

for Cuba; and for the Philippines 1, 2, 5, and 10 cent postage dues, 2 cent red on white envelopes, and 1 cent green on Manila surcharged wrapper.

THE Postoffice Department states that Cuba is wholly independent of the United States in postal service matters. The new adhesives, envelopes and special delivery issues are of different design and on differently watermarked paper from those for the United States. It seems likely, therefore that within a short time we shall have a distinctive set of Postage Due stamps for Cuba.

GREAT Barrier Island is worrying our collectors, those who have not invested and those who have are equally anxious as to the character of its pigeonpost.

BUSINESS is getting to be much better here with the approach of winter, it certainly has been quiet during vacation season, which probably affects Washington more than it does other cities, by reason of its government official population.
