

Every Individual Packet Guaranteed to Contain Full Weight of Pure, Fresh, Fragrant, Delicious Tea Leaves from the Sweet Scented Island of Ceylon.

Black, Mixed or Sealed Packets Only.

25c, 30c, 40c, 50c, 60c.

Received highest award and gold medal St. Louis Exposition, 1904

ALL FOR HER

CHAPTER XXVIII.

For more than a fortnight Olivia wandered in the valley of the shadow of death; then the crisis came and passed, and life still counted her among its subjects. But her recovery was so slow that another fortnight elapsed before, thin and pale, a bruised and broken lily, she was carried from her bedroom to her boudoir.

During all the time—almost unendurable anxiety and suspense—Bessie had scarcely left her. No nurse could have shown more devotion, no sister more tender and self-sacrificing love. Almost as thin and pale as Olivia, she watched beside her night and day, fully repaid if Olivia's hand closed on hers with a feeble pressure, or if she murmured gratefully her name.

Quite a thrill of relief ran through the county at the news of her convalescence, and attention, which had been mainly devoted to her concentrated in Olivia upon the man who lay in prison, awaiting his trial, and upon Mr. Bartley Bradstone.

He had never been popular; but those who liked him least—and no one liked him over-much—felt constrained to pity him. He seldom left the Maples, excepting to walk up to the Grange to inquire after his wife and those few persons who chanced to meet him were struck by the change in his appearance. He had been rather ruddy and robust, but he was now thin and emaciated, and looked ten years older than he had done on the day of his wedding. There was not only a look of age, but an expression of anxious unrest which struck everyone who saw him; and, strange to say, the man who had guarded expression on his face did not leave it when Olivia was pronounced out of danger.

"That poor devil Bradstone has been completely bowled over," one man said. "Looks as if he had all the care of the world on his shoulders." Olivia's appearance, exactly described Bartley Bradstone's appearance.

He haunted the Grange daily; but he had not seen Olivia since the wedding day.

"Keep him away from her, if you wish her recovery to continue," the doctor had said, and the poor squire repeated his words.

"Oh, I won't worry her," said Bartley Bradstone, in the manner which had settled upon him. "She'll be all right, I'm sure; she'll see me when she's better, and—and we'll get on as usual, I hope."

"Yes, yes," said the squire, with a heavy sigh. "When all this trouble is over, it is this terrible murder which hangs like a dark cloud over us all."

"Does—does she speak of it at all?" asked Bartley Bradstone, looking down at the carpet, as if he were suddenly interested in the pattern.

"The squire shook his head. "Not to me; not to Bessie, I think. She has seen no one else, excepting the doctor."

"That's right," said Bartley Bradstone. "Don't let her hear anything about it; she'll forget it before long." It almost seemed as if Olivia had already forgotten it, for day after day passed and she made no mention of the terrible incident which had stricken her down. She lay on the sofa, her thin and now fragile form carefully enveloped, her hands folded lightly in her lap; her lovely eyes, strained with hidden pain, fixed on the elms which showed through the window. Bessie, who even now scarcely ever left her, would sit silent for hours, sometimes with a book, sometimes at needlework. It was only when the squire entered, that Olivia's face warmed with a smile. But one morning, after a long silence, she said, "Tell me, what do you think of this?"

"Bessie, tell me all. Tell me the truth."

"About Mr. Faradene, miss?" faltered Bessie, who had not yet learned to call her mistress by her name. "Yes," said Olivia, turning her eyes upon her with solemn entreaty and insistence. "Don't be afraid; I am strong enough. Tell me all. What have they done with him?"

"They have sent him for trial, miss," she replied in a low voice. "Olivia looked at her steadily, and her breath came in quick little pants. "Send him for trial? They think he is guilty?" she said. "If he would not hurt a dog, shoot a helpless woman? Why should he do it? Who was she?"

Bessie shook her head. "No one knows, miss. Mr. Faradene will not say anything, and—that is why they think he did it. If he would only speak and explain, then people would believe him."

