CHRISTANITY TO THE RESCUE.

To THE WORLD :- The following is an ex tract from a letter found inserted recently in the "opinions of the people" column of an evening paper. It is a curiosity worthy of this nineteen century, and deserving of ex-tended fame. THE SOCIAL EVILS.

THE SOCIAL EVILS. I believe the only way of freeing our presence of twose degrading and degraded creatures is by the utmost severity. We punish a thief with peniten-tary for long years. Yet if he robs me I am the only vietim of his act, whereas, those whited sepulchres, those bedizened incarnations of sin are drawing the life blood of our sons, and polluting the very air that our pure daughters have to breather. Why should they have an option of commuting their imprisonment by fine? I advocate a six months' imprisonment by the? I advocate a six months' offence proved against keeper or immate, and on a second conviction let the imprisonment be supple-mented by two whippings, one on entering, another on leaving the institute. Believe me if thoses social varpires know that their delicate flesh was to writhe and ache under the lash, we would have fewer gilded palaces of sin in the city, and fewer death-dealing Circes on our streets. ANTI-EVIT. Is it difficult to decide whether the above Is it difficult to decide whether the above entiments flow from concentrated phar isaism, or from pious zeal for purity? When one remembers the is written, "each man is tempted when h

With and therefore all the blame cannot rest upor those fallen women whose bland that the fallen women whose blandishments some men contrive to resist; when one re flects on our Lord Jehr vah's treatment of the woman taken in the very act of adultims of the union generale is reduced to three. Had the original rumors of a much doubtful whether "Anti-Evil" does "conthree. Had the original rumors of a much greater number proved correct, it might have been suspected that many victims had been influenced by a public-spirited sense of obligation to do their share in rendering the affair fitly sensational and French, as well as by a feeling of inability to survive their misfortunes. Kings, counts, clergy, of such devilment without a shudder of wrathful horror. "Anti-Evil's" libel upon christianity deserves exposure. J. L. F.
