On Thursday of last week an exceedingly bad accident occurred to Mr. W. B. Hicks' youngest child, a baby of twelve months, whilst playing before the fire. The child stumbled, and to save itself from falling, clutch ed at the handle of a kettle filled with boiling water, with the result that its whole contents fell upon the baby's body and arms, scalding them in a very terrible manuer. Very k rtumately Brs. Stella Messenger and Mackenzie were at once upon the spot, and in an incredibly short time relieved the little sufferer of most of its pain. Had medical aid not been at hand at once, Mr. Hicks feared for the child's life.
