

The Editor CANADIAN MESSENGER,

Rev. Sir. — Perhaps this may be the last opportunity I shall have to write to you before you leave Canada on a pilgrimage to foreign lands, and as I have not heard as yet of any one going from this neighborhood, I must ask one request of your Reverence. If it would not be too much trouble for you, would you fetch me something from the shrine of Blessed Margaret Mary ; a promoter's cross, one of those golden ones, I see advertised, or something on that line, or anything else you think proper? I don't want it for nothing: I intend to pay for anything I get like that. I hope the Sacred Heart will bless the pilgrimage and see all safe back home and in good health. I wish I could afford to go. But I can afford to say a few prayers for the pilgrims if they will be of any service.
