CAMPBELL'S TONIC
ELIXIR

This agreeable yet potent preparation is especially adapted for the relief and cure of that class of disorders attendant upon a low or reduced state of the system, and usually accompanied by Pallor, Weakness and Palpitation of the Heart. Prompt results will follow its use in cases of Sudden Exhaustion arising from Loss of Blood, Acute or Chronic Diseases, and in the weakness that invariably accompanies the recovery from Wasting Fevers. No remedy will give more speedy relief in Dyspepsia or Indigestion, its action on the stomach being that of a gentle and harmless tonic, exciting the organs of digestion to action, and thus affording immediate and permanent relief. The carminative properties of the different aromatics which the Elixir contains render it useful in Flatulent Dyspepsia. It is a valuable remedy for Atonic Dyspepsia, which is apt to occur in persons of a gouty character.

For Impoverished Blood, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, and in all cases where an effective and certain stimulant is required, the Elixir will be found invaluable.

In Fevers of a Malarial Type, and the various evil results following exposure to the cold or wet weather, it will prove a valuable restorative, as the combination of Cinchona Calisaya and Serpentaria are universally recognized as specifics for the above-named disorders.

CONSTIPATION!

There is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by Constipation, and there is no other ill flesh is heir to more apt to be neglected, from the fact material inconvenience may not be immediately felt from irregular action of the bowels. When there is not regular action the retention of decayed and effete matter, with its poisonous gases, soon poisons the whole system by being absorbed into it causing piles, fistula, headache, impure blood, and many other serious affections. Burdock Blood Bitters will immediately relieve and one bottle positively cure or relieve any case of Constipation.

"Was troubled for a year with torpid liver and indigestion, and after trying everything imaginable used Burdock Blood Bitters. The first bottle revived me and the second cured me entirely."

Scientific and Useful.

SAVE your cold tea; it is excellent for cleaning grained wood.

CORN PUDDING.—Grate ears of green corn. Add to a quart of it a teaspoonful of cream or milk, a lump of butter the size of an egg, and a teaspoonful of salt. Mix all well together; put it in a pan and bake one hour. To be eaten as a vegetable.

SPICED GRAPES.—Five pounds of grapes, three pounds of sugar, two tablespoonfuls each of cinnamon and allspice, one-half teaspoonful of cloves; pulp the grapes, boil the skins till tender, cook the pulp and strain through a sieve; add it to the skins, with sugar, spices and vinegar to suit taste; boil all this together thoroughly; when done put in jars and cork tightly.

DIPHTHERIA.—The name strikes a chill to a mother's heart as she realizes what a dangerous malady it is. With a bottle of Pain-Killer in the house she feels that she has a still more powerful cure, and half the terror is destroyed.

CORN SOUP.—Grate twelve ears of corn. Boil cobs in one quart of water for one and a half hours; remove the cobs and put in the corn, and boil a half hour. Add one quart new milk, one teaspoonful of butter. Salt and pepper to taste. When ready to serve, add three well-beaten eggs. Stir briskly and do not return to the fire, but serve quickly.

NEVER put a particle of soap about your silver if you would have it retain its original lustre. When it wants polishing, take a piece of soft leather and whitening and rub hard. The proprietor of one of the oldest silver establishments in the city of Philadelphia says that housekeepers ruin their silver by washing it in soap suds, as it makes it look like pewter.

HOARHOUD CANDY.—Prepare a strong decoction by boiling two ounces of the dried herb in a pint and a half of water for about one half hour. Strain, and add to it three and one-half pounds of brown sugar. Boil over a hot fire until the sugar will harden when cool. Pour out into flat tins that have been greased. When partially cool, mark the candy, with a knife, into squares.

UNKNOWN.—There is no remedy known to medical science that can excel Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry as a cure for Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, or any form of Summer Complaint afflicting children or adults.

BAKED EGGS.—Mince half a pound of lean boiled ham, add an equal quantity of cracker crumbs. Moisten and spread the mixture over a platter; scoop out four round holes as large as an egg, and drop an egg from the shell into each hole; season with salt, cayenne and butter; put the dish in the oven, and serve them when the eggs are cooked. The crumbs should be moist enough to take almost a crust when baked.

A VERY GOOD LEMON PUDDING.—Make a custard of one pint of milk, two eggs, no flavouring, sugar to taste. Set the dish in water while it is baking. Grate the rind and press out the juice of one lemon, mix with one teacup of water, one heaping tablespoonful of corn starch, two-thirds of a teacup of sugar, yolks of two eggs. Stir till thick in a tin dish set in boiling water; when ready to use spread this on the custard. Beat the whites of the two eggs with one-third of a cup of sugar to a light froth, and spread over it.

SUCCOTASH.—Two dozen ears of sweet corn, cut not to close to the cob (scrape the cob), one quart of green beans, Limas are much the best, but any other kind will do. Let the beans boil fifteen minutes, then put the corn in and boil three-quarters of an hour, stirring it often so it will not stick. There should be two quarts of water to begin with. Then put in two quarts of rich milk and a piece of butter the size of a goose egg and one heaping tablespoonful of sugar. Salt and pepper to taste.

"MYSTERIOUS PEOPLE."

Celestial Children of the pig-tail race! Scorned by us Easterns, who are yet obliged to face and bow before thy ingress! What do we owe thee? Nothing more or less than thy anti-Christian idea that gave to Caxton his Printing Press, who multiplied the Bible, that superstition killed and gave freedom to ourselves—and now to-day on Yonge Street loads with Books our groaning shelves. We owe this debt as well thy Hindoo brother for those fragrant, pungent leaves, that give light, health and pleasure to all who use the Li-Quor Teas. All grades from 50c. to 80c. a pound.
