

RELIGION A LA MODE.

MAMMA.—"Why, Jessie, I thought you were ready to come to church."
 JESSY.—"Well.... no.... Mamma, I think I had better stay at home."
 MAMMA.—"Are you ill, dear?"
 JESSY.—"No, not exactly; but you know I MUST go to the Hanton's dinner party to-morrow, and I am afraid I might take cold in church."

ALBION HOTEL,
 McGill and St. Paul Streets, Montreal, Canada.

HAS, for twenty years past, been the favourite resort of the general travelling public in the United States, as well as of Canada, when visiting Montreal on business or pleasure. It is centrally located on McGill Street, the great thoroughfare and commercial centre of the city, commanding a magnificent view of the River St. Lawrence, the Victoria Bridge on the left, and a full view of Victoria Square and Mount Royal on the right. The Hotel is furnished in a superior manner, and everything arranged with a view to the comfort of guests. As one of the largest Hotels in the Dominion, having ample accommodation for five hundred guests, while kept in first-class style, the moderate sum of $1.50 per day will be charged, as heretofore. The travelling community will consult their own interests by remembering the Albion Hotel, when visiting Montreal. 27

PANCREATIC EMULSION,

FOR THE TREATMENT OF CONSUMPTION.
 "On the 14th of October, the patient commenced the Pancreatic Emulsion (Savory & Moore's), in two teaspoonful doses, two hours after dinner and supper. I can only describe its effects by saying that it seemed to work like a charm. The cough grew less, the drenching night perspiration diminished, the respiration grew so much easier that she was able to lie down at night, which for some time had been impossible; the pains grew so much easier that she could dispense with the anodyne draught; the pulse sank gradually from 130 to 70, and grew full and strong. She increased in weight, and grew stout, and her strength returned by degrees."—Paper on "Phthisis Pulmonalis," by Dr. Kinkaid, Medical Press and Circular, Feb. 20th, 1868.
