Chrysler Drops to 200 While

| New York, Nov. 16.—Extensive selling of the motor shares on the New York stock exchange this morning caused the whole market to decline at a rather rapid pace. Chrysler broke 12% to 200, which compares with the recent high of 253. Hudson fell 6½ points and Mack Truck, Jordan, White and Fisher Body 3 to 4½ points.

A number of other specialties and railroads gave way three points or so, with United States Cast Iron Pipe losing 4½ points, General Electric band Dupont 11 points. Subsequent heavy accumulation of Chesapeake & Ohio, American Can Mispeake & Ohio, Can Mispeake & Oh

Potatoes Offered Saturday For grain exchange today. A bullish tone First Time in Three Weeks.

Morning Trade.

Toronto, Nov. 16.—With a fair volume of trading taking place, the market on the Toronto stock exchange this morning showed no fixed tendency, but fractional declines were numerous.

Smelters continued the leader. It was sold down to 153½ during the morning, but recovered to 155½ at the close, a net decline of 5½. Twin City was marked down ¾ and Atlantic Sugar, 1½. Canada Steamship Lines, preferred, and Canadian Canners, common, each gained a point and a quarter, and Imperial Bank a point at 210.

The mines were strong, Hollinger advancing 30 cents to $16.90, and Dome, 35c to $16.35.

Hay, the scarcity of which reached sagain made its appearance on the local market today. The pit studyers, who for the past week lave been unable to fill their orders, was eased to a certain extent, when several loads were offered this morning at $20 to $22 per ton.

For the first time in three weeks, botatoes were offered at the local square on Saturday as low as $1.90 per bag. The average wholesale price, however, was $2 per bag, while the retail price ranged from $2.25 to $2.50.

Few changes have been made in the quotations on grain, poultry, butter and eggs. The prices on dairy products still remain firm and quite stable.

Perhaps This Dog COULD Read-

No doubt you have heard the story of the lost dog that returned to its home voluntarily after seeing its owner's ad in the Lost and Found Classification in the Advertiser Classified Ad.

We make no attempt

But we DO know of a dog in this city that was returned to its owner the first day the ad appeared in the Advertiser Classified

A Ridout street resident had just this experience when she lost her Airedale dog the other day. ALWAYS at your service
