croker, chief of the Democrat organization, Tammany Hall, who hasn't done any work ever since he was a tough man at the head of the Harlem Tunnel Gang, is found to be worth over a million of dollars. Mr. Croker regulates the right of anyone to ask where he got it, and as he bears the distinction of having stood trial for shooting a man his detractors avoid personal interrogation of the respected gentleman.

One man's nest is another man's poison. There were many men who suffered through the great coal strike in England, but Lord Londonderry was not one of them. His Lordship put five profits in his pocket—a landowner, colliery-owner, shipowner, coal merchant and retail dealer. Further, he had no contracts on hand to fill.

At the dedication of a new church in Tepitz, Germany, recently, the priest from the neighboring cloister who was to preach the sermon failed to appear. The rector was in a quandary until he happened to spy Peter Benedictus in the congregation, who quickly consented to deliver it. Peter Benedictus was formerly Prince Edmund Radziwyl, a member of the famous Polish family which has played a great part in Prussian history.

Of the 1,300 trotting associations in America there was less than 100 having mile track. It would be difficult to name the fastest and best regulation mile course without giving preference to Texas Haste, for it is here that the king and queen of the trotting and trotting world, Mascot 2:04 and Nancy Hawk 2:04 obtained their records, within 24 hours of each other; the last week in September, 1892.

There is a cat over in Wilkesbarre, Pa., which is entitled to the franchise. It was a pet in a post office, one day last week it nibbled at no minor boots and ran away, repeating the operation several times. At last when it ran away several miles followed it to see what it meant. As they passed down the gangway the chamber they had entered in. Anyone who speaks disparagingly of cats, it has been said, is liable to be met over the dump.

The Pre-eminent Advantages to be Derived from the Association of the Holy Family, James Mary and Joseph.

(Written for the Herald.)
The Catholic Clergy are, no doubt, active and zealous in this laudable work, and too with them the Catholic press should unite its influence, for its first duty is to do good.