Olivia remained silent for a few moments, thinking deeply, her hands tightly clasped. "And he will say nothing?" she inquired in a low voice.

Her Drunken Husband Cured.

A lady, who saved her husband from a long and painful illness, writes: "I had for a long time been thinking of trying Samaria on my husband. One day when he came home very much intoxicated, I sent for a bottle of Samaria. He took it, and in a few days he was cured. I am now well, and my husband is well."

before I had given him the full course, he stopped drinking altogether. He is now well, and my husband is well."

FREE SAMPLES and pamphlet, giving full particulars, testimonials and price, sent in plain sealed envelope. Correspondence strictly confidential. Enclose stamp for reply. Address—THE SAMARIA REMEDY CO., 23 Jordan Street, TORONTO, Ont. Also for sale by W. T. Strong & Co.

SOCIAL GLEANINGS

Succeeding the twilight organ recital in the First Methodist Church on Saturday last, at which Miss Edna MacCallum's clear contralto voice was listened to with rapt appreciation, the Misses Gibbons, Lornehurst, and others, presented a very attractive and interesting program.

Miss Helen Gibbons, Lornehurst, has returned from an extended visit in Ottawa with Miss Helen Gibbons, Lornehurst, and Miss Helen Gibbons, Lornehurst.

Miss Jessie Hale is still at the capital, where she is enjoying many social functions. She was a guest at Miss Coates' dance on Friday evening last.

Miss Leslie Smith, who spent such a gay visit, the guest of Mrs. Gibbons, Lornehurst, went on to Hamilton, where she was much entertained by the guests of Mrs. George Glasco, and is now enjoying a round of entertainments, herself the rapturous detour.

Lady Evelyn Grey is rapidly recovering from her attack of measles. Senator Fulford, of Brockville, has arrived at Gibraltar.

Mr. Hillhouse Brown, of Hamilton, was the raison d'être of a very happy little Ciderella dance at the Kennels last Saturday evening, given by his sister, Mrs. Hillhouse Brown, whose entertainments are always anticipated.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Masurett, Queen's avenue will entertain at cards. Mrs. Orr entertained a merry party of her little daughter Rhea's friends at a Valentine tea on Thursday of last week.

Miss Edna MacRobert entertained at a Valentine tea and evening party on Tuesday, which was enjoyed by a large number of her friends.

Mr. Richard Bayly, in Albert street, has sent out invitations for the tea hour on Monday next.

Major and Mrs. Cronyn, Mr. and Mrs. John Smallman, Miss Wilson (Quebec), Miss Gibbons, Mrs. Drake, Miss Douglas Young (Hamilton), William Falls, Fred Harper, C. H. Hunt, Scream, John Smallman, Anthony Tillman, Louis Walker and Fred White.

The Countess of Limerick intends to make a concert tour in this continent as a pianist. Culturally, it is not as a professional that Lady Limerick will make the tour, for the proceeds of the tour will be devoted to the founding of a school of music in Dublin. She had the honor of playing for Queen Victoria when her late majesty visited Ireland and has also greatly pleased the present Queen with her musical ability.

Monday week, Paarderg Day, Feb. 27, will be commemorated by the London Chapters of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire by a musical afternoon tea at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, a cordial invitation to which is extended to all by the regent, Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Beddome and Mrs. Ernest Smith. There is no admission fee, but silver collection will be taken up to defray running expenses, the surplus to be devoted to the monument and another highly commendable project, which is being energetically promoted. During the afternoon those who represented London at the annual paper ball in Toronto last week will have the honor of wearing their pompadour costumes.

