HOUSE AND CONTENTS BURNED AT CREDITON

John Smith Loses Home-Uninsured and Adjoining Buildings Are Scorched.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Crediton, April 14 .- At 1:15 o'clock this morning, the house owned and occupied by John Smith was totally destroyed by fire with all its contents.

The cause of the fire is unknown. Mrs. Smith, mother of the owner, and Miss Beulah, his daughter, first noticed the smell of fire and gave the alarm. The brigade arrived in a few minutes, but by that time the kitchen was almost consumed, and it was not possible to save the house or furniture. Mr. Mrs. and Miss Smith all escaped unharmed, but no furniture or clotning was saved.

The two adjoining houses, belonging to George Lawson and Henry Steinacker, were badly scorched, but good work on the part of the fire-fighters prevent their

ENTERTAIN CHOIR AT ENJOYABLE "AT HOME"

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Mc. Cormick Hosts to First Methodist Choir Members.

A most enjoyable musical "At Home," claiming Mr. and Mrs. George T. Mc Cormick as host and hostess, was tendered members of the First Methodist Church choir and other friends in the Dominion Savings Building last evening. About 130 guests were present, and thoroughly enpoyed themselves throughout.

A delightful program consisting of musical numbers and recitations occupied the early part of the evening. Vocal solos were given by the following members of the choir: Mr. Cooper, Will Corp, Lashbrook and Miss M. Hotham. Miss Beatrice Hunt (soprano soloist) also selection in her usual finished style

Miss Katherine K. McCormick, who was present with a jolly party of girl friends from Ladies' College, Whitby, Ont., gave petition against the granting of the a recitation that was most enthusiastically received. Miss McCormick possesses remarkable elocutionary talent, and a finished style that is pleasing in the extreme. Recitations by Miss Hope Wilkinson and Miss Kathleen Maguire, both of Whitby, were other enjoyable features of the program.

After the conclusion of the program, the remainder of the evening was spent dancing, music being furnished by an orchestra of eight pieces. The sing-ing of a difficult number by the ladies' double quartette, including Misses Luta Laymon, Frances Evans, Hicks, Zavitz, Fitzgerald, Mitton, Kidner and Lashbrook, was highly appreciated. Later, a dainty supper was served, and the gathering broke up about midnight, all voting Mr. and Mrs. McCormick most kindly and genial hosts.
