SYNOD PROCEEDINGS.

Thursday Afternoon, June 21.

The first on the order paper was the resolution of Mr. W. R. Stirling, in reference to the C. E. T. S. He said he was not a member of the C. E. T. S., but was a member of the I. O. G. T., and he introduced the resolution, not at the desire of any officer or member of the C. E. T. S., but of his own volition. The I. O. G. T. had worked shoulder to shoulder with the C. E. T. S., and he thought it a pity that the Synod should rise without putting on record an appreciation of the work of the C. E. T. S., a work he considered unparalleled by that of any Society in this island. But for its work the Temperance legislation of 1910 would never have appeared on the Statute Book.

Hon. John Harvey seconded the resolution. It would be a disaster if the effects of the C. E. T. S. were not appreciated by the Synod. He spoke of the Act of 1910, and referred especially to that section relating to the hours of sale and the law with regard to the C. O. D. system.

Rev. A. G. Bayly asked a question in reference to the wording of the resolution which he was supporting. Rev. F. Smart wished to say that anyone who ascribed to the Synod a lack of sympathy with the work of the Temperance Society, was wrong. The Synod did not show any lack of sympathy.

Rev. Canon White stated that, as President of the Cathedral Branch, he would like to say a few words with regard to the work. He wished to point out that the good work done by that Society was a re-creation of the Temperance sentiment which had existed 25 years ago, when the Society had 31 branches and 3,178 members. It had now four branches and 700 members. But since local option is now in force nearly all over the island, it may be that it has been felt that the necessity for special organizations to combat intemperance no longer existed. Still, he thought we had a lot of leeway to make up. At the same time he did not wish to detract in any way from the work accomplished by the C. E. T. S. He had watched the growth of that Society in St. John's with the greatest interest. The best work done in the past two years was that done by individual members—men who had experienced temptation, and were working like Trojans to recruit others—men of the rank and file—mechanics, labourers, etc., who were nobly working in the cause of temperance. Apart from the work it had accomplished in the way of legislation, the Society deserves our hearty support for good work done in reclaiming the fallen. He referred especially to Rev. Mr. Bell's good work.

Canon Dunfield wished to point out that he had seen 1900 local option campaigns in St. John's, but that of 1909 had awakened far greater interest than that of 1885. He wished that the report of the Temperance Committee, which, owing to a technicality, had not been received, could have been placed on the records of the Synod.

Hon. R. Watson supported the resolution. He showed what work had been done by the Society, especially with regard to the fees of the Clerk of the Peace derived from Liquor Licenses which were now computed, and also with regard to the legislation of 1910, every clause of which had emanated from the Society, with the exception of that relating to the Cash on Delivery System, which came from the Methodist Temperance Committee. It speaks well for temperance sentiment in this community that the Bill had passed the House of Assembly without division.

Mr. H. Y. Mott, though not a Local Optionist, had always been a Temperance worker, and considered that the Church was under an eternal obligation to the C. E. T. S. in St. John's. He spoke of the work done years ago in H. Grace, and considered that the present growth of temperance sentiment was largely due to seed sown in the past.

Rev. J. Brinton explained that all he was sorry for was that the good work done by the C. E. T. S. in St. John's had not been done by the Church as a whole. He had much pleasure in supporting the motion.

Rev. F. Smart moved a resolution amending that of Mr. Stirling's, but on the latter's agreeing to add words to his resolution to apply it only to the C. E. T. S. in St. John's, he withdrew his amendment.

Rev. F. W. Colley was sorry that there was an impression abroad that the Synod had acted with harshness with regard to the reception of the Temperance Report, which had not been received owing to a technicality. He felt that the Synod did not desire to throw cold water on the good work done by the Temperance Society.

Mr. W. W. Blackall was of the opinion that the reason there are fewer branches of the C. E. T. S. in Newfoundland is that Local Option has spread its wings over the country. He felt that if Local Option were also adopted in St. John's there would be no further effort to keep up the C. E. T. S., or to preach sermons on temperance, so that when our people go away to other countries they would not be well instructed, and yield to temptation. He heartily supported Mr. Stirling's resolution. He was sorry that the report of the Temperance Committee had not been accepted, as it was a good one.

Rev. Canon Noel spoke of Local Option in Harbor Grace. During the Christmas season of 1908 he had not seen or heard of a single drunken man in H. Grace, but that last Christmas was some 40 men got intoxicated on the C. O. D. system, and he was glad that the Legislature had now put a stop to this.

Mr. Warwick Smith explained that, though the formal and official title of the Society in St. John's is "The Cathedral Branch of the C. E. T. S.," it was in all intents and purposes the St. John's Branch. The three adult branches of St. Thomas, St. Mary's, and the Cathedral Parishes had amalgamated some years ago, in order to strengthen the bonds of Temperance workers, and had retained the name Cathedral Branch. Many of its officers and members belonged to the other parishes, and the clergy of those parishes were ex-officio members of its General Committee.