Mrs. S. N. Sterling's handsome home in Dufferin avenue was on Friday afternoon of last week, on the occasion of a most enjoyable five o'clock tea. Very artistic and beautiful were the table decorations of exquisite calla lilies, resting in a low basket, glowing glass fires in the library hall and drawing-room, and clusters of choicest spring blossoms completely shut out all thoughts of the stormy day without. The tea hostesses were Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Duncan Smith (Sherbrooke, Quebec), Mrs. Beddome, Mrs. Hume Cronyn, Mrs. Gerard, John Hunt, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Macbeth, Mrs. R. G. Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Baker, Mrs. Frank Reid, Miss Alice Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, Miss Ponton (Belleville), Miss Fergus, Miss Nordimer, Miss Beddome, Miss Gibbons, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, Miss MacCallum, Miss Marian MacCallum, Miss Douglas Young (Hamilton), Miss Luce Turner, Miss Belton, Miss Somerville, Miss Westcott, Miss Helen Gunn, Miss Gerrard (Canoe), Miss Lindsey (Hamilton), Miss Walker (Hamilton), Miss Arnold (Toronto), and others.

Again on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Sterling was hostess at the tea hour, when she was charmingly assisted in the tea room by the Misses Frances Macbeth, Laura Hyman, Walker, Helen Harris, and Mary Macle, and among those to enjoy the Western University Conversation for Monday evening next will be a very smart social event. The lady patronesses are Mrs. Charles Hyman, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. (Col.) Peters, Mrs. David Williams, Mrs. Beecher, Mrs. Moorhouse, Mrs. Waugh and Mrs.

Mr. Wood Leonard's return home to Oakwood from his recent absence of pleasure to his many friends here.

Miss Lucie Turner went home to Hamilton on Tuesday, after a jolly three weeks' stay with her aunt, Mrs. John Hunt, Highfield.

Miss Walker returned to Hamilton on Wednesday, having thoroughly enjoyed her visit at Connamara, the home of Mr. Simpson Graydon, in Dundas street.

Notwithstanding the bitter cold and many drove or wheeled their way to the home of Dr. and Mrs. MacCallum, in the Asylum grounds, at the tea hour on Monday last, where they were welcomed by a most gracious welcome and where a wealth of golden daffodils in the drawing-room gave thoughts of warmer days to come. The tea was given in honor of Mrs. R. Harcourt, of Welland, a graceful lady, who was given in rich black lace over black silk. Mrs. MacCallum received in a black lace robe over white silk and was assisted by Miss MacCallum, Mrs. McBurney, in white silk with brown hat, encrusted with pink roses, and Miss Helen Hunt, in white crepe de soie, with hat of brown fur and a delicate relief of scarlet, cut ice cream and poured coffee at the tea table, beautifully arranged with a pink and white chignon center piece and large crystal jars of pink and white carnations, flanked by several pink-shaded candles. The man who was banked with, fragrant white hyacinths, and the Misses Marian MacCallum, Madeline Pavey, Helen Richardson, Mrs. J. C. MacCallum, and Ada Somerville were the prettily-frocked assistants.

Miss Marjorie Gibbons and Miss Geraldine Beddome left Toronto immediately after the Valentine ball and went on to Ottawa, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Hyman gave a very smart luncheon party in honor of her guest, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, and several other entertainments are also on the tapis.

Mrs. Charles Hunt and Dr. Wilson left yesterday afternoon for Ottawa, where they will be guests of Hon. Charles and Mrs. Hyman, in Carleton street.

Mrs. and Miss Helen Harris, in Colborne street, gave a very bright and enjoyable euchre party of four tables on Thursday afternoon. Some of the participants were Mrs. Edward Mansgault, Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. MacCallum, Mrs. (Dr.) J. D. Wilson, Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. S. N. Sterling, Mrs. J. Reid, Mrs. Macle, Mrs. McBurney, Miss Bethune, the Misses Edith and Etta Bayly, Miss Puddicombe, Miss Eleanor Pennington, the Misses MacCallum, Miss Hogg, Miss Aspinall and others.

A merry party of young people (arranged by Miss Nita Hunt) surprised Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, Wortley road, last evening.

Mrs. McBurney is to give a tobogganing party on the slide at the Barracks on Thursday next.

Capt. Allen Macree, who has been spending the past week at his parents' home, in Albert street, returns to Toronto on Monday.

