to skin loveliness

The most effective treatment of all is this-50 simple that it will surprise you.

Just correct cleansing

Powder, rouge, dust from the airall gather in the tiny pores of your skin, every day. They must be removed if you would keep skin lovely, youthful, alluring.

If permitted to remain they age and deaden the skin. Eruptions, blackheads are the result. Beauty goes.

Do this

Before going to bed, each night, see that your skin is perfectly clean—all the pores. But don't employ harsh soaps. They are dangerous to skin

So many girls and women make the mistake of looking to costly beauty found Palmolive Soap best. It is a wonderful blend of natural, gently, Wash well with it each night. Massage the soothing lather well in. Then rinse. Now repeat washing and rinsing. Apply a little cold cream if your skin is dry. And that is all you need do.

A needless risk

It does not pay, in so important a matter, to risk using soaps of which you know little. In Palmolive Soap there are the oils of palm. coconut palm and olive trees -no others They-and nothing else-give Nature's green color to Palmolive Soap.

And Palmolive is inexpensive. You can well afford to let it do for your whole body-in the bath-what it does for the face.

All dealers have it. Get a cake today. Start your simple treatment tonight. See how remarkable the results—even

This system of making work, when own doors. Their solicitors, instead of sending cases to the assizes, enter them in the London list, partly to swell costs and that they themselves may have a holiday in town at the expense of their clients.

The most striking instances of how grist is brought to the legal mill are seen in the Court of Criminal Appeal. After a long agitation, and finally through the miscarriage of justice in the case of Adolph Beck, this court was established in 1908 for the revision of juries' verdicts where good grounds could be shown for such a

It sat weekly for nearly four years before it interfered with a capital sentence, and ever since its formation it has saved from the gallows only about half-a-dozen persons convicted of murder. Very rarely, therefore, does the machinery of justice get out
