The Collegiate Institute sports day, which is to take place on Friday of this week, is a day of importance for the girls of the school, as well as for the boys. The games scheduled for the girls are basketball, indoor baseball and tennis, and it is expected that the public at large will turn out to witness the very fine team play which is promised. Pupils from the St. Thomas Collegiate Institute will visit the city and participate in the matches on that day, and in the evening a banquet will be held at the Y. M. C. A. in honor of the visiting teams and local teams, the hosts being the staff and pupils of the London Collegiate. A feature of the day will be the procession of students to Tecumseh Park, all marching in schools. To the school presenting the best appearance will go the banner given by Principal W. H. T. Moore.

WITH THE BRIDES

MANN—MELLENGER.
A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Trinity Square, Toronto, on Saturday, October 1, at 6 o'clock, when Miss Madeleine Vilette, second daughter of Mrs. E. A. Mellenger of Welland, became the bride of Mr. Daniel D. Mann, formerly of this city, the Rev. L. Ralph Sherman officiating. The bride wore a traveling suit of navy blue serge with black chiffon velvet hat, trimmed with ostrich feathers, her bouquet being a corsage of Ophelia roses. There were no attendants.

LANDRY—MACDONALD.
St. Martin's Church, South London, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 3:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning, when Catherine Isabel, daughter of Mr. J. Landry of Detroit, the Rev. Father Forster officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore her traveling suit of navy blue serge with black panne velvet hat and corsage of Ophelia roses. Attending her, as bridesmaid, was Miss Helen Clark of Detroit, who wore a frock of navy canton crepe with hat to match. Mr. John Landry, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Gleason presided at the organ for the singing of high mass. During the signing of the register, Mr. John Ashwell sang "Ave Maria."

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, the decoration color scheme being pink, white and gold. After a trip to Toronto and other eastern points, Mr. and Mrs. Landry will reside in Detroit.

A Remarkable Discovery
Among the twentieth century discoveries none will go down to posterity as a more popular labor-saver than the great boon of housewives—Mir-A-Cle Washing Cream. Entirely different from any other aid to washing, Mir-A-Cle is a class by itself. Used with soap, it does the wash without rubbing being required. Include a bottle of Mir-A-Cle in your order and make wash-day easier.

THE HAT WITH LINES.

Once more, the hat with the line is the hat which commands attention. Brims lend, and even break; they are sharply defined and they give a flare which is quite beyond the grace of a softly rolling brim may achieve. There are plenty of the softer kind though, for the woman who needs a kindly frame for her face, but the woman who can wear the smartly-blocked hats is having this new opportunity and selecting one in preference to the softer, even though more flattering types.

There is a certain hardness about some of the new hats which has a distinct individuality and charm. The trim is an excellent example of such a hat, and the marquis shapes are interesting variations of it.

Napoleon's reign is a source of inspiration, as many a stiff little off the face, latter's plush hat has its edge bound and its brim broken by the introduction of a pleated ribbon cockade such as the "Little Corporal" himself might have worn.

Some hats retain their buikiness of crown, but the most interesting of the new hats is the subject of to be brought over not too near the flame.

Small tea serviettes are really needed, though we often omit them, and leisurely service is quite essential to the success of a tea party.

Ask only congenial friends to drink tea together, and this will limit the number properly. Make the replenishing of a cup or plate as unobtrusive as possible. Do not interrupt a dinner in a conversation by passing the salted almonds.

It is a compliment to remember how a guest takes his tea. The great interest, any real tea drinker, male or female, does on the cup itself, as well as its contents. It should be lovely in both texture and color.

The last word in surroundings for the tea table includes an open fire and few small flowers, such as tiny tea roses. No showy flowers or large jolly roses should be allowed to "come to tea."

SENDS SYMPATHY.
Dear Miss Grey,—The summer has passed very quickly for us all. I had a letter from Mother Pease, one from Helene and another from Fuzz Wuzz and I have had baby brother to visit me for over a week. We did have such a lovely time! We went to see Happy Mother and Mother of Three. But since Fuzz Wuzz and the mother went home, I have received the sad news that baby brother died on the 24th of September. He did look the picture of health when he was here. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the sorrowing ones.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[By Cynthia Grey.]

WITH the cool weather settling in, one's mind naturally runs along the channel of entertaining. Did you ever stop to consider why your teas were never really a success?

The sandwich should be dainty in both size and filling. The toast and cheese sandwich is popular, as well as cinnamon toast. Cucumber and cream cheese with mayonnaise are old favorites.

