

the following Tuesday morning he was the guest of the Bishop of the Huron and Mrs. Baldwin.

On Sunday, May 11th., the Bishop preached in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, in the morning, and in the Memorial Church in the evening. The Offertories at both services were for Domestic Missions.

The Bishop spent from the 13th., to the 16th., in Hamilton the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Braithwaite, who retain their regard for, and their interest in Calgary.

From the 17th. to the 21st. the Bishop was in Ottawa, the guest of the Rector, the Rev. H. Kittson, M. A. On Whit-Sunday morning he preached and celebrated Holy Communion in the Cathedral; in the afternoon he addressed the Sunday School Children, and in the evening he preached in St. George's Church.

On Monday in Whitsun Week at 9 a. m., the Bishop, with the permission of the Bishop of Ottawa, held an Ordination in the Cathedral, when Mr. Charles Gordon Austin, of Queen's College, Kingston, and Trinity University, Toronto, was ordained Deacon. The Rector presented the candidate for ordination and preached the sermon.

That afternoon the Bishop addressed the pupils of Ashbury College, and found a most interested and appreciative audience.

On Tuesday, in Whitsun Week, at 4 p. m., the Bishop addressed the members of the St. George's W. A., Mrs. Tilton, President. On the following day his Lordship left for home and arrived in Calgary on Trinity Sunday morning.