Mrs. Puddicombe and Miss Michie returned from Toronto on Wednesday. Mrs. Adam Beck, Miss Kent and Miss Carling on Friday, and Mrs. Young, with others of the party, are expected home this evening.

Captain and Mrs. John H. Kaye are spending a visit with the latter's aunt, Miss Buchanan, North street, before furnishing a Toronto home.

Miss Jap Moore is the guest of Miss Mary Harrington, Port Huron.

The annual dance of the Lotos Club is arranged to take place on Friday evening, March 3. The patronesses of the affair are Mesdames C. W. Belton, William Falls, Fred Harper, C. H. Hunt, Scream, John Smallman, Anthony Tillman, Louis Walker and Fred White.

The Countess of Limerick intends to make a concert tour in this continent as a pianist. Culturally, it is not as a professional that Lady Limerick will make the tour, for the proceeds of the tour will be devoted to the founding of a school of music in Dublin. She had the honor of playing for Queen Victoria when her late majesty visited Ireland and has also greatly pleased the present Queen with her musical ability.

Monday week, Paarderg Day, Feb. 27, will be commemorated by the London Chapters of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire by a musical afternoon tea at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, a cordial invitation to which is extended to all by the regent, Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Beddome and Mrs. Ernest Smith. There is no admission fee, but silver collection will be taken up to defray running expenses, the surplus to be devoted to the monument and another highly commendable project, which is being energetically promoted. During the afternoon those who represented London at the annual paper ball in Toronto last week will have the honor of wearing their pompadour costumes.

Mrs. S. N. Sterling's handsome home in Dufferin avenue was on Friday afternoon of last week, on the occasion of a most enjoyable five o'clock tea. Very artistic and beautiful were the table decorations of exquisite calla lilies, resting in a low basket, glowing glass fires in the library hall and drawing-room, and clusters of choicest spring blossoms completely shut out all thoughts of the stormy day without. The tea hostesses were Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Duncan Smith (Sherbrooke, Quebec), Mrs. Beddome, Mrs. Hume Cronyn, Mrs. Gerard, John Hunt, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Macbeth, Mrs. R. G. Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Baker, Mrs. Frank Reid, Miss Alice Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, Miss Ponton (Belleville), Miss Fergus, Miss Nordimer, Miss Beddome, Miss Gibbons, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, Miss MacCallum, Miss Marian MacCallum, Miss Douglas Young (Hamilton), Miss Luce Turner, Miss Belton, Miss Somerville, Miss Westcott, Miss Helen Gunn, Miss Gerrard (Canoe), Miss Lindsey (Hamilton), Miss Walker (Hamilton), Miss Arnold (Toronto), and others.

Again on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Sterling was hostess at the tea hour, when she was charmingly assisted in the tea room by the Misses Frances Macbeth, Laura Hyman, Walker, Helen Harris, and Mary Macle, and among those to enjoy the Western University Conversation for Monday evening next will be a very smart social event. The lady patronesses are Mrs. Charles Hyman, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. (Col.) Peters, Mrs. David Williams, Mrs. Beecher, Mrs. Moorhouse, Mrs. Waugh and Mrs.

Mr. Wood Leonard's return home to Oakwood from his recent absence of pleasure to his many friends here.

Miss Lucie Turner went home to Hamilton on Tuesday, after a jolly three weeks' stay with her aunt, Mrs. John Hunt, Highfield.

Miss Walker returned to Hamilton on Wednesday, having thoroughly enjoyed her visit at Connamara, the home of Mr. Simpson Graydon, in Dundas street.

