

LESSON IX.

CHRIST BEFORE PILATE

May 28, 1899

John 18: 28-40. Commit to memory vs. 38-40. Compare Matt. 27: 11-26; Mark 15: 1-15; Luke 23: 1-26

38. Then (1) led they Jesus from Caiaphas (2) unto the hall of judgment: and it was early: and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, (3) lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

39. Pilate (4) then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

40. They answered and said unto him, (5) If he were not a malefactor, we (6) would not have delivered him up unto thee.

41. (7) Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

42. That the (8) saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying (9) what death he should die.

43. Then (10) Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

44. Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this (11) thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee (12) of me?

45. Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

46. Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

47. Pilate, therefore, said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest (13) that I am a king. To this end (14) was I born, and for this cause (15) came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

48. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find (16) in him no fault at all.

49. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

50. Then (17) cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber

Revised Version —(1) They lead Jesus therefore; (2) Into the palace. Margin, Greek, Pretorium. (3) That they might not; (4) Therefore. (5) If this man were not an evil doer; (6) Should; (7) Pilate therefore . . . Take him yourselves. (8) Word; (9) By what manner; (10) Pilate therefore entered again into the palace; (11) Omit thing; (12) Concerning me; (13) Margin. Or, Thou sayest it because I am a King; (14) Have I been. (15) Am I come; (16) No crime in him; (17) They cried out therefore again.

In our last lesson we saw Jesus led from the preliminary trial before Annas to be tried before the Sanhedrim, of which Caiaphas, as high priest, was president. The trial resulted in His being condemned and handed over to the mob (Matt. 26: 57-68). The night trial, however, was illegal and so a morning session was held to pass sentence upon Him (Matt. 27: 1; Luke 22: 66-71). It then remained to gain the consent of Pilate, as the Roman Governor, to put Him to death; and here our present lesson begins.

EXPOSITION

I. Accused by the Jews, 28-32.

V. 28. "Then led they"; to Pilate, the Roman governor, to get his consent to put Jesus to death. The Jews, now that they were under Roman rule, had not the power of capital punishment. The hall of judgment; the "Pretorium" (Margin Rev. Ver.); literally, "the general's tent or headquarters." Here was the
