

The King's Congratulations

Germany Wants Peace Negotiations Hastened.

Austrian Emperor Abdicates Again—Roumania Declares War—Bolshevism in Germany.

THE KING'S CONGRATULATIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 12. King George has sent messages of congratulations to the Emperor, to the King expresses his pride and his warmest wishes for the brilliant success which has crowned more than four years of effort and sacrifice. Germany, our most formidable enemy, who planned the war of supremacy of the world, full of the hope of armed strength and of the small British Army, has now been forced to acknowledge defeat. He says: "I rejoice in the achievement of the British forces, now grown from a beginning to the finest army in history, have borne so many and so heavy a part. Soldiers of the British Empire, in France and Belgium, in the process of your arms, as you retreat as in victory, has won the admiration of all, friends and foe. Now, by a happy historic fate, you are to conclude the campaign of Mons, where your predecessors in 1914 shed the first British blood. Between that date and this day has passed a long and weary struggle. In the face of your ranks have thinned again and again by sickness and death; but your will has never faltered, your courage has never failed, your hearts have never shown defeat. With your swords you have won the day. You have fought in more difficult, in the mountains and in the burning sun of Palestine, in the snows of Siberia, and in the Dardanelles. I pray that this day and this hour may bring justice and right, will bless your efforts in the struggle to secure for the world the freedom of peace."

EXCITEMENT DIED DOWN.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 11. The excitement in Berlin on Sunday, owing to the isolated resistance of officers faithful to the former Emperor has subsided. The night passed quietly. The population is willingly obeying orders. Almost all the shops are open. The Soldiers' and Workmen's Council has decreed that all work shall be resumed on Tuesday. The Bourse is closed at present. In Saxony the Cabinet Ministers have announced that elections will be held in which both men and women will vote.

grateful hearts the peoples of the British Empire salute the White, Red and Blue Ensigns and those who have given their lives for the flag. I am proud to have served in the Navy; I am prouder still to be its head on this memorable occasion."

STILL RUNNING.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Nov. 12. (By the A.P.)—All day long the rearward troops of the shattered and defeated German armies opposite the British front have been racing for their own borders as though their lives depended on reaching their own land by nightfall.

GONE NORTH.

MAASTRICHT, Holland, Nov. 12. Amid execrations from two thousand Belgian refugees, the former German Emperor's special train left here at 10 o'clock this morning, northward bound. A tremendous crowd of sightseers had gathered, but the platform was strongly cordoned, and William Hohenzollern did not show himself.

UNDER PREVENTIVE ARREST.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 12. The Grand Duke of Hesse has been placed under preventive arrest, according to a Darmstadt despatch to the Dusseldorf Nachrichten.

ITALY'S ASPIRATIONS ACHIEVED.

ROME, Nov. 12. King Victor Emmanuel, responding recently to the congratulations of the ministry on the Italian victory, said: "In the solemn hour which marks the achievement of all the aspirations of the country, it is most agreeable to me to see the strong determination for the welfare and grandeur of Italy in the progress now commenced toward a new and greater destiny." General Diaz, addressing Premier Orlando, conveyed the congratulations of the army.

WERE ONLY BLASTING.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE MEUSE, Nov. 12.—Blasting by American engineers in a road-repairing detachment caused the German high command to send a message to the Allied high command Monday afternoon contending that the Americans had not ceased hostilities on Nov. 11th. The message sent by wireless to the Allied high command was timed 2 p.m. and read: "On the front of Stenay Beaumont, along the Meuse, Americans continue despite decision of armistice. Please order the stoppage of hostilities." The American answer to the German message reads as follows: "Received your radio. Orders have been given for American activities signalled on the Stenay Beaumont front to cease immediately." So the engineers did not blast during the remainder of Monday afternoon. Early this morning, however, they resumed their blasting. The explosions today did not bring any message from the Germans.

DISCUSSES GERMAN REQUEST.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12. Before the usual Cabinet meeting, Secretary Lansing conferred with the President, and it is understood the German appeal was discussed by the President with the Cabinet.

TAKING NO CHANCES.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE, Nov. 11. (By the A.P.)—Orders announcing that the Armistice between the Allied powers and Germany had been signed and giving directions as to the future conduct of Allied soldiers along the line were sent to every corps this morning. They were transmitted to the units in the front ranks. The order follows: You will cease along the whole front at 11 o'clock on November 11, 1918, Paris time. No Allied troops will pass the line reached by them at that hour in the day until further orders. Division commanders will immediately sketch the location of their front line. This sketch will be returned to headquarters by the courier bearing these orders. All communication with the enemy both before and after the termination of hostilities is absolutely forbidden. In case of violation of this order severest disciplinary measures will be immediately taken. Any officer offending will be sent to headquarters for which he has been indicted. This will be laid on the fact that the arrangement is an armistice only and not a peace. There must not be the slightest relaxation of vigilance. Troops must be prepared at any moment for further operations. Special steps will be taken by all commanders to insure strictest discipline and that all troops will be held in readiness, fully prepared for any eventualities. Division and brigade commanders will personally communicate these orders to all organizations.

WANTS MURDERER EXTRADITED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11. The extradition of former Emperor William of Germany, from Holland, his trial in England on the charge of murder for which he has been indicted. This was urged here to-night by former Ambassador Gerard in an impromptu address before a theatre audience. Asking whether a man shall be allowed to escape who had killed so many people, that if they were stretched on the ground they would form a line almost around the entire world, Mr. Gerard answered his own question with an emphatic "I should say not." There is a treaty between Holland and England, Mr. Gerard declared by which they can extradite the Kaiser who has been indicted in England and try him before an English court. I guess we all know what the reward would be. When the hangman drops the trap he will be doing away with one of the world's greatest murderers.

"CONTEMPTIBLES" AVENGED.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN BELGIUM, Nov. 11. (By the A.P.)—Peace descended like a mantle over the battlefield at eleven o'clock this morning. The last big gun crashed its challenge and a great overpowering quiet replaced the turmoil of death and destruction. Coincident with the signing of the armistice by the desperate enemy the city of Mons captured before the relentless British pressure, Canadian troops under General Horne having captured the place. On this hallowed ground the troops are now resting on their arms, happy in the thought of the fitness of their final triumph, they had driven the enemy out by the same gateway through which Field Marshal Von Buslow and Field Marshal Von Kluck hurled their great armies against the valiant little force of "Contemptibles" in 1914. The population of Mons to-day paraded the streets cheering madly their deliverers. Their glad cries must have reached the ears of the Germans outside the walls of the town. Early this morning a crisp graphic order to cease fire at eleven o'clock was distributed to all units with further orders to maintain defensive precautions, but to have no intercourse with the enemy. The advance continued, the gunners racing forward to the advance batteries seeking the honor of firing the final shot. Punctually at eleven o'clock the firing stopped like clockwork. Fleets of British airplanes dropped showers of signal lights which descended with the momentous message to those below. There was joy in plenty among the British troops at the first blush of peace, but there was little in the nature of demonstrations. Tommy Atkins was unable to realize that the announcement was true, although his heart was burning with the hope of going back to his wife and baby in Blighty, so he stood and waited for something to happen he knew not what. This could not be the end. After all the shambles and terror he had been through one of those fatigued and mud-caked veterans came to the correspondent's auto and as he sa-