Notwithstanding the bitter cold and many drove or wheeled their way to the home of Dr. and Mrs. MacCallum, in the Asylum grounds, at the tea hour on Monday last, where they were welcomed by a most gracious welcome and where a wealth of golden daffodils in the drawing-room gave thoughts of warmer days to come. The tea was given in honor of Mrs. R. Harcourt, of Welland, a graceful lady, who was given in rich black lace over black silk. Mrs. MacCallum received in a black lace robe over white silk and was assisted by Miss MacCallum, Mrs. McBurney, in white silk with brown hat, encrusted with pink roses, and Miss Helen Hunt, in white crepe de soie, with hat of brown fur and a delicate relief of scarlet, cut ice cream and poured coffee at the tea table, beautifully arranged with a pink and white chignon center piece and large crystal jars of pink and white carnations, flanked by several pink-shaded candles. The man who was banked with, fragrant white hyacinths, and the Misses Marian MacCallum, Madeline Pavey, Helen Richardson, Mrs. J. C. MacCallum, and Ada Somerville were the prettily-frocked assistants.

Miss Marjorie Gibbons and Miss Geraldine Beddome left Toronto immediately after the Valentine ball and went on to Ottawa, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Hyman gave a very smart luncheon party in honor of her guest, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, and several other entertainments are also on the tapis.

Mrs. Charles Hunt and Dr. Wilson left yesterday afternoon for Ottawa, where they will be guests of Hon. Charles and Mrs. Hyman, in Carleton street.

Mrs. and Miss Helen Harris, in Colborne street, gave a very bright and enjoyable euchre party of four tables on Thursday afternoon. Some of the participants were Mrs. Edward Mansgault, Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. MacCallum, Mrs. (Dr.) J. D. Wilson, Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. S. N. Sterling, Mrs. J. Reid, Mrs. Macle, Mrs. McBurney, Miss Bethune, the Misses Edith and Etta Bayly, Miss Puddicombe, Miss Eleanor Pennington, the Misses MacCallum, Miss Hogg, Miss Aspinall and others.

A merry party of young people (arranged by Miss Nita Hunt) surprised Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, Wortley road, last evening.

Mrs. McBurney is to give a tobogganing party on the slide at the Barracks on Thursday next.

Capt. Allen Macree, who has been spending the past week at his parents' home, in Albert street, returns to Toronto on Monday.

Mrs. Puddicombe and Miss Michie returned from Toronto on Wednesday. Mrs. Adam Beck, Miss Kent and Miss Carling on Friday, and Mrs. Young, with others of the party, are expected home this evening.

Captain and Mrs. John H. Kaye are spending a visit with the latter's aunt, Miss Buchanan, North street, before furnishing a Toronto home.

Miss Jap Moore is the guest of Miss Mary Harrington, Port Huron.

The annual dance of the Lotos Club is arranged to take place on Friday evening, March 3. The patronesses of the affair are Mesdames C. W. Belton, William Falls, Fred Harper, C. H. Hunt, Scream, John Smallman, Anthony Tillman, Louis Walker and Fred White.

The Countess of Limerick intends to make a concert tour in this continent as a pianist. Culturally, it is not as a professional that Lady Limerick will make the tour, for the proceeds of the tour will be devoted to the founding of a school of music in Dublin. She had the honor of playing for Queen Victoria when her late majesty visited Ireland and has also greatly pleased the present Queen with her musical ability.

Monday week, Paarderg Day, Feb. 27, will be commemorated by the London Chapters of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire by a musical afternoon tea at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, a cordial invitation to which is extended to all by the regent, Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Beddome and Mrs. Ernest Smith. There is no admission fee, but silver collection will be taken up to defray running expenses, the surplus to be devoted to the monument and another highly commendable project, which is being energetically promoted. During the afternoon those who represented London at the annual paper ball in Toronto last week will have the honor of wearing their pompadour costumes.

