FRIDAY, FEBRITARY 20, 1891.

DIRECT TAXATION.

THE COLORIST.

**THE COLORIST CASE PROPERTY AND THE COLORISM C

giving the Government this "additional true; but it is too able a journal not to ing of such a policy as the advocates of unand extraordinary power." But the Times, with shallow disingenuity, goes even further then this, for it argues that by taking upon itself this power of dismissal the Government.

server of the first bearing and calculated the property of Hilling and the property of

for the people of the United States to have a preference on every article of manufacture to the United States over Great Britain he said: "In that case, all the advantages of the slender tie which still binds Caseda to this country, as far as we (Englishmen) are concerned, would disappear, and it is not likely that the people of Great Britain would continue very much longer to sustain the obligations and responsibilities of a connection, all the reciprocal benefits of which had been withdrawn."

The which this details are connection, all the reciprocal benefits of which had been withdrawn."

The which this thick this this contains think that the people of the United States to have a "new tier of Northern States," in habited by an industrious, frugal, law abiding people, to help them solve their own relighbors must manage to do without that help some tine longer. Canadians think that charity begins at home, and that it would be much better for them to solve their own comparatively easy social and political problems than to face the sea of troubles that the people of the United States have entered upon.

The which this thick this thick this country, as far as we first the united States to have a "new tier of Northern States," in habited by an industrious, frugal, law abiding people, to help them solve their way difficult social problems. The indicators must manage to do without that help some tine longer. Canadians think that charity begins at home, and that it would be much better for them to solve their own comparatively easy social and political problems than to face the sea of troubles that the people of the United States have entered upon.

THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT & APPLIANCE CO

RITISH MITHIRIA

THIRTY-THIRD

BY ATLANTIC CABL

Empress Frederick Overcomes I ices and Increases Her Pop larity in the French Capital

Nore Decided Stand by the Bishops—Moral Aspect of Parnell's Case.

McCarthyites to the Fore-Pithes Bill Passes the Imperial Government.

th more success than s persuading the French ented at the Berlin expe represented at the The Empress has, personally, been rat favorite with the more thoughtful differenthing on account of her exertic behalf of the wounded French pris during the Franco-Prussian war, when took an active part in alleviating their ferings and seeing that they were proprovided for. Added to this is the that she is not a German, also the fact she was the object of Bismarck's er and persecution and had an active infining the French still regard as their archen it is now certain that the French at will participate, and that M. Detalle attend the exhibition in person.

on, Feb. 19.—It is said that Walsh is in communication prelates of the Roman Ca sh in Ireland, on the subject of t Church in Ireland, on the subject of to a disciplinary movement against clergy as persist in adhering to Par The archbishop argues, it is reported, the issue is not one of politics bu morality, and that the clergy have no to take the side of a man who has been victed of Parnell's offence in the O'case. Archbishop Walsh is deeply irriat what he calls the insolence of Parriollowers toward the Irish hierarchy. priests are to be thoroughly organ with a view to political work in their spective parishes, and will be expected act, so far, at least, as Parnell is concernment of the absolute jurisdiction of bishops. It is suggested that Roman Colies who persist in attending Parametrizer and contemptation the Parametrizer and contemptation the Parametrizer.

BRIGES, Feb. 19.—The Tribunal fined M. Canevet and M. Rochefort, francs for indulging in a brawl in Kursolat. Ostend.

itee of the National League of Britain has been for some time in the lof the McCarthyites, and has decided the St. Patrick's Day meetings of the rious branches shall be addressed by Carthy speakers.

PARIS, Feb. 19.—Empress Fred walked in the garden of the Tuileries respectfully greeted everywhere. French notables called at the German bassy to pay their respects. The Emi-dined at the British Embassy.

rangling Over the Money Bags on, Feb. 19.—At a meeting of T thy Healy's supporters, to-day, it was solved to press for information as to whe the amount drawn from the fund for u evicted tenants had been actually ap to such use. The meeting repudiated imputation of reflecting on the honor O'Brien.

"United Ireland."
DUBLIN, Feb. 19.—United Ireland is der the control of Parnellites, wha day's papers says that with the impriment of Dillon and O'Brien dies the of re-uniting the Irish party, as at preconstituted. It is the duty, the papers clare, of every Irishman to overthrow banner raised by a faction under Bricontrol, and with the object of dividing Irish.

Too Harsh by Far. on, Feb. 19.—The London ing to the baccarat scandal in virince of Wales is involved, says England is no longer the slave of roys and will only accept as its monarch a son whose habits are creditable to hin and to the people, to whom sovereign ought to be an The Stan son whose habits are creditable to hin and to the people, to whom sovereign ought to be an ample of good behavior. The Star on to say that the Sovereign of Englinot rules, but only reigns, and that gilding of the figure head ought not tarnished by royal folly and blunders, extreme Radicals generally appland tuterances, but British public opinion, among the working classes, is showing a of sympathy with the Prince, who is garded as having been subjected to abuse than he deserves. Gladstone, etally, is said to disapprove of the atta

LIN, Feb. 19.—Bishop MacGover ore, has addressed a letter to ergy of his diocese in which he warm necting at Newry. The bishop says he oped that the poisoned atmosphere of ivorce court, with its filthy, disguand scandalous revelations, would