OTTAWA SENDING CREWS TO CANADIAN HENLEY

OTTAWA, July 25.—A junior eight and a 14-pound four are entries in the Canadian Henley, and will leave for St. Catharines this evening.

Felix Swenden, captain, is unable to make the trip, and Jim McConig, one of the officers of the club, will be in charge of the party. The oarsmen will arrive in St. Catharines tonight and coach Harry Vail intends sending his crews over the course in the afternoon.

During the last week the crews have showed a great improvement, and the coach is quite optimistic as to their chances.

THISTLES WANT GAME. Smallman and Ingram Thistles wish to arrange games with other girls' softball teams, either in town or outside. Teams wishing games communicate with C. E. Speiser, care of Smallman and Ingram, Ltd.