Mrs. S. N. Sterling's handsome home in Dufferin avenue was on Friday afternoon of last week, on the occasion of a most enjoyable five o'clock tea. Very artistic and beautiful were the table decorations of exquisite calla lilies, resting in a low basket, glowing glass fires in the library hall and drawing-room, and clusters of choicest spring blossoms completely shut out all thoughts of the stormy day without. The tea hostesses were Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Duncan Smith (Sherbrooke, Quebec), Mrs. Beddome, Mrs. Hume Cronyn, Mrs. Gerard, John Hunt, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Macbeth, Mrs. R. G. Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Baker, Mrs. Frank Reid, Miss Alice Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, Miss Ponton (Belleville), Miss Fergus, Miss Nordimer, Miss Beddome, Miss Gibbons, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, Miss MacCallum, Miss Marian MacCallum, Miss Douglas Young (Hamilton), Miss Luce Turner, Miss Belton, Miss Somerville, Miss Westcott, Miss Helen Gunn, Miss Gerrard (Canoe), Miss Lindsey (Hamilton), Miss Walker (Hamilton), Miss Arnold (Toronto), and others.

Again on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Sterling was hostess at the tea hour, when she was charmingly assisted in the tea room by the Misses Frances Macbeth, Laura Hyman, Walker, Helen Harris, and Mary Macle, and among those to enjoy the Western University Conversation for Monday evening next will be a very smart social event. The lady patronesses are Mrs. Charles Hyman, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. (Col.) Peters, Mrs. David Williams, Mrs. Beecher, Mrs. Moorhouse, Mrs. Waugh and Mrs.

Mr. Wood Leonard's return home to Oakwood from his recent absence of pleasure to his many friends here.

Miss Lucie Turner went home to Hamilton on Tuesday, after a jolly three weeks' stay with her aunt, Mrs. John Hunt, Highfield.

Miss Walker returned to Hamilton on Wednesday, having thoroughly enjoyed her visit at Connamara, the home of Mr. Simpson Graydon, in Dundas street.

Notwithstanding the bitter cold and many drove or wheeled their way to the home of Dr. and Mrs. MacCallum, in the Asylum grounds, at the tea hour on Monday last, where they were welcomed by a most gracious welcome and where a wealth of golden daffodils in the drawing-room gave thoughts of warmer days to come. The tea was given in honor of Mrs. R. Harcourt, of Welland, a graceful lady, who was given in rich black lace over black silk. Mrs. MacCallum received in a black lace robe over white silk and was assisted by Miss MacCallum, Mrs. McBurney, in white silk with brown hat, encrusted with pink roses, and Miss Helen Hunt, in white crepe de soie, with hat of brown fur and a delicate relief of scarlet, cut ice cream and poured coffee at the tea table, beautifully arranged with a pink and white chignon center piece and large crystal jars of pink and white carnations, flanked by several pink-shaded candles. The man who was banked with, fragrant white hyacinths, and the Misses Marian MacCallum, Madeline Pavey, Helen Richardson, Mrs. J. C. MacCallum, and Ada Somerville were the prettily-frocked assistants.

Miss Marjorie Gibbons and Miss Geraldine Beddome left Toronto immediately after the Valentine ball and went on to Ottawa, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Hyman gave a very smart luncheon party in honor of her guest, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, and several other entertainments are also on the tapis.

Mrs. Charles Hunt and Dr. Wilson left yesterday afternoon for Ottawa, where they will be guests of Hon. Charles and Mrs. Hyman, in Carleton street.

Mrs. and Miss Helen Harris, in Colborne street, gave a very bright and enjoyable euchre party of four tables on Thursday afternoon. Some of the participants were Mrs. Edward Mansgault, Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. MacCallum, Mrs. (Dr.) J. D. Wilson, Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. S. N. Sterling, Mrs. J. Reid, Mrs. Macle, Mrs. McBurney, Miss Bethune, the Misses Edith and Etta Bayly, Miss Puddicombe, Miss Eleanor Pennington, the Misses MacCallum, Miss Hogg, Miss Aspinall and others.

A merry party of young people (arranged by Miss Nita Hunt) surprised Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, Wortley road, last evening.

Mrs. McBurney is to give a tobogganing party on the slide at the Barracks on Thursday next.

Capt. Allen Macree, who has been spending the past week at his parents' home, in Albert street, returns to Toronto on Monday.

Mrs. Puddicombe and Miss Michie returned from Toronto on Wednesday. Mrs. Adam Beck, Miss Kent and Miss Carling on Friday, and Mrs. Young, with others of the party, are expected home this evening.