Just a word about cinnamon toast. So often it is poorly made, and yet it can be most delicious. Try cutting the bread one-half inch thick and spreading it with butter and cinnamon. Then toast lightly on one side, spread the other side with sugar and cinnamon mixed in proportions of 6 to 1. Dot with butter and return to broiling oven, not too near the flame.

Small tea serviettes are really needed, though we often omit them, and leisurely service is quite essential to the success of a tea party.

Mrs. Marshall Declines Nomination.

[By Cynthia Grey.]

MRS. MARSHALL, wife of the late Joseph H. Marshall, M. P., wishes to state that while she greatly appreciates the honor to her husband's memory, the offer that she should be a candidate for the Liberal-Conservative nomination for East Middlesex for the coming Dominion elections, she would not be able to accept owing to home duties, though she is very grateful to all those who wished her name to be voted on.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

[By Cynthia Grey.]

THE Ealing Mothers' Club forwarded a letter to the board of education for their regular meeting this week, appealing to that body for an addition to the Ealing School, for the purpose of housing a manual training and domestic science department. This club has been agitating for such an addition for some time past, and thinks that the board should make some move in the matter.

Mrs. Rake, the president, was in the chair. The program included a splendid travel talk by Mrs. Heritage, who has recently returned from a trip to the Pacific coast. The club voted $15 towards the Children's Hospital.

RIVERVIEW M. C.
The chief speaker at this week's meeting of the Riverview Mothers' Club was Principal F. J. Newhouse of the Riverview School, who spoke on co-operation between the home and the school, pointing to the splendid work which was being done by the mothers' clubs of the city to bring about such co-operation.

"Is the child more public than the school?" will be the subject of a debate to be held shortly between the Riverview Club and the St. George's Mothers' Club, officers of the St. George's Club being present at the Riverview meeting to make arrangements.

The club is also planning a bazaar to be held in October in aid of the club's relief work. Mrs. Cowan has been appointed secretary of the club, in place of Mrs. Scott, whose resignation took place a short time ago.

KING STREET C. G. I. T.
At a largely-attended meeting of the King Street Canadian Girls in Training group, held recently at King Street Presbyterian Church, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Miss Ella Haldane, president; Miss Tona Quire, first vice-president; Miss Maggie Campbell, second vice-president; Miss Yelda Barnett, secretary; Miss Anna Pierson, treasurer.

BOYLE MEMORIAL M. C.
The old subject of trying to get the board of education to permit the use of the public schools as community centres in the city was brought up at this week's meeting of the Boyle Memorial Mothers' Club. The members are anxious to make Boyle Memorial School a community centre in the east end of the city. They feel that such an expansion and splendid building should not stand idle for so many hours of the day, and mean to work towards getting it as a community building.

The club is planning a bazaar, with Mrs. Simmons as convenor, to raise money towards its share of the Children's Hospital Fund. It is the intention of the club, however, to go back to its position as a non-money making organization, as soon as the hospital account has been paid. The club's budget also included the appointment of Mrs. Doan as secretary-treasurer. Visitors were present from the Tecumseh School and Mrs. John Rose, president of the Union Mothers' Club, gave a very fine talk on the proper relationship between parents and children. Out of her talk came the suggestion that one of the club members give a five-minute talk at each meeting, which suggestion the club intends to carry out. Vocal solos by Mrs. Lloyd completed the program.

LIBRARY CLUB.
At the recent meeting of the Library Club, Miss Kate McLaughlin was elected president, Miss Marjorie Ross, vice-president and Miss Doris Nelles, secretary. The club is planning a splendid season's work.

"BIBLE CLASS."
Dr. John McNeil begins his Bible study classes at the Y. W. C. A., King street, on Friday afternoon of this week at 6:30 o'clock. These classes, which are open to women and girls, promise to be exceptionally attractive.

GIRLS' WORK.
Miss Helen d'Avignon, Y. W. C. A. girls' work secretary, reports that the girls' groups throughout the city are well into their fall work. The meeting of the co-operative council for girls' work on Monday, October 17, will be closely followed by a meeting of the girls' cabinet, when general plans for the season's work will be made. The Y. W. C. A. girls' work board is meeting on Friday of this week.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S CLUB.
The first regular meeting of the University women's club has been postponed from Saturday, October 8, to Saturday, October 15, when Mrs. Albright will give a paper on "The Development of the Novel," as an introduction to the year's study of modern novelists.

MISSION STUDY CLASSES.
"Canada's Share in World Tasks," is the new study book to be undertaken by the Mission Study Class of the First Methodist Church, which met at the home of Mrs. H. E. Boomer this week, with Mrs. J. S. By, chairman, the leader, in the chair. Sixteen members were present and at the close of the meeting Mrs. Boomer served tea.
