

SUNSHINE

Vol. XIV.
Nos. 8 & 9

MONTREAL

AUG. & SEPT.
1909

THE JOSEPH HOWE STATUE—The above monument was erected to the memory of Joseph Howe, one of Nova Scotia's most honored sons—the father of responsible government. Born 1804, and died 1873. Journalist, orator, statesman, patriot, Briton, upright citizen and honest man.