Mr. E. Doyle and Mr. E. H. Davey spoke on points of order.

The resolution was then put and carried unanimously. It reads as follows:—"That this Synod desires to record its high appreciation of the valuable services rendered to the cause of Temperance by the Cathedral Branch of the Church of England Temperance Society during the past biennial period, and expresses the hope that it will continue to carry on its good work."

Rev. G. H. Bolt introduced a discussion on the Bishop's reference to the newspaper press, and moved the following resolutions:

WHEREAS His Lordship the Bishop in his address at the opening of this session of the Synod, has drawn attention to the importance of providing wholesome literature for our people;

AND WHEREAS the local news papers provide a large part of the reading matter of our people;

AND WHEREAS the tone of our public newspapers, especially at such a time as a general election, leaves much to be desired;

AND WHEREAS it is a remedy for improving the tone of the public press lies in the creation of a healthy public opinion;

RESOLVED that this Synod urge all Church people in the Diocese to endeavour by all legitimate means within their power to create a demand for such a high standard of literature as shall result in our local journals providing reading matter of such a nature as shall be elevating and instructive.

Canon Dunfield seconded the resolution. He stated that there was a great demand for good literature. This subject had been dealt with by the Lambeth Conference and Pan Anglian Congress. He felt sure Editors of the local press would be delighted if they were sure of our moral support.

Mr. H. Y. Mott agreed with the resolution. He thought the Editors were not altogether responsible for the tone of the papers. They were anxious to improve the tone of journalism, and would be thankful for the support of the Synod; but we must not look for results right away.

Rev. A. G. Bayly also supported the resolution.

Immediately after prayers the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Bill to amend the constitution and rules.

Hon. R. Watson asked leave to add a section to the Bill under discussion. It was not until last evening that he realized that the Secretary-Treasurer of the Synod is not ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee. This he thought ought not to be so. It would be awkward if a chance vote had the effect of putting him off the Executive. He moved that section 3 be amended by adding these words: "That the Secretary-Treasurer shall be a member of the Executive Committee ex-officio."

The Rev. F. Smart seconded the motion. He was glad to have the opportunity of doing so, because from years' experience on that Committee had convinced him that the present holder of the office is one who is admirably fitted for the position, and who has given an immense amount of time and work to the service of the Executive and the Church.

Mr. H. W. LeMessurier supported the motion. He believed that the Executive would be in a very awkward position without the Secretary-Treasurer. Rev. A. G. Bayly supported the motion. Agreed.

The House adjourned at 7.45.

His Lordship, having heard of the sudden death of Mr. W. B. Payn, Lay-Delegate for Burnt Mission, announced that, as a consequence, the Synod was adjourned until 7.30 on to-morrow evening. The Synod adjourned at 7.50 p.m.

Mr. Payn was on his way to attend the Synod at half past seven, and

Sudden Death of Mr. W. B. Payn,

CASHIER SAVINGS BANK.

The city was shocked last evening when the news spread around that Mr. W. B. Payn, Governor of the Savings Bank, had died suddenly on the street. He had left his house at 7.40 last evening at Monkstown Road and was passing along Queen's Road, near St. Patrick's Hall, with Rev. Canon Noel and Rev. Mr. Tulk, going to the Synod meeting, when he was suddenly stricken with a spasm of the heart and fell to the ground. He was taken to the residence of Mr. W. Clouston close by and Drs. Macpherson and Stafford were shortly on the scene. They could do no good as the vital spark had fled. His friends on hearing the sad news hastened to the place and were overwhelmed with grief to find that one whom they loved so dearly had been suddenly called away. The Masonic Club rooms, of which he was a prominent member, were closed for the night and the Synod meeting was abandoned. Deceased, who was a man of a genial temperament and lovable disposition, was born in Jersey 61 years ago and when quite a young man came out to Burnt to join his uncle, Mr. Falles, in business, who conducted the Jersey branch there. A few years after he came to St. John's and took a situation in the office of Mare & Son, and when the Bett's Cove Mine was opened went there and secured a position as boss of the miners. In the eighties he returned to Burnt and started business for himself, but owing to bad fisheries and more perhaps that he possessed a warm and generous heart for the poor, he failed in a few years. He entered politics as a candidate with Dr. Tait for Burnt in the Whiteway '89 election and represented the district for two terms. When the Union Bank broke he was appointed Registrar of the notes of the institution by the Government, and three years afterwards was made Deputy Minister Marine and Fisheries. In January of 1898, before the late Government went out of office, Mr. Payne was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mr. L. O'B. Furlong, Cashier and Governor of the Savings Bank, a position which he was occupying at the time of his death. Deceased was a great favorite in Masonic circles owing to his social qualities. He was affiliated with Avon Lodge and was one of the most popular members of the Masonic Club. At the last annual meeting he was elected President, the whole body delighting to do him honor and attest to his worth as a warm-hearted friend and associate. The melancholy duty of breaking the news to his family last evening devolved upon Rev. Canon Noel and Rev. Mr. Tulk. Their grief was heartrending. The Telegram extends to them its deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

