All this Breitman did while supporting his mother and contributing to the education of a brother and sister. In 1915 Breitman, then a high school graduate, became physical culture instructor in a New York school. With the passage of the Walker Bill legalising boxing in the State, he turned professional pugilist, with such success that his income from his first year's efforts as a boxer is said to have been nearly $20,000.

my head for years. I had them cut off by a surgeon about fifteen years ago but they grew again till about three months ago I had one as large and shaped like a lady's thimble, on the very place where my hair should be parted, and it was getting so embarrassing in public that it was a constant worry to me. About three months ago I got a bottle of your liniment for another purpose and saw on the label good for tumors. Well I tried it and kept at it for exactly two months, with the result that it has entirely removed all trace of the tumor, and were it not that they had been cut fifteen years ago, no mark would be seen.
