

ANOTHER NEW STORY.

In the course of a few weeks we will commence the publication of a new tale in the DAILY and WEEKLY MERCURY.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

We are just in receipt of a telegram from Washington, stating that the Senate has postponed the Impeachment proceedings till Saturday night.

DEATH OF LORD BROUGHAM.

The Right Hon. Henry Brougham, Lord Brougham and Vaux, the eminent lawyer, reformer, legislator, and ex-Chancellor of England, died in his rural retreat at Cannes, France, on Saturday, the 9th instant, in the 90th year of his age.

Lord Brougham was born in Edinburgh, Sept. 9, 1778, and consequently but little more than four months was wanting to the completion of the ninetieth year of his age.

His connection with the "Speculative Club," a society for the discussion of philosophical and political questions, on his return to Edinburgh, brought him into intimate contact with Jeffrey, Francis Horner, Sydney Smith, and other men of ability and wit.

But the great event of Mr. Brougham's life up to this time was his defence of Queen Caroline on her trial before the House of Lords in 1820 and 1821.

The basis of Lord Brougham's distinction was the union of rare intellectual vigor with a wonderful talent for execution. He was neither a philosopher nor a poet.

A young man named Knapp was killed by lightning on "Crows' Island," near Kingston, on Tuesday.

Freeman, aged about 17 years, residing with her widowed mother on the opposite side of the river, died very suddenly on Saturday last.

A NEW SECT.—A new sect has sprung up in France. It is composed of people who altogether reject religion, and who take among themselves the engagement, not only to abstain from going to church, and from permitting any religious observances in their households, but not to let any priest officiate at their marriages, or at the naming, marrying, or burying of their children, or to enter houses or hold communication with members of their families on any pretext.

ANOTHER DIG IN PERSPECTIVE AT THE PUBLIC CHEST.—The last semi-annual report of the operations of the Grand Trunk Railway Company shows a rather bad state of affairs.

The directors conclude by stating that they will communicate with the Canadian Government for the purpose of raising the necessary funds for placing the line upon a better footing, repair the track, build the bridge at Buffalo, and complete other works calculated to promote the enterprise and the commerce of the country.
