JOSEPH LOCHARY.

This world in truth's as good a world As e'er was known to any, Who have not seen another yet, Of whom, are very many ; And if the men and women too Have plenty of employment, They surely must be hard to please Who cannot find enjoyment.

This world is quite a clever world, In rain or pleasant weather, If people would but learn to live In harmony together ; Nor seek to burst the kindly boud By love and perce cemented, But learn that best of lessons yet, Always to be contented.

This world were then a pleasant world, With pleasant folks within it; Each day in pleasantness would pass