Captain and Mrs. John H. Kaye are spending a visit with the latter's aunt, Miss Buchanan, North street, before furnishing a Toronto home.

Miss Jap Moore is the guest of Miss Mary Harrington, Port Huron.

The annual dance of the Lotos Club is arranged to take place on Friday evening, March 3. The patronesses of the affair are Mesdames C. W. Belton, William Falls, Fred Harper, C. H. Hunt, Scream, John Smallman, Anthony Tillman, Louis Walker and Fred White.

The Countess of Limerick intends to make a concert tour in this continent as a pianist. Culturally, it is not as a professional that Lady Limerick will make the tour, for the proceeds of the tour will be devoted to the founding of a school of music in Dublin. She had the honor of playing for Queen Victoria when her late majesty visited Ireland and has also greatly pleased the present Queen with her musical ability.

Monday week, Paarderg Day, Feb. 27, will be commemorated by the London Chapters of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire by a musical afternoon tea at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, a cordial invitation to which is extended to all by the regent, Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Beddome and Mrs. Ernest Smith. There is no admission fee, but silver collection will be taken up to defray running expenses, the surplus to be devoted to the monument and another highly commendable project, which is being energetically promoted. During the afternoon those who represented London at the annual paper ball in Toronto last week will have the honor of wearing their pompadour costumes.

Mrs. S. N. Sterling's handsome home in Dufferin avenue was on Friday afternoon of last week, on the occasion of a most enjoyable five o'clock tea. Very artistic and beautiful were the table decorations of exquisite calla lilies, resting in a low basket, glowing glass fires in the library hall and drawing-room, and clusters of choicest spring blossoms completely shut out all thoughts of the stormy day without. The tea hostesses were Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Duncan Smith (Sherbrooke, Quebec), Mrs. Beddome, Mrs. Hume Cronyn, Mrs. Gerard, John Hunt, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Macbeth, Mrs. R. G. Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Baker, Mrs. Frank Reid, Miss Alice Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, Miss Ponton (Belleville), Miss Fergus, Miss Nordimer, Miss Beddome, Miss Gibbons, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, Miss MacCallum, Miss Marian MacCallum, Miss Douglas Young (Hamilton), Miss Luce Turner, Miss Belton, Miss Somerville, Miss Westcott, Miss Helen Gunn, Miss Gerrard (Canoe), Miss Lindsey (Hamilton), Miss Walker (Hamilton), Miss Arnold (Toronto), and others.

Again on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Sterling was hostess at the tea hour, when she was charmingly assisted in the tea room by the Misses Frances Macbeth, Laura Hyman, Walker, Helen Harris, and Mary Macle, and among those to enjoy the Western University Conversation for Monday evening next will be a very smart social event. The lady patronesses are Mrs. Charles Hyman, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. (Col.) Peters, Mrs. David Williams, Mrs. Beecher, Mrs. Moorhouse, Mrs. Waugh and Mrs.

Mr. Wood Leonard's return home to Oakwood from his recent absence of pleasure to his many friends here.

Miss Lucie Turner went home to Hamilton on Tuesday, after a jolly three weeks' stay with her aunt, Mrs. John Hunt, Highfield.

Miss Walker returned to Hamilton on Wednesday, having thoroughly enjoyed her visit at Connamara, the home of Mr. Simpson Graydon, in Dundas street.

Notwithstanding the bitter cold and many drove or wheeled their way to the home of Dr. and Mrs. MacCallum, in the Asylum grounds, at the tea hour on Monday last, where they were welcomed by a most gracious welcome and where a wealth of golden daffodils in the drawing-room gave thoughts of warmer days to come. The tea was given in honor of Mrs. R. Harcourt, of Welland, a graceful lady, who was given in rich black lace over black silk. Mrs. MacCallum received in a black lace robe over white silk and was assisted by Miss MacCallum, Mrs. McBurney, in white silk with brown hat, encrusted with pink roses, and Miss Helen Hunt, in white crepe de soie, with hat of brown fur and a delicate relief of scarlet, cut ice cream and poured coffee at the tea table, beautifully arranged with a pink and white chignon center piece and large crystal jars of pink and white carnations, flanked by several pink-shaded candles. The man who was banked with, fragrant white hyacinths, and the Misses Marian MacCallum, Madeline Pavey, Helen Richardson, Mrs. J. C. MacCallum, and Ada Somerville were the prettily-frocked assistants.

