Inquiry about a Father.

A SLAVE named HARRIS, who was owned by Robert Heald, of Missouri, ran away some twenty years since, after his wife was sold far away, and is supposed to be in Canada. His wife's name was Lucy, and was owned by one Cornwell. Their children were Betsy, Jane, Patsy, Eliza and Samuel. One of Harris' children (the son) now about 20 years of age, a very strong and stout man, with an honest face and pleasant manners; is very desirous of knowing where his father is—having heard that he is alive and in Canada; called HARRIS, or some other name. Should this notice meet the Father's eye, he is earnestly requested to communicate his Post Office address to the undersigned.