Present to Mr. Bishop. The employees of Messrs. Bishop, Sons & Co., Ltd., met last evening at the office and presented Mr. Ralph Bishop with a handsome clock on the occasion of his wedding, which takes place at Heart's Content to-morrow. Mr. Alex. Robertson in his usual graceful manner conveyed to Mr. Bishop the good wishes of the employees of the firm and expressed the hope that he and his bride would have a long and happy wedded life. Mr. Bishop, who is one of the directors of the firm and is very popular amongst the hands, made a suitable reply and thanked them for the very beautiful gift. He will be married to Miss Stenford of Heart's Content at the Cable Town to-morrow evening.

OVERTAKEN BY NAUSEA. You don't know whether its going to stay down, or come up. You feel like thirty cents and look even worse. If one thing is quicker than another, it's "Nerviline." Ten drops in sweetened water gives relief to the stomach at once. Almost like magic is the change you experience. The cause of the nausea is removed, every symptom of vomiting and indigestion is cured in ten minutes. When "Nerviline" is so trusty, so economical, so sure to cure all the minor ills of the family, don't you think it would be wise to keep a large 50c. bottle on hand, ready for an emergency? "Nerviline" is a family panacea for all pain, internal or external—good in the inside and unequalled for inward ailments; try it.

GONE TO LABRADOR.—Mr. M. J. James left by the s.s. Invermore today on a surveying trip on Northern Labrador. He will be away till September.

was walking with Rev. Canon Noel when he was suddenly taken ill near St. Patrick's Hall. Doctors Macpherson and Stafford attended almost immediately but death supervened within about five minutes of the seizure. The body was taken to the residence of Mr. W. J. Clouston, and Rev. John Hewitt went to break the sad news to the bereaved family.

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

Had Eczema In Both Legs

Remarkable cure of Chronic Eczema by use of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT. You could scarcely imagine a more severe test of this ointment than the cure of Mrs. Clark recorded here. For twenty years she suffered all the tortures of this terrible disease and tried in vain the prescriptions of doctors and the cures commonly recommended. Mr. Fred W. Clark, Petworth, Ont., writes:—"My mother had Eczema in both legs for about 20 years and suffered from the dreadful itching, stinging sensations which can never be described. She doctored and tried everything for it but got no relief until she used Dr. Chase's Ointment which was recommended to her by a friend. She found that this brought relief and by continuing its use has been cured of Eczema. I do not think any one could have this horrible disease any worse than she did and can recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as a thorough cure for Eczema."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Recipes sent free.

An Enemy to the King.

The Chicago Stock Company reproduced this fine play at the T. A. Theatre last night. A fairly large audience attended, and judging from the frequent applause it was quite evident that all were pleased with the performance. To-night "Nell Gwyn of Old Drury" will be staged. Miss Ada Rehan made a great success of this piece in New York a few years ago and brought it to the front as the most popular play of the season. It is the story of the "Lure of the Mask" and is rich in comedy. The career of Nell Gwyn is full of stirring life incidents of pathos and comedy, well balanced and cannot fail to enlist the sympathy of the audience. From being a poor street girl selling oranges, Nell, with her winning ways, ingratiated herself into the affections of Charles the Second and soon became the principal actress in the King's Theatre.

SURVEYING TRIP.—Mr. Wilfred Pippy will leave by the s.s. Invermore to-day on a surveying trip to Labrador.

C. H. E. EXAMS.—The Council of Higher Education Exams. began yesterday.

PREVENTION

The Aim of Modern Medicine.

To prevent disease, to keep people well, to teach them the laws of health and how to obey them—this is the aim and task of modern medicine. Reducing this to its personal application, it means that you should discharge small ailments before they grow big.

In the liver, kidney, stomach and bowels, we find the instrumentalities that principally maintain life. They are prone to minor interference, that can be easily corrected by taking a weekly dose of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. When they grow sluggish or to aid them in keeping active, do not wait until you have to keep brain and eye clear by the occasional use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Keep dark lines from under the eyes, the skin clear and smooth and flexible—all this you may do—and more by the use of the most useful blood purifying and liver and kidney energizing pills, Dr. Hamilton's. That's the name of the best family medicine ever made. For stomach disorders, indigestion, biliousness and constipation, you are sure of cure by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills.
