...y afternoon)—What a...ry day Sunday is, moth...y do you find it dreary...by (or some thought)...because pa stays home all...

...ber (or Texas express)—Shall...quick. Passenger—All my...in this set. R.—Open it...R.—All in silver dollars!...We ain't no dryer.

...—Why, Mary, I told you to...p my room an hour ago, and here...terrible disorder. Mary—Yes, and I did make it up; but the...er came in and put on a clean collar...m, an' he lost the button.

...Would-be masher, to young lady com...g out of the matinee—Would you like a...riage, miss? Young lady (pretend...g to mistake him for a coachman)—No...thank you, driver, my own coachman...awaits me around the corner.

...“There are five gold dollars,” said old...Hearty to his young grandson, “one for...each of your birthdays. What more...ould a little shaver like you wish?...“Only that I was as old as you, grand...pa,” replied the young financier.

...You cannot always tell what people...mean by what they say; but when the...bottom comes out of an ash barrel that a...man is tugging and straining to get up...the cellar steps, and the man says some...thing, it is safe to assume as a general...thing he means it.

...In an unfrequented spot in Bellefont...aine Cemetery, St. Louis, there are two...graves, over one of which is a modest...tombstone with the following inscription upon it:

...Here rests that angel of a woman,
BARBARA GRAHAM COBURN,
Wife of Thomas Brooks,
Born in New Jersey in 1825;
Died in St. Louis in 1886.
You were always satisfied, always content with what you had.
I did not have to rob my employ...er to keep you in extravagance.
How pleasant it was to meet you on returning home!
God bless you!
YOUR HUSBAND.

...The Bank of England doors are now...so finely balanced that a clerk, by pres...ing a knob under his desk, can close...the outer doors instantly, and they can...not be opened again except by special...process. This is done to prevent the...daring and ingenious unemployed of...the metropolis from robbing the bank.

...The bullion department of this and other...banks are nightly submerged several...feet in water by the action of the...machinery. In some banks the bullion...department is connected with the...manager's sleeping-room, and an...entrance cannot be effected with...out shooting a bolt in the dormitory, which...in turn sets in motion an alarm. If a...visitor during the day should happen to...knock off one from the pile of sovereigns...the whole pile would disappear, a po...of water taking its place.

...Roll Jelly Cake.—Three eggs, one cup...of sweet milk, one and one-half cups...of sugar, two cups of flour or only a little...more, one teaspoonful of lemon extract, a little salt and two teaspoons of bak...ing powder. This makes two cakes.

...Eye Pancakes.—One cup of rye milk, one cup of flour, one cup of rye meal, four tablespoonfuls of molasses, one egg, and one small teaspoonful of saleratus, drop from a spoon into hot lard and fry like doughnuts.

...Corn Cake.—One cup of flour, one cup...of corn meal, one cup of butter, milk or sour milk, one-half tablespo...onful of soda, and a tablespoonful of sugar, a little butter (melted) and salt. Bake in a quick oven.

...Cup Custards.—Beat five eggs with three-quarters of a cup of white sugar, add flavoring and one quart of sweet milk; pour into cups and place in a baking pan of water. Bake in a slow oven.

...Now the Blind See.
I also asked those who became blind in youth, or later, whether they were in the habit of giving imaginary faces to the persons they met after their blindness, and whether they ever saw such in their dreams. Some answered in very vague terms, but several undoubtedly make good use of this power, probab...ly somewhat on the same basis as we imag...ine the appearance of eminent men of whom we have never seen, but whose features we have never seen. When we remember how erroneous such impres...sions often are, we can understand how it often misleads the blind. Doctor Kitto quotes a letter from a musician who lost his sight when 18 years old, but who retains a very strong visualizing power, both in waking life and in dreams. The mention of a famous man, of a friend, or of a scene, always carries with it a visual picture, complete and vivid. Moreover, these images of his friends change as the friends grow old, and he feels himself intellectually in no way different from the seeing.

...A well-known doctor says that the fumes of kerosene, when a lamp is turned low, are likely to cause diphtheria. The New York board of health a few years ago decided that to this more than any other cause the prevalence of this dis...eas...e was to be attributed. This is given as accounting for the fact that diphtheria generally begins to spread with the advent of short days and long nights. Child...ren, as a rule, dislike to go to bed in the dark, and the kind mother lets the lamp remain in the bedroom, usually turning down the flame so that the light shall not keep the child awake. Many bedrooms are thus semi-lighted at night, and the windows being closed or raised but slightly the atmospheric condition is simply deadly. A turned down kero...sene lamp is a machine of deadly gear that the healthiest lungs cannot safely be exposed to.

...Whenever the wandering demon of drunkenness finds a ship adrift, no steady wind in its sails, he steps on board, takes the helm, and steers straight for the masthead.

...It is not likely that the new universal language, “Volapuk,” will turn out to be anything more than a “fad,” but it is claimed for it, although it was invented only eight years ago that it is already known to hundreds of thousands, while the number of its students is constantly increasing. It is urged as an objection to Volapuk that it cannot be spoken, but why it is unpronounceable is not explain...ed.
It may, however, be said for it that a language with a grammar so simple and an alphabet so uniform in the in...dication of sounds that a child may learn it in a short time might obviously be made a useful auxiliary in facilitating in emotional correspondence, even if it were not spoken.

...Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.
Dr. J. H. Rogers, Surgeon P. O. Columbus Co., Pa., says: “My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr.
Sage's Catarrh Remedy in a newspaper, and bought a bottle for her and soon saw that it helped her. A third bottle stopped a perma...nent cure. She is now eight years old and sound and happy.”

...“Untold Agony from Catarrh.” Prof. W. H. Harper, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: “Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one that every day towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent.”

...“Constantly Sneezing and Spitting.” THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 292 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: “I was a great sufferer from catarrh of the nose, and I was constantly sneezing and spitting, and my throat would become so sore I could not speak. I bought Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it is the only remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure.”

Lake Huron is lower than the oldest residents ever saw it. The water is two feet below the lowest point of a year and a half ago.

All the great walks of life are controlled by education. The ignorant are unable to advance themselves in life. It is deplorable to see so many young men destitute of moral principles, given up to vice and dying long before their time from the effects of their bad habits.

Rev. Dr. L. J. man Abbott, who has been chosen as the successor of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher in the pastorate of Plymouth church, is a man who is well fitted for that representative and important position. As editor of the Christian Union he has shown himself to be an liberal-minded and loving-hearted as the great Plymouth pastor himself, and is besides a bold and original thinker, a pungent writer and a forcible speaker.