Miss Marjorie Gibbons and Miss Geraldine Beddome left Toronto immediately after the Valentine ball and went on to Ottawa, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Hyman gave a very smart luncheon party in honor of her guest, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, and several other entertainments are also on the tapis.

Mrs. Charles Hunt and Dr. Wilson left yesterday afternoon for Ottawa, where they will be guests of Hon. Charles and Mrs. Hyman, in Carleton street.

Mrs. and Miss Helen Harris, in Colborne street, gave a very bright and enjoyable euchre party of four tables on Thursday afternoon. Some of the participants were Mrs. Edward Mansgault, Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. MacCallum, Mrs. (Dr.) J. D. Wilson, Mrs. Gillespie, Mrs. S. N. Sterling, Mrs. J. Reid, Mrs. Macle, Mrs. McBurney, Miss Bethune, the Misses Edith and Etta Bayly, Miss Puddicombe, Miss Eleanor Pennington, the Misses MacCallum, Miss Hogg, Miss Aspinall and others.

A merry party of young people (arranged by Miss Nita Hunt) surprised Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, Wortley road, last evening.

Mrs. McBurney is to give a tobogganing party on the slide at the Barracks on Thursday next.

Capt. Allen Macree, who has been spending the past week at his parents' home, in Albert street, returns to Toronto on Monday.

Mrs. Puddicombe and Miss Michie returned from Toronto on Wednesday. Mrs. Adam Beck, Miss Kent and Miss Carling on Friday, and Mrs. Young, with others of the party, are expected home this evening.

Captain and Mrs. John H. Kaye are spending a visit with the latter's aunt, Miss Buchanan, North street, before furnishing a Toronto home.

Miss Jap Moore is the guest of Miss Mary Harrington, Port Huron.

The annual dance of the Lotos Club is arranged to take place on Friday evening, March 3. The patronesses of the affair are Mesdames C. W. Belton, William Falls, Fred Harper, C. H. Hunt, Scream, John Smallman, Anthony Tillman, Louis Walker and Fred White.

The Countess of Limerick intends to make a concert tour in this continent as a pianist. Culturally, it is not as a professional that Lady Limerick will make the tour, for the proceeds of the tour will be devoted to the founding of a school of music in Dublin. She had the honor of playing for Queen Victoria when her late majesty visited Ireland and has also greatly pleased the present Queen with her musical ability.

Monday week, Paarderg Day, Feb. 27, will be commemorated by the London Chapters of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire by a musical afternoon tea at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, a cordial invitation to which is extended to all by the regent, Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Beddome and Mrs. Ernest Smith. There is no admission fee, but silver collection will be taken up to defray running expenses, the surplus to be devoted to the monument and another highly commendable project, which is being energetically promoted. During the afternoon those who represented London at the annual paper ball in Toronto last week will have the honor of wearing their pompadour costumes.

Mrs. S. N. Sterling's handsome home in Dufferin avenue was on Friday afternoon of last week, on the occasion of a most enjoyable five o'clock tea. Very artistic and beautiful were the table decorations of exquisite calla lilies, resting in a low basket, glowing glass fires in the library hall and drawing-room, and clusters of choicest spring blossoms completely shut out all thoughts of the stormy day without. The tea hostesses were Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Duncan Smith (Sherbrooke, Quebec), Mrs. Beddome, Mrs. Hume Cronyn, Mrs. Gerard, John Hunt, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Macbeth, Mrs. R. G. Fisher, Mrs