

JOURNAL OF TEMPERANCE.

A Monthly Periodical, at 50 Cents per annum.

The following are the contents of the third number of the "Journal of Temperance," now published at this Office:

A Glass of Beer, and what it did for Robert Grant,
A Humorous Speech,
The Bible a Classic,
A Drunkard's Struggles to Reform,
Firmness and Obstinacy,
No Waste in the Universe.
"Come, be a Man!"—Three Scenes in a Life,
The Grave,
Gold,
Business Maxims and Morals,
Conscience,
PICK AWAY,
THE CURSE OF CANADA,
RIDDLES,
The Curse of the Poor,
The American Temperance Society,
Intemperance and its Effects,
Overeating,
A Doctor's Opinion,
Opposition,
The New Temperance Act,
The Tercentenary of Shakespeare,
Hardening Effects of the Liquor Traffic,
Domestic Wines,
The Way of the World,
Analysis of Ale,
The Two Bottles,
"Another Nail in your Coffin,"
Liquor in the U. S. Army,
Young Men, be Energetic,
The Drunkard's Drink,
A Knock at the Door,
"With all thy might,"
Perseverance,
Pennies and Pounds; or, "Take care of the Pence and the Pounds will take care of themselves,"
Riches,
The Convictions of a Morning's Walk,
"To what Purpose is this Waste?"

POETRY.

A Mother's Love,
A Good Name,
A Psalm of Life,
Alcohol,
Discontented Betty,
A Pop.

The following are the Contents of the fourth Number of the "Journal of Temperance," now published at this Office:

Holden with the Cords of Sin,
Striking Incident,
Philanthropy of Teetotalism,

Questions for Liquor Dealers,
Drill for Volunteers,
"Only once in a Way,"
How it was I Signed the Pledge,
Clear the Way,
Counteracting Influences,
The Secret of a Charming Manner,
Success in Life,
Whom to Marry,
The Nemesis (Vengeance) of Drink,
Army Drunkenness,
Our Stumbling Brother,
Grand Division, Sons of Temperance,
Grand Lodge I. O. G. T.,
Arthur Clifton; or, Lead us not into Temptation,
Hugh Miller and Drink,
Jack, and his Hard Lump,
Necessity of Religion,
The Glasco' Bunch; or, the Lost Horse,
The British Public-House,
Rum—Beggary—Death,
Hints on Memory,
Discontent,
Don't get in Debt,
Tact and Talent,
Death of Professor Miller,
The Red Indian's Vow,
Impolite Things,
Prim People,
Extracts from a speech of Rev. Stenton Eardley,
Christmas Evans' Sermon,
Liberty is Dead,
Intemperance—How to be secure against it,
Beating down Prices,
The Young Tobacco Chewer Cured,
Temperance,
Advice of Rev. John Todd to Students, with reference to Intoxicating Liquors,
Death of the Intemperate,
"Poor, Simple Teetotalers,"
The Burdens of Wealth,
Social Advantages of Laughter,
Study,
Purpose in Life.
The Beer Question.

POETRY.

Youth's Darling Sin,
The Farmer's Lad,

Now Published at our Office and sent by Mail,—

BLIND BARTIMEUS AND HIS GREAT PHYSICIAN. By PROF. W. J. HOCE. Price 12½ Cents.

THE PROMISE OF THE SPIRIT. By REV. W. B. CLARK, Quebec, C.E. Price 12½ Cents.

THE SAINT'S DELIGHT. By REV. THOMAS WATSON. Price 12½ Cents.