

EXCHANGES.

(Under this head will be issued Notices of Exchange for Stamps, Coins, &c. Exchanges must not exceed Thirty words, and must be written on a separate sheet of paper. All notices must reach us by the 25th of each month to insure insertion in next issue.)

COLLECTOR, ROMNEY, ONT., will give 25 foreign Stamps for every Philatelic paper sent him.

L. W. BAUNSAW, NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE.—Coins to exchange for coins, shells, minerals, or curiosities from the Falls.

✓ L. C. O. MILLS, 1910 NORTH MARKET ST., LONDON N., ENG.—Would like to correspond with advanced collectors.

✓ F. E. BOOK, NIAGARA FALLS, SOUTH, ONT.—Vol VI of Golden Days (a few numbers missing,) for a set of U. S. Navy.

✓ P. F. O'KEEFE, MANSFIELD VALLEY, PA.—I want Vol. I, Philatelic Herald; also back numbers Old Curiosity Shop. Will give good exchange or cash.

✓ Z. A. RANCHENBURG, 2877 120TH ST., ST. BAZIL ST., LONDON, ENG.—Wanted old Philatelic papers. Would also like to change relations with advanced collectors.

THE NIAGARA FALLS STAMP CO., NIAGARA FALLS, SOUTH, ONT.—Will give four surcharged one Ticol Siam, for Vol. I of the Philatelic Journal of America.

✓ ROBT. WILDE, UTICA, N. Y. A Stylographic Pen, a Poliopticon, a Dark Lantern and a set of Drawing Instruments, for Stamps and Coins not in my collection.

✓ W. S. KINZER, WOOSTER, OHIO.—Desires exchange with advanced collectors. Stamps for the same. International Stamp Album for best offer. Write now. All letters answered.

✓ W. H. VERITY, BOX 119, LUTHER, MICH.—A Wells, Fargo & Co.. unused newspaper stamp for every officially sealed stamp, or every Agriculture, State, Navy Justice and Postoffice (except 3 cent) Department Stamp.

✓ J. VANWORTEN, NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Vol VII of "Golden Days," 50 Nos. of "Harper's Bazaar," and about 25 Nos. of the "Century" Magazine, for the complete sets of unused U. S. Executive, Treasury and Navy.

✓ B. G. A., P. O. Box 67, Brooklyn, N. Y.—U. S. Revenue, document, match, medicine, proprietary, playing card and Foreign Postage Stamps, also Foreign Postal Cards and stamped envelopes, to exchange. Stamp papers to exchange for others, or for stamps.

A clerk at the Columbia, S. C. post office the other day was saluted by an old fellow outside, who said he wanted to send off a letter.

"All right," said the genial purveyor of stamps, "two cents, please."

"I've only got one cent," said the old man. "Just put that on, and let the letter go slow